Sir

The General Assembly of Virginia has by an Act passed the 14th of April 1759, intitled An Act for appointing an Agent, a Copy of which is herewith inclosed, been pleased to appoint you the Agent of this Colony, & directed their Treasurer to pay you yearly the Sum of £500 Sterling, in full for your Expences & Trouble in the Execution of your Duty.

The Appointment of such an Officer to represent the Grievances of the People, to justify their Conduct to their Sovereign, to obtain his Approbation & Assent to such Laws as their Representatives shall think necessary for their Welfare and good Government, to implore his Assistance in the time of Danger and Calamity, and to protect and explain their Rights & Interest in Parliament, seems to be the natural Privilege of all Colonies so far removed from their King and Mother Country. As the People of this Colony have had the Misfortune always to be disappointed in their Endeavours to attain this Right, tho' universally claimed, and enjoyed by all his Majesty's other Colonies and have been obliged to depend for these great and important Services on an Agent appointed by the Governor and Council, who for want of the Weight which a national Establishment would have given him, the Authority which must necessarily be derived from every Power of the Legislature, the Instructions when and for what Reasons he should interpose, must have been more deficient in his Duty, when considered as regarding the whole. Besides sometimes different Interests arise amongst the different Branches

<sup>1</sup> At the session of the Assembly held in May, 1760, the governor was notified by the House of Burgeffes of the death of Richard Booker (see p. 172). Writs for a new election having been issued, [John ?] Winn was elected to the seat. He was present at the closing session of the Assembly.

<sup>2</sup> Some time before the 7th of November, 1759, Edward Goodrich accepted the office of sheriff of Brunswick (see p. 138). This fact having been duly announced to the governor, and a new election having been ordered, Mr John Clack was returned.

<sup>3</sup> Mr. Slaughter was appointed sheriff of Culpeper some time before the 5th of November, 1759. At a new election Mr Henry Pendleton was returned in his stead.

<sup>7</sup> The election of both Mr Read and Mr Marrable was contested, and at the third session of the Assembly Mr Marrable was defeated (see p. 84). He was, however, re-elected.

<sup>3</sup> Instead of one of these—either Hartwell Cocke or William Allen—William Clinch had been elected a member of this General Assembly. He had been formerly, however, expelled the House, and voted incapable of ever sitting as a burgesis. Therefore a new election was ordered (see p. 5).

<sup>4</sup> Some time before the November session, 1759, Mr Travis had accepted the office of coroner (see p. 135). Mr. John Ambler succeeded him. Later on (see p. 159) Mr. Ambler, too, accepted an office of profit under the government and a new election was ordered. Mr Ambler, however, was probably re-elected. Jamestown was at that time practically a "rotten" borough, controlled by the Travis and Ambler families, and a member of the House of Burgeses who accepted an office of profit under the government was, though a new election had to be held, eligible to re-election, unless the office which he had accepted was that of sheriff or coroner. (See Stanard's "Colonial Virginia Register," pp. 9-10.)

Introductory Note.

WITH the present volume (the fifth of the series) the editorship of the "Journals of the House of Burgesses" passes into new hands. At the outset attention should be called to one or two changes adopted in the presentation of the material other than the text of the Journals themselves.

1. Much of the kind of material that has appeared in the prefaces of former volumes is presented in this volume in an appendix. Here will be found given in extenso all the Draper MSS. and the Bancroft Transcripts of importance bearing dates in the period 1758-1761, the time of the existence of the House of Burgesses the Journals of which are contained in this volume. In addition, there is printed a letter from James Abercromby to the Council of Virginia, dated March 25, 1759. The original is in the Virginia State Library. The Draper Manuscripts are those collected by that indefatigable student, Lyman C. Draper, and now owned by the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. The Bancroft Transcripts are the copies of documents in the English Record Office made for the historian George Bancroft when he was collecting material to be used in the preparation of his history of America. They are now the property of the Library of Congress. Permission to print the Draper Manuscripts in this volume has been kindly given by Dr. Reuben G. Thwaites, secretary and superintendent of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin, and to print the material from the Bancroft Transcripts, by Mr. Herbert Putnam, Librarian of Congress. Students have here presented to them for the first time in print material of the very highest value. In it much new light is thrown on the history of the period. The matter is given in its entirety, rather than merely such excerpts from it as could be worked into the treatment of the several topics discussed in the preface, because every line of it is valuable, and because, furthermore, it appears to the present editor to be his duty to render accessible to students at large all the hitherto unpublished material that he can collect which throws light on the Journals he is editing. In this volume (taking both the Journals themselves and the illustrative material into account) the sources of information are put before students that will render possible a far more accurate history than has hitherto appeared of what was done by the Colony of Virginia in the latter years of the French and Indian War.

2. Heretofore it has been the practice in these volumes to print the list of members for each session of the House of Burgesses rather than the list for the whole Assembly once for all. Since the members were elected to membership for the whole period covered by the Assembly, the members for the last session were the same as those for the first, except where, on account of the death of a member or on account of his having rendered himself ineligible to membership by the acceptance of an office under the government or in some other way, a new election had been ordered. Therefore, rather than print the same list (with

(with here and there a change) seven times—the Assembly of 1758-61 had seven sessions—it has seemed preferable to the present editor to print it only once and to indicate in notes given at the end of the list the few changes that occurred.

The list is taken from Stanard's "Colonial Virginia Register," the original sources of information being a Virginia "Almanack" for 1759 in the Library of Congress and the Journals themselves. The lists given by Mr. Stanard have been verified by careful comparison with the Journals.

3. In this volume reference to Henning's "Statutes at Large" is given for a bill only once—when the bill, having been passed by both houses of the Assembly, was finally signed by the governor and became a law. Each bill that became a law was mentioned in the Journal as a usual thing at least five times; some bills (for instance, those that had to be considered in committee of the whole house once or oftener and those about which there was not agreement by the two chambers) were mentioned more frequently still. If, therefore, reference is made whenever the title of the bill appears in the Journal, the footnotes become excessive. The page has an appearance of accuracy that is so easy to attain as to be objectionable. At the same time the help given the serious student is almost nothing. Accordingly the making of these references has been discontinued. In lieu of them, however, footnotes have been made in the very few cases in which the text has seemed in need of explanation either because of the use of unusual words or the use of what seem to be erroneous words—the error being due to the carelessness of some copyist or printer in the long line of those working on the Journals from the time since they were first recorded by the clerks of the House of Burgesses up to the present. The text here given follows accurately the copy, occasionally a manifest omission being inserted enclosed in brackets, and once in a while, as noted above, emendations being suggested in the footnotes.

Preface.

OF the General Assembly of Virginia of 1758-1761 there were seven sessions. The first session continued from September 14, 1758, to the 12th of October of the same year; the second session, from the 9th to the 11th of November, 1758; the third, from the 22nd of February, 1759, to the 14th of April; the fourth, from the first to the 21st of November, 1759; the fifth, from the 4th to the 11th of March, 1760; the sixth, from the 19th to the 24th of May, 1760; the seventh, from the 6th of October, 1760, to the 10th of April, 1761.

The last session of this Assembly is in one respect unique. Extending over a period of more than six months, it had a greater length of life than any other session of the General Assembly up to that time held. The one coming nearest to it in this respect was the last session of the Assembly for 1742-1749, which extended from October 27, 1748, to May 11, 1749, the business that occupied the attention of the Assembly being the general revision of the laws of the Colony then in force. The explanation of the great length of the session at present under consideration is to be found in the following circumstances:

In 1748 the General Assembly passed a law having the title "An Act for amending the staple of Tobacco, and preventing frauds in his majesty's customs." This law gave in minutest detail regulations for the inspection and shipment of tobacco, the erection of public warehouses, the issue of tobacco notes, the collection of taxes in tobacco, etc. In fact, few possible transactions in this staple failed to receive attention in the law. It covers no less than forty printed pages in Hening's "Statutes at Large." Its last provision was that it should continue in force "for and during the term of four years, and from thence to the end of the next session of Assembly." In February, 1752, this act, a few amendments having been made to it, was renewed, to continue in force "until the 20th of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and sixty, and from thence to the end of the next session of Assembly." The most important business, then, before the Assembly that met the 6th of October, 1760, was the revision and renewal of this law, which undoubtedly affected the material welfare of the Colony to a greater extent than did any other law on the statute books. Business of so great importance could not be rushed through the House of Burgesses, and the General Assembly could not conveniently remain in session late in October, the month for the meeting of the General Court, composed of the governor and the Council. Hence on the 20th of October an adjournment was had till the 11th of December, and then, the Assembly coming together for a few hours, a further adjournment was had till the 5th of the following March. At that time the members went to work with a will, and finally passed an act to continue the law, with a few amendments, for a further period of three years. It was, accordingly, to prevent the confusion that would arise if this law expired in the absence of a suitable substitute that the very unusual course was taken of adjourning for a long period. Under ordinary circumstances there would have been a prorogation instead of an adjournment on the 20th of October, and also on the 11th of December.

The text here presented of the Journal of the House of Burgesses for the first session of the Assembly follows a transcript of a printed Journal in the Public Record Office in London. This Journal, as were the Journals of all the sessions of the Assembly of 1758-61, was printed in Williamsburg, Va., by William Hunter, the public printer for the Colony at that time. The title page has been lost, the text beginning on page 3 and ending on page 57. This is the only printed copy, with text in full, known to be in existence. A mutilated copy in the Library of Congress contains only pages 23-30.

The text of the Journal for the second session also follows transcript of a printed Journal in the Public Record Office. This copy of the Journal now has no title page, and probably probably never had one, since the first page of the text is numbered 1. This is not conclusive evidence, however, for in some of the printed Journals of that period—as we know from the perfect specimens in existence—the page numbers begin with the title page, and in some they begin with the first page of the text.

The text of the Journal of the third session also follows transcript of printed copy in the Public Record Office. The title page of this volume is as follows: The | Journal | of the | House of Burgeffes. | MDCCLIX, | Being the third Session of this present | General Assem- bly | (Vignette: Coat-of-Arms of the Colony) Williamsburg | Printed by William Hunter. MDCCLIX.

In this copy there are, in addition to the title page and the reverse blank page, ninety-four pages of text, the numbering of the pages beginning with the text and not with the title page. There is a copy of this Journal in good condition in the Library of Congress.

The text for the Journal of the fifth session follows the manuscript copy of the Journal in the Public Record Office. A copy of the printed Journal for this session is owned by Mrs. C. W. Coleman, of Williamsburg, Va. It contains fourteen pages.

For the sixth session the printed copy of the Journal in the possession of Mrs. C. W. Coleman, of Williamsburg, Va., has been followed. No other copy of this Journal, either in manuscript or in print, has been found. It contains thirteen pages.

For the seventh session the printed copy in the Public Record Office has been followed. This copy has lost its title page. The paging originally began with the title page. There were ninety-seven pages in all. There is a copy of this Journal in the Library of Congress, and it is in good condition.

The period of the Journals contained in this volume was one of fierce war. The mightiest colonial struggle probably ever engaged in was being carried on between England and France for the possession of territory now the seats of empires. This contest was world-wide, embracing in its sphere not only the continent of America, with its adjacent islands, but Europe itself, distant India, and the waters of the sea. Directed by her great statesman, William Pitt, England emerged from the conflict victorious at every point. Pitt, as no other man could have done, was enabled to organize and make effective use of the full fighting force of the heterogeneous British possessions, and at the same time to collect from the British tax-payer sums sufficient to pay to Frederick the Great the subsidies that made it possible to keep in the field those splendid Prussian armies which at the same time that they were winning imperishable glory for themselves and their renowned leader were in reality fighting England's battles as well, by rendering it impossible for France to withdraw from the European theatre of action adequate forces to enable her to meet England on equal terms in America, and impossible, also, to devote needed money to the maintenance of her navy. Animated either directly or indirectly by Pitt's great spirit, the English themselves, the Irish, the Scotch clansmen, the tribesmen of India, the Colonists of America, and even the American red men—not a few of them—combined to wage a contest the importance of which can with difficulty be overestimated.

In the Journals before us we see the efforts made by that constituent of the British realm known as the Colony of Virginia to bear her full part in the mighty struggle. When with the coming of Francis Fauquier as lieutenant-governor of Virginia in 1758—the governor was Lord Loudoun, at that time commander-in-chief of his majesty's forces in America—the Assembly of 1758-1761 was called together, the war had already been waged for several years; Braddock had met with disastrous defeat; the frontiers of Virginia had been harried by the merciless savage allies of France; and by an extraordinary effort made in the earlier part of the year, the Virginia forces in the field had been increased increased to two regiments of a thousand men each, which, under the command of Washington, were to join in the proposed expedition to be conducted by General Forbes against Fort Duquesne. The main business of the Assembly convened by Lieutenant-Governor Fauquier was during its first session to provide ways and means for the payment of these soldiers till the first of December of that year (the limit of the time for which one-half of them had been enlisted) and for the continuance of the other half in service till the first of the following May, since it was thought that it would be imprudent to disband all the regular forces exclusive of the rangers on the first of December. At this session, too, four companies of rangers were provided for, who were not to leave the Colony, but were to protect the frontiers in the absence of the two regiments on the Fort Duquesne expedition. The power of the governor to garrison the forts vacated by the regulars with men drafted from the militia was also continued.

It was supposed during this first session of the Assembly that the expedition against Fort Duquesne would certainly be concluded by the first of December; and in the law continuing one regiment in service till the following May it was provided that this regiment should be marched back to Virginia and made to do duty on the frontiers from the first of December till the expiration of its term of service. Later, however, when it seemed probable that the reduction of Fort Duquesne would be delayed, it became necessary for the governor to call the Assembly together again, in order that appropriate legislation might be had with the view of preventing the withdrawal of the Virginia forces from the expedition at the critical moment. The second session of the Assembly began on Thursday the 9th of November. Its only business was to pass a law providing that the first regiment might be continued in the service outside of the Colony till the first of January, and that the second regiment (which, as stated above, had enlisted to serve only till the first of December) might be employed in the same service if its members could be prevailed upon to continue with the colors. Fortunately the campaign against Fort Duquesne ended on the 26th of November with the occupation by the British and Colonial forces, under the immediate command of Washington, of the site of Fort Duquesne, the fort itself having been abandoned and set on fire by the French on the preceding day.

When the Assembly began its third session, on the 22nd of February, 1759, a feeling of great satisfaction prevailed among its members, one of whom was George Washington, who, having resigned his command, had taken the seat in the House of Burgesses to which he had been elected from the County of Frederick. The cloud of war had passed from the horizon formed by the Virginia boundaries. Since, however, the assistance of Virginia troops would be needed in driving the French from their remaining strongholds and in garrisoning those already captured from them, the governor in his opening address asked that as many men be kept by the Colony in the field as had served under the Virginia standards the preceding year. His request was met, however, only in part. Provision was made for filling the ranks of the regiment then in the pay of the Colony and for continuing it in service till the first of December following; and, in order that the frontiers of the Colony might not be left defenseless if this regiment should be marched away to be employed in offensive operations against the French, an additional force of five hundred men was provided, the four companies of rangers enlisted according to the law of the preceding September having by this time been disbanded. The act passed in 1757 for better regulating and disciplining the militia was continued. The main provisions of this act<sup>1</sup> were that all the white male inhabitants of the Colony (a few classes being excepted) should be considered as members of the militia; that each member was to supply himself with proper arms, unless it should be certified that he was a pauper (in which case arms were to be supplied at the public expense); and that the militia, formed into companies under proper officers, were to have company drills once in three months and general county musters twice a year. The act passed the same year (1757) for making provision against invasions and insurrections, whereby the governor was in time of exigency empowered to levy such a force from the members of the militia as he might think proper, and whereby the officers of the militia of the several counties were empowered to march on their own responsibility their forces out of their home counties, was also continued. Later on in the session, the members of the two houses were prevailed on to pass an act providing that two hundred of the additional five hundred men provided for by the first act of the session, who, according to that act, were to remain in the Colony, should be employed as artificers and joined to the regiment allowed to serve away from home.

This session came to an end by prorogation on the 14th of April, 1759, the date set for re-assembling being the first Thursday in August. The Assembly did not, however, convene till the first of November. At that time, though Niagara, Ticonderoga, Crown Point, and, most important of all, Quebec, had fallen, yet the French had not been absolutely routed, and, more disquieting still, war was threatened with the Cherokee Indians. Hence the governor asked in his opening address that provision be made for continuing in the service the fifteen hundred men provided for by the Assembly at its last session. This request was in part acceded to. The regiment was continued in service till the first of the following May. But it was provided that only four hundred of them should be allowed to act in conjunction with his majesty's forces outside of Virginia, and that the remainder were to be employed in defending the frontiers of the Colony. Till these could be marched from the north to take their assigned positions, the three companies already employed on the frontiers were to be continued in service.

The Cherokee Indians were evidently the principal cause of alarm. These Indians had hitherto for several years been acting as the allies of the English. A number of them were in the army of General Forbes in the successful expedition against Fort Duquesne. But very unfortunately when, at the close of the campaign, these were returning home through the frontier territory of Virginia, they could not be restrained from taking such horses as they could lay their hands on, and the frontiermen, attacking them, slew several and captured others. It was but natural that they should retaliate. Moreover, they were especially incited to retaliation by the French, many of whom, on the capture of Fort Duquesne, had found their way down the Ohio River and up the Tennessee to the country of the Cherokees (which was, broadly speaking, the territory now embraced in Eastern Tennessee and Western North Carolina and in the adjacent portions of South Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama). Accordingly, they commenced a series of outrages along the frontiers—especially the frontiers of North and South Carolina. But Governor Lyttleton, of South Carolina, marching against them with a force collected from his colony, entered into an agreement with them which for a short while delayed the breaking out of war on a large scale. Hence at the March, 1760, session of the Virginia Assembly the only military expenditures authorized were for the continuance of the regiment in service till the first of the following November and for the continuance of three companies of 100 men each in service after that time should the governor deem it desirable. This business being attended to, the governor prorogued the Assembly to the first of June.

According to the agreement made by Governor Lyttleton with the Cherokees, twenty-two Indians were to be kept in Fort Prince George as hostages till the delivery to the English of a like number of their brethren charged with murder. When Governor Lyttleton with his troops left the vicinity of Fort Prince George, the Cherokees made an attack on the fort for the purpose of rescuing these hostages, and killed several officers. In a rage the garrison, falling upon the hostages, butchered them to a man. After this, war was on in all its fury. Fort Loudoun, situated about thirty miles from where Knoxville, Tennessee, now stands—this fort had been built in 1756 by Major Andrew Lewis at the command of Lord Loudoun—was at once invested by them, and its garrison, consisting of two hundred British troops, was reduced to extremity. The plan of General Amherst, commander-in-chief of the English forces in America, was that Colonel Mont- gomery, with a force of British regulars and Colonial troops, should invade the Cherokee country from the southeast, while a force from Virginia should proceed down the Clinch and Tennessee rivers and attack what were known as their "Over Hill" towns—that is, their towns beyond the mountains, in the valley of the Tennessee River. The Virginia Assembly was called hurriedly together in May, 1760, and a law was passed providing for the raising of seven hundred men, who were, with the three hundred already stationed in the southwestern part of the Colony, to march at once to the relief of Fort Loudoun. Before, however, this force could be gotten together, the force under Colonel Montgomery had finished its campaign by relieving Fort Prince George and defeating the Cherokees in a pitched battle. It had been found by this force impossible, however, to penetrate to Fort Loudoun, and Colonel Montgomery gave up the attempt. After this, since it would have been folly for the small Virginia force to essay the execution of its part of the general plan, Fort Loudoun was left to its fate. The garrison, in a starving condition, finally surrendered, favorable terms having been granted them. But the terms were not kept. When they had marched out of the fort, they were surrounded and many of them massacred, the rest being captured and held for ransom. When the Assembly met in October, however, no comprehensive plan for waging offensive war against the Cherokees had been formulated. Hence the only troops provided for were the one thousand of the regiment already in service. All of these, it was ordered, should serve within the limits of the Colony. Payment for these troops was provided till the following April. But on the 31st of March of the same session a bill was approved by the governor for providing for the maintenance of the regiment till the first of December. According to this act the governor might use the regiment outside the Colony if he thought proper. The plan now proposed by General Amherst was to engage in a campaign against the Cherokees similar in outline to the campaign of the year before. Colonel Grant, with a force of regulars and South Carolina provincials, was to invade the Cherokee country from Charleston, and the Virginia forces, under Colonel Byrd, assisted by troops from North Carolina, if the North Carolina Assembly could be prevailed upon to send them, were to march down the Tennessee Valley. The results of the campaign were similar to those of the year before. Grant, with an adequate force, defeated the Cherokees of the lower towns; Colonel Byrd, with a force too weak to advance far into the enemy's country, did little beyond rendering protection to the frontier. The correspondence of Colonel Byrd and General Amherst and that of Colonel Byrd and Governor Fauquier, given in the appendix to this volume, tells the story in detail. Though peace was not made with the Indians immediately after their defeat by Colonel Grant, with this defeat the Indian war was practically at an end. The war with the French in America had been at an end for some months.
gomery,

Associated with the war measures adopted by the Assembly—in fact, a part of them—were the measures for raising money. Throughout the whole period of the war the taxes were excessively heavy, having been largely increased along all lines. Practically every kind of tax ever devised by the ingenuity of law-making bodies was levied. There were direct taxes and indirect taxes. There were land taxes and poll taxes and license taxes. There were taxes on imports and taxes on exports. It was very early found necessary, however, to anticipate the collection of taxes by the issue of treasury notes. These notes were issued for a definite time, and provision was made for their redemption by the laying of special taxes, which at the end of the time during which the notes were to pass current were to be collected and applied to their retirement. Not only were these notes receivable for taxes, but they were also made a legal tender in private monetary transactions. Provision was made for the first issue of them in May, 1755. After this an increase was authorized at every meeting of the Assembly except two till the session held in October, 1760. Though at this session money had to be raised for filling the ranks of the regiment then in service and for continuing it in service, the necessity for issuing treasury notes was happily at an end. The supply of money that Parliament had voted the king in 1757 to be paid the colonies of North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia, together with the further supply voted in 1758 to be paid all the colonies, was at that time available. The amount allotted Virginia was in round numbers £52,000. The whole question of the note issue has been treated in the preface to the Journals of the House of Burgesses for the Assembly of 1761-65, the volume immediately preceding this volume in the present series.

In that preface, too, have been treated the very interesting laws passed during this period allowing the inhabitants of the Colony to discharge their public dues in money instead of tobacco. These laws furnished the occasion, as is well known, for many among the clergy to show what has been considered by some a grasping spirit ill-becoming gentlemen of the cloth. In considering the attitude of the clergy, however, we should not look merely at one side of the question. It is true that the scarcity of tobacco rendered that commodity more valuable than it had been, and that the demand of the clergy for their exact number of pounds may have had in it an unworthy element of selfishness; but, on the other hand, it is also true that the inflation in general prices, the result of the excessive issue of treasury notes, was such as to reduce the purchasing power of the salaries paid in money far below what in equity it should have been.

But the clergy were by no means the only inhabitants of the Colony at that time against whom the charge of selfishness may lie. Human nature was the same then as it is now. An examination of the various measures of taxation resorted to in the progress of the war discloses an interesting example of the laying of a protective tariff under the guise of a measure designed to increase revenue, and an example of the selfishness fostered by such a system. In May, 1755, an additional duty of ten per cent. was laid on slaves imported into the Colony. The duties already imposed on them amounted to about ten per cent. All these duties were renewed in 1757, to continue for seven years. The rate was so heavy as to cause a marked falling off in the number of slaves imported, but the price of those in the Colony advanced, of course, to the extent of the duty imposed, with the result of increasing the wealth of the large land-holders and slave-holders and of rendering it more difficult for the small farmers to extend their operations. Earnest efforts were made by the latter to break the monopoly thus created, but it was not until 1760 that these efforts were crowned with success. In the May session of that year, the provision to take off the ten per cent. additional tax was attached as a rider to the bill for raising troops for the Cherokee Expedition. To the last those who profited by the duty fought for its retention<sup>1</sup>.

To be classed with the war measures is an act passed in September, 1758, to repeal the law of 1755 granting rewards to persons for bringing in the scalps of Indian enemies killed within the limits of the Colony. The debates held in the Assembly were, unfortunately, never reported, and unless a bill was brought in as the result of a petition—the main points of petitions are always given in the Journals—the reasons for the passage of the bill can, in the absence of information other than that contained in the Journals, be merely guessed at. Those bills that became laws are given in Hening's "Statutes," and, in their preambles the objects sought to be attained by those voting for them are usually set forth. But the preamble of this particular act merely states that the law to be repealed "hath been found not to answer the purposes thereby intended"—a declaration giving next to no information. When, however, we turn to the Journal for the proceedings of the day on which the bill was first introduced<sup>2</sup>, though we find that the bill did not arise out of a petition, the bare record being "Upon a Motion made, Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for repealing an Act," etc., there is described in the preceding paragraph of the Journal a transaction that is illuminative. A petition had been handed in by sundry inhabitants of Bedford County setting forth that the Cherokee Indians had committed depredations upon them, and praying that soldiers be stationed in the county for the protection of the inhabitants and that the inhabitants be allowed to retaliate on the Indians. This seemingly reasonable request was flatly refused, and no reason given. It should be remembered, however, that the Cherokees were at that time in alliance with the English and that many of them were with General Forbes on his advance advance toward Fort Duquesne. The motive, then, prompting the House to refuse the petition was the desire to prevent the breaking of this alliance. The same motive may be given for the repeal of the law. It was, no doubt, felt that the inhabitants of the frontiers, in their desire to obtain the rewards offered, might not be careful enough to distinguish between friends and enemies and that such a want of discrimination might be destructive of the highly valued alliance. Policy, probably, rather than humanity, was behind the law.

The truth is that the vast majority of the measures of a general nature considered by this Assembly had a direct relation to the dominant fact of the time, namely, the great war which the whole English speaking world was putting forth every effort to bring to a successful conclusion. If the Journals, in their usual tantalizing meagreness of statement, fail to bring out the relation, it may yet sometimes be discovered on an examination of the acts themselves as given in Hening's "Statutes." Take, for instance, the Act for encouraging Arts and Manufactures, passed in April, 1759. The preamble of this act states that the improvement of arts and manufactures "may be of singular advantage to this Colony in its present distressed situation, by encouraging families to remove and settle here." The act itself proceeds to name trustees whose duty it shall be to promote the development of arts and manufactures in every way possible, but especially by the payment of premiums to such persons as may invent useful processes. The feeling was, evidently, that strenuous exertions should be made for building up the waste places and for making good the drain occasioned by the war both in men and money.

And this feeling, no doubt, had its weight in bringing about the passage of the Act for appointing an Agent, though in this case it finds no specific expression in the preamble of the act, and though Governor Fauquier in his letter to the Board of Trade assigns to it a different origin. He says that the act resulted from the desire on the part of the members of the House of Burgesses to have some one to represent them in England in case there should arise in the future a dispute similar to that of Governor Dinwiddie's days in reference to the pistole fee. Then a special agent had to be sent over at great expense to lay before the authorities in England the views of the people of Virginia. The governor and Council already had an agent in England, but the agent named by this act was to represent the Colony as a whole. The act was passed in February, 1759, and Edward Montague, of the Middle Temple, was by it appointed agent. He was to be under the direction of a committee of correspondence, who were to transact such business with him as was committed to them by the General Assembly. The committee was, when required, to lay all of their correspondence with the agent before the General Assembly. In case Edward Montague refused to act, the committee was empowered to appoint some one in his stead, who was to be approved by the Assembly at its next meeting; or in case he proved to be unfuitable, he might be removed by the committee and another appointed, who, as in the first instance, was to be approved by the Assembly. The committee was composed of members both of the Council and of the House; and the law clearly indicates that the committee was to be under the absolute control of the General Assembly. The Board of Trade, however, affecting to think the provisions of the law somewhat loosely drawn and to fear that the power given the committee was too great, the king in council instructed Governor Fauquier to inform the General Assembly that the act would not be allowed unless amended. Accordingly, at the last session of this Assembly an amendment was made to it, providing that the person to be appointed by the committee in case of the refusal of Montague to serve, or in case of his subsequent removal, must first have been endorsed by the governor, and should hold office only till the next meeting of the General Assembly.

Passing now to a brief consideration of what may be called the usual routine business of the Assembly—that kind of business transacted in times of peace as well as under stress of war—attention may first be drawn to the great number of claims acted on, the number being much larger than usual as a direct result of the war. These claims were sometimes sometimes considered at once by the whole House, and sometimes referred to special committees; but when the sessions were long and the various standing committees were appointed, they were referred to the Committee of Public Claims. This committee was far the busiest one of the House. It had power to send for persons and papers and to make searching examination into all matters presented for its consideration. In every case except one of the merest routine (such, for instance, as the consideration of a claim for taking up a runaway), the committee would report its finding to the House, which would then usually instruct the committee, in accordance with the report, to set down a certain amount in the Book of Claims. The claims were so numerous that a large book was required for their enrolment. Toward the close of the session the whole book would be approved by the House and sent up to the Council. When approved by that branch, it was returned to the House and then sent to the governor.

Much of the time of the Assembly was also consumed in the consideration of private bills. For instance, several acts were passed to dock the entail of certain pieces of land described therein, that is, to bring the land from under the operation of the law of entail; and several acts were passed to allow trustees or executors to make a specified disposition of the property under their management. In such cases it was usual for the law to have the proviso attached that it should not go into effect till the king's approbation should be obtained. There were three or these acts, however, which did not contain the proviso, the explanation of the omission being that the result effected in each case was, in the opinion of the members of the Assembly, merely one that could have been brought about by resort to the courts, the law-making body having been applied to merely that time might be saved. In such cases it was held by members of the Assembly that the proviso was unnecessary. The form, however, was insisted on by the king in council. Governor Fauquier was instructed to repeal these acts. They, accordingly, had all to be passed again, with the proviso added. In this transaction, as in the instance on an amendment to the Agent's Act, is to be seen proof of the closeness with which the proceedings of the Assembly were watched by the authorities in England.

Of bills of a local nature may be mentioned those for establishing ferries and those also for establishing towns. Several of the towns authorized to be founded at that time are still in existence—notably, Woodstock, of the bill for the establishment of which, George Washington, the member from Frederick, was very appropriately the patron.

Of peculiar interest are the proceedings in reference to various vestries of the established church. Petition after petition poured into the Assembly praying in individual cases for their dissolution. Some of these were rejected; others, granted. The following is a list of the vestries that were dissolved, together with the reasons given for the action taken: The vestry of the Parish of Hamilton in the County of Prince William (the reason being that the vestrymen, who seemingly could not keep the peace with each other, petitioned the Assembly for a dissolution); Antrim, in Halifax; Cameron, in Loudoun; Bath, in Dinwiddie; Saint Patrick, in Prince Edward (all these because guilty of illegal practices, and in the case of Saint Patrick a Dissenter being a member of the vestry); Saint Anne, in Albemarle (because the vestry was not legally elected); Christ Church, in Lancaster (since it consisted of twenty-four members instead of twelve); Suffolk, in Nansemond (on account of the misapplication of charity funds intended by their donors to be used only in one part of the parish); the Parish of Elizabeth River, in Norfolk County (because guilty of illegal practices). The very great number of petitions asking for the dissolution of vestries and the large number of laws passed in accordance with the wishes of the petitioners give some insight into the condition of the church establishment at that time. This, it should be remembered, was the era of Samuel Davies and the rapid spread of dissent in the interior counties of the Colony, as distinguished from the frontier counties, the inhabitants of which had from the earliest period of their settlement been largely Dissenters. In fact, the period of the French and Indian War is recognized by those who have made a study of the question as being the one in which the fight made by Dissenters for rights of toleration was practically won.

In

In nearly every instance bills originated in the House of Burgesses, but they might originate in the Council. Take, for instance, the bill passed by the Council on the 20th of November, 1759, "to establish a method to preserve the Credit of the Paper Currency of this Colony." This bill, however, received short shrift in the House.

Another very interesting bill that failed of passage was one, introduced at the closing session of the Assembly, for removing the seat of government from Williamsburg to some place more convenient to the majority of the inhabitants of the Colony. This bill did not even pass the House of Burgesses, and if it had done so, it would, according to the report made by Governor Fauquier to the Board of Trade, have been killed in the Council. The great attention, however, that it received may be inferred from the fact that it was considered in committee of the whole house no fewer than four times. Only the most important matters were considered in committee of the whole house, and very few so considered received the attention of the committee as frequently as did this one. It was defeated by only one vote, the yeas being 35 and the nays being 36. We have the governor's authority, too, for saying that the majority of the members really wished to remove the seat of government, but that all knew that no place could be fixed upon for the capital in case they did vote to remove it. The location of the capital was a matter indifferent to the governor, but he notified the Board of Trade that if they thought it advisable to keep the capital at Williamsburg the end might be effected by the appointment to the Council of a majority of its members from the neighborhood of that city.

The relations between Governor Fauquier and the House of Burgesses seem to have been most pleasant. Differences of opinion sometimes, indeed, arose, but they were expressed in the language of courtesy on both sides, a language which in this case did not conceal an undue irritation of feeling, for each had confidence in the honesty of purpose of the other. And Governor Fauquier was enough of a diplomat to know when to give way. That he correctly gauged the feeling of independence which even at that period characterized the Virginians, is shown by the fact that in 1759 or 1760 he warned Mr Pitt that any taxation laid upon the colonies by the English Government would lead to the most serious disturbances. It was only about five years after this that Governor Fauquier found it necessary to dissolve the Virginia Assembly on the passage by the House of Burgesses of Henry's famous resolutions against the Stamp Act.

HOUSE OF BURGESSES

Thursday, the 14th of September, 32 Geo. II. 1758.

NINETY-THREE Members having taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Act of Parliament, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and taken and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, and also subscribed the Test, took their Places in the House.

A Message from the Governor was delivered by Mr Walthoe.

Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

The Governor commands your immediate Attendance in the Council Chamber.

The House went up accordingly, and the Governor was pleased to say to them,

Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

You must return again to your House, and immediately proceed to the Choice of a Speaker, and present him to me To-morrow in this Place.

Being returned, Mr Landon Carter put the House in Mind of the Governor's Commands to proceed to the Choice of a Speaker, and did nominate and recommend John Robinson, Esq; who was Speaker of the late Assembly, a Gentleman who had given undeniable Proofs of his Abilities, Integrity and Fitness to execute that important Trust; and he was accordingly unanimously elected Speaker, and conducted to the Chair by two Members, from whence he made a Speech, expressing the just Sense he had of the Obligations they had laid him under, and returned them his Thanks for the Honor they had conferred on him.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning Eleven o'Clock.

Friday, the 15th of September, 32 Geo. II. 1758.

A Message from the Governor by Mr Walthoe.

Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

It is the Governor's Pleasure, that your House immediately attend him in the Council Chamber, and present your Speaker.

And accordingly the House went up with their Speaker Elect, and the Governor was pleased to express his particular Approbation of their Choice. Mr Speaker then, in Behalf of the House, petitioned the Governor that they might enjoy their ancient Rights and Privileges, such as Freedom of Speech and Debate, Exemption from Arrests, and Protection

Protection for their Estates; and lastly for himself, that no Mistakes of his might be imputed to the House.

To which the Governor answered, That he should take Care to defend them in all their just Rights and Privileges.

Being returned, Mr Speaker reported, that the House had attended the Governor in the Council Chamber, and presented their Speaker, and that he was pleased to approve their Choice, and then made a Speech to the Council and this House, of which he had, to prevent Mistakes, obtained a Copy, which he read, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgessees,

I have deferred calling you together as long as the Exigencies of Government would permit me, being desirous of accommodating your particular Affairs to the Concerns of the Public, as much as possible; and if these had not demanded it, I should not have given you this Trouble now, merely to notify to you, in this Place, His Majesty's Appointment of me to succeed to the Honorable Robert Dinwiddie, Esq; as Lieutenant-Governor of this his Colony and Dominion of Virginia, an Honor and Trust conferred on me to which it behoves me to pay the greatest Attention and Regard.

That I may, in some Measure, merit this Honor, and answer to this Confidence which His Majesty has most graciously been pleased to repose in me; it becomes equally my indispensable Duty to provide for the Prosperity and Well-being of this Colony, and to promote the Honor and Dignity of His Majesty and the Crown of Great Britain in all its Branches and Appendages. If I, on my Part, steadily pursue the First, I make not the least Doubt, from the many great and recent Proofs you have given of your Fidelity and unshaken Loyalty, but that you, on your Parts, will heartily and cheerfully concur with me in all Measures which may tend to establish and strengthen the Last

It is my earnest Wish that a perfect Harmony may at all Times subsist between us; and to this Purpose it shall be my constant Endeavour to consult the Happiness of the People committed to my Charge, by taking Care that effectual and speedy Justice be rendered to all His Majesty's Subjects in Virginia, as far as in me lies; and by all other Means which may conduce to that desirable End. But whatever Assurances I may give of my future Conduct, I am very sensible that I shall be judged of by my Actions: These are the Test by which you, as reasonable Men, will form your Opinion of me, and will hereafter either give me, or withhold from me your Confidence. To this Test I hope I shall always be willing to submit.

By Letters I have lately received from the Army, which I have ordered to be laid before you, it is doubtful whether the great End of our Wishes can be obtained this Year, but the Operations of this Campaign tend at least to prepare Matters for an early Attack the next.

Gentlemen of the House of Burgessees,

The Part you have so nobly taken in the present War, by granting the large Sums of Money you have done, in Support of His Majesty's Arms, and the common Cause, has given great Satisfaction, and is worthy the Imitation of our neighbouring Colonies; but sorry am I to say, that the Sums already given, great as they are, are insufficient for the Purposes for which they were designed, and for the Services actually entered upon, and more will be necessary to make good the Deficiencies now subsisting from the Expences already incurred: I am confident that the bare mentioning these Circumstances will be a sufficient Inducement to you to have the greatest Attention to the Distress of our Country; and I hope that what is necessary to be raised, will be done in the Manner the least burthensome possible to the People.

Gentlemen of the Council and of the House of Burgessees,

I would not willingly detain you long at this Time, yet my Inclinations to serve this Colony are so ardent that I cannot help recommending one Thing to you, which, from the many Representations that have already been made to me (short as the Time is since my Arrival here) appears to me to demand and merit your most serious Consideration, and in our present Situation not to admit of the least Delay, as the Defence of the Colony, the Protection of the Property, nay the very Lives of our People, depend upon it; I mean the Revision of the Militia Law, which, notwithstanding the many Alterations it has undergone, and Amendments it has received, still wants some great Regulations to make its Use for the Defence of the Colony bear some Proportion to the Expence it creates. The Letters which I have received on this Subject, and my Answers to them, shall be ready to be laid before you whenever you shall call for the same.

Unanimity and Dispatch give Vigor to all public Resolutions; on this Account I earnestly recommend them to you, and they will also most assuredly bring with them the additional Pleasure of your being able, by their Means, to return the sooner to your respective Counties, where your Presence, if not necessary, will certainly be acceptable.

Resolved, That an humble Address be made to his Honor the Governor, to return him Thanks for his kind Speech at the Opening of this Session, to congratulate him on his safe Arrival into this Government, to assure him how great our Expectations are of Peace and Harmony from the Plan which he has been pleased to declare shall be the Rule of his Administration, and with how much Pleasure we shall repose an entire Confidence in his steady Adherence to it; and that he may depend on our Cheerful Concurrence with him in every Measure within our Power that can contribute to the Honor and Dignity of his Majesty, and the Prosperity and Well-being of this Colony.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to draw up the said Address, and it is referred to Mr Thomas Lee, Mr Richard Henry Lee, Mr Attorney, Mr Landon Carter, Mr Bland, and Mr Thompson Mason, to prepare and bring in the same.

Resolved, That this House will take the Governor's Speech into Consideration To-morrow.

Ordered, That the Reverend Mr William Yates be appointed Chaplain to this House, and that he attend to read Prayers every Morning at Ten o'Clock.

Ordered, That William Francis, Thomas Broadrib, James Lavie and James Yates, be appointed Door-Keepers to this House, and that they give their Attendance accordingly.

Upon a Motion made,

A Message from the Governor was delivered by Mr Wallthoe,

Mr Speaker,

The Governor has commanded me to deliver to your House a Memorial of the Merchants of London, in Behalf of themselves and of their Correspondents, Merchants of Bristol, Liverpool, and Glasgow, trading and interested in the Province of Virginia, addressed to the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, which his Honor has just received.

And the said Memorial was read, and is as follows:

That the General Assembly of Virginia have lately passed an Act, whereby their Provincial Treasurer is authorized, for the Purposes therein mentioned, to issue Paper Notes to the Amount of £80,000, which said Paper Notes so issued, and rated at Proclamation Money, by the said Act of Assembly, are thereby declared to be a lawful Tender in Payment of any Debt, or Demand whatever (excepting his Majesty's Quit-Rents).

That your Petitioners having very large Sums of Money now due to them in the said Province, in the Way of Trade, upon Bargains and Contracts made with the Inhabitants of Virginia, and for, and on their Account, do moreover stand bound to the Tradesmen in Great Britain for large Sums; all which said Bargains and Contracts, by general Agreement, are payable in Sterling, or at the Rate of Sterling lawful Money of this Kingdom, and were entered into and concluded long before the Issuing of such Notes, and before any such Traffick, by Way of Paper Money, was known or heard of in the Virginia Trade.

Your Memorialists therefore beg Leave hereupon to remonstrate to your Lordships the very great Injury that may arise to the Trading Interest of these Kingdoms, and more particularly to your Memorialists, from the Virginia Act, as it now stands, not only by Reason that it does affect Debts, Bargains, and Contracts, due to the Merchants of these Kingdoms, expressly stipulated payable to them, before the passing of the Act, in Sterling, or at the Rate of Sterling lawful Money of Great Britain, but does moreover invert the Nature of their Trade from a certain to an uncertain Value of Profit and Loss; and in so far your Memorialists do conceive the said Act to be arbitrary and unjust. Arbitrary, because it does ex post facto, extend to Debts due on Bargains and Contracts made before the Passing of the Act. Unjust, by Reason that it does depreciate the Nature of such Debts, by making Debts (payable in Sterling Money of universal Value) to be received in Paper Notes of a local, uncertain, and fluctuating Value, at the same Time that no Provision is made by the Act for making Payment in such Notes, ad Valorem of Sterling, according to the Difference of Exchange between such Paper Money and Sterling, when Payment is made, which Provision, on Principles of Law and common Equity, ought to have been made.

In so far therefore as that your Memorialists may be very great Sufferers from the Defects in the said Act as it now stands, as well as from a Clause of one other Act that passed in the said Province Anno 1748, intituled, An Act declaring the Law concerning Executions, and for Relief of insolvent Debtors, whereby Executions for Sterling Debts shall be levied in Current Money, at the Rate of 25 per Cent. Advance on Sterling for the Difference of Exchange, and not otherwise.

Your Memorialists do therefore humbly offer to your Lordships Consideration an Expedient, which your Memorialists apprehend may fully answer the End proposed by your Memorialists, by guarding against the Injury that may arise from the said Acts with respect to your Memorialists Properties and the Trade of this Kingdom, and at the same Time no Ways defeat the Operation of the Paper Money Act, with Regard to the military Services thereby intended, which Expedient is, viz. That the Governor of Virginia be instructed by his Majesty to urge to the Assembly the passing another Act for explaining and and amending the Act now in Question, and thereby provide, That all Debts, Bargains or Contracts, that were entered into before the passing of the aforesaid Acts, shall remain and stand payable according to the Nature of such Debts, Bargains or Contracts; and that all Bargains or Contracts that have been heretofore made, or that may hereafter be made, and entered into, in the Course of Trade, or otherwise, between these Kingdoms and Virginia, if the same shall be expressly stipulated, and made payable according to Sterling, or lawful Money of Great Britain, That then, and in such Cases, such Paper Notes so issued, or that may hereafter be issued, or any other Species of Current Money, not being Sterling, shall not be deemed a lawful Tender in Payment of any such Debt, Bargain or Contract, so entered into, payable in Sterling, or lawful Money of Great Britain, unless the Person, or Persons, to whom such Payment is tendered in Paper Notes, or in other Species of Current Money, shall think proper to accept thereof, in such Paper Notes, or other Species of Current Money, if the same shall be offered to him, or them, according to the Difference of Exchange between such Paper Notes, and other Species of Current Money, at the Time when such Paper Notes, or other Species of Current Money, shall be so offered in Payment of Sterling Debts, &c. And that the Person, or Persons, so accepting of Payment in Paper Notes, or in any other Species of Current Money, according to the Difference of Exchange between Sterling and Paper Money, and such other Species of Current Money, shall be deemed and held as fully paid and satisfied for his and their Debt, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Payment had been made in Sterling or lawful Money of Great Britain, any Thing in the aforesaid Act, or in any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

To an Amendment of this Nature, your Memorialists conceive the Assembly of Virginia can make no Objection, in so far as that it is, bona fide, founded on Principles of common Justice, and the Laws of this Kingdom, and more particularly agreeable to the Act of the 6th Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, whereby foreign Silver Coin is made Current in the Plantations, but in due Proportion, as the intrinsic Value thereof is to Sterling; and at the same Time it is thereby provided, that all such Species of Silver Coins, so made Current, shall not affect Contracts or Bargains made prior to the Act: And it is thereby further provided, that nothing in the said Act shall be construed to compel any Person, or Persons, whatsoever, to receive in Payment any of the said Species of such foreign Silver Coin, as the same is rated in the Act. In so far therefore as that the Amendment, proposed by your Memorialists to the Act of Virginia, coincides with Equity and the Laws of England, and with the Regard that is at all Times due to the Trading-Interest of these Kingdoms, and with the Justice that is due to your Memorialists in this particular Case.

From such Considerations, your Memorialists humbly hope for your Lordships Interposition with his Majesty, for an Instruction to the Governor of Virginia, for the Purposes aforesaid; and that your Lordships will be pleased to suspend giving Judgment upon the Virginia Act, as it now stands, by Way of Approbation thereof, till such Time as the Sense of the Assembly of that Province is had upon the Amendments proposed thereto.

Ordered, That the said Memorial do lie on the Table, for the Perusal of the Members of this House.

The Order of the Day being read,

The House again resolved itself into a Committee upon the Bill For raising the Sum of £20,000 by a Land and Poll Tax, and after some Time spent therein, Mr Speaker resumed the Chair, and Mr Charles Carter reported, that the Committee had had the said Bill under their further Consideration, and gone through the same, and had made several Amendments thereto, which he read in his Place, and then delivered in at the Table.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

The Provision you have made for the Protection of the Frontiers, during this short Session, claims the Thanks of your Country; and the great Regard and Attention you have shewed to me, during the Course of it, demand my particular Acknowledgments.

That I may employ the Forces designed for your Defence in the most proper and efficacious Manner, I shall make it my Business, during the Recess of the General Assembly, to get at the best Knowledge I am able to attain in relation to the Frontiers, and the proper Stations in which to place the Troops.

Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

The Caution you have taken in raising the Supplies, that the People may not be oppressed at this Time, is a fresh Instance of your Tendernefs for your Country; and it shall be my Endeavour to follow so good an Example, by taking all possible Care that not one Penny be expended wantonly: And you may be assured, that I will take a proper Opportunity to write to the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces, agreeably to the Address I received from you for that Purpose.

Gentleman of the Council and of the House of Burgeffes,

I hope we shall always meet in the same happy Disposition of Mind to do all in our Power to defend the People, and remove all Obstructions to the Trade of this Colony, by every Measure which will conduce thereto.

That you may have a proper Time for the Discharge of your private Functions, it is convenient you should now be prorogued, and you are accordingly prorogued to the Third Thursday in December next.

AT a General Assembly begun and held at the Capitol in WILLIAMSBURG on THURSDAY the 14th Day of SEPTEMBER in the XXXII Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the second and in the Year of our Lord 1758. And from thence continued by Prorogation to THURSDAY the 9th of NOVEMBER in the Year of our Lord 1758; And then held at the Capitol in WILLIAMSBURG being the second Session of this Assembly.

Thursday. the 9th of November. 32 Geo. II. 1758.

A Message from the Governor was delivered by Mr Walthoe.

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses.

The Governor commands the immediate Attendance of your House in the Council Chamber.

Accordingly Mr Speaker, with the House, went up to attend the Governor.

And being returned, reported, That he, with the House, had attended the Governor in the Council Chamber; and that his Honor was pleased to make a Speech to the Council and this House, of which he had (to prevent Mistakes) obtained a Copy, which he read to the House, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

It was very far from my Intention, when we last parted, to call you together again so soon; but by a Letter I have received from Colonel Byrd, I find our Forces will most probably be in Action before Fort Du Quesne, at the very time prescribed for their Return into this Colony; I therefore thought it not only expedient, but necessary, to summon you on this Occasion.

The withdrawing our Regiments from the rest of his Majesty's Forces at a time when the Event of the Expedition (for which only, Part of them were raised) is at the Crisis, would be the greatest Disservice to the common Cause, and at the same Time subject this Colony to all the Censure Disappointment can invent for the Failure of the Expedition, if that should be the fatal Consequence of such Measures.

But, when I reflect on the whole Tenor of your Conduct during the Course of the War, I feel the strongest Conviction that I need not use these, or any other Arguments, to induce you to make such Alterations, in the Disposal of, and Provision for, the Regiments, as the present Circumstances require: I am very sensible that one of our Regiments cannot be continued beyond the first of December, without Breach of the public Faith, which I shall always deem too sacred to be touched; but I have great Reason to hope that Honor will supply the Place of Law.

Law, and that this Body of Virginians will be influenced by the first, to do that voluntarily, which the last cannot compel them to.

I have nothing to add, but to recommend to you the utmost Expedition; for if your Resolves are not known to the Army before the first of December, all will be frustrated: And, in order to remove all Obstacles which may occasion Delay, I am desirous (on my Part) to waive all Forms of Ceremony, which Custom may have introduced in Relation to myself.

Mr Speaker also reported, that the Governor had delivered to him a Letter of the 22<sup>d</sup> of October last, from General Forbes, also a Letter from Colonel Byrd, of the 21st of October, which he had desired him to lay before this House; and he accordingly delivered them in at the Table, where they were read, and ordered to lye on the Table.

Upon a Motion made,

Resolved, That this House will resolve itself into a Committee, to consider of the Governor's Speech immediately.

Ordered, That the Letters from General Forbes and Colonel Byrd be referred to the said Committee.

And then the House resolved itself into a Committee upon the said Speech and Letters, and after some Time spent therein, Mr Speaker resumed the Chair, and Mr Attorney reported, that the Committee had had the said Speech and Letters under their Consideration, and gone through the same, and had come to a Resolution thereupon, which they had directed him to report to the House; and he read the same in his Place, and then delivered it in at the Table, where the same was again twice read, and agreed to by the House, as follows.

Resolved, That the Act intituled, An Act for the Defence of the Frontiers of this Colony, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, ought to be amended.

Ordered, That Mr Attorney, Mr Landon Carter, Mr Bland and Mr Mason, prepare and bring in a Bill, or Bills, pursuant to the said Resolution.

Ordered, That the Reverend Mr William Yates be continued Chaplain to this House, and that he attend to read Prayers every Morning at Nine o'Clock.

Ordered, That the several Door Keepers be continued in their respective Offices, and that they give their Attendance accordingly.

The House being informed, that Mr William Ball, a Burgess for the County of Lancaster, was by the Grand Jury of Inquests, for the Body of this Colony, in October General Court last, presented for uttering forged and counterfeit Treasury Notes, knowing them to be so:

Resolved, That the said William Ball be expelled this House, and that he be forever rendered incapable of sitting or voting in this House.

Ordered, That an Address be made to the Governor, to order a new Writ to issue for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present General Assembly, for the County of Lancaster, in the Room of the said William Ball; and that Mr Charles Carter, Jun. do wait on him with the same.

Upon a Motion made,

Ordered, That all such Claims and Propositions as were referred from the last to this Session of Assembly, and also all such Claims and Propositions as shall be certified to this Session of Assembly, be referred to the Consideration of the next Session of Assembly.

Mr Attorney, from the Committee appointed, presented to the House, according to Order, a Bill To Amend an Act, intituled, An Act for the Defence of the Frontiers of the Colony, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, and the same was read the first Time, and ordered to be read a second Time.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning Ten o'Clock.

Friday.

Friday. the 10th of November. 32 Geo. II. 1758.

A Member returned upon a new Writ, having taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Act of Parliament, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and taken and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, and also subscribed the Test, was admitted to his Place in the House.

A Bill, To amend an Act, intituled, An Act for the Defence of the Frontiers of this Colony, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, was read a second Time.

Ordered, That the said Bill be ingrossed, and read a third Time.

Upon the Petition of Thomas Penman, Keeper of the Public Goal, praying the Continuance of his former Salary.

Resolved, That the additional Sum of £ 15 be paid to the said Thomas Penman, over and above his usual Salary of £ 25 per Annum.

Resolved, That 10 lbs. of Tobacco per Day be allowed the said Thomas Perman for every criminal committed to the said Goal, during such Criminal's Imprisonment, from this Time to the End of the next Session of Assembly.

Upon the Petition of William Hunter, Printer, praying the Continuance of his Salary.

Resolved, That the Sum of £ 300 per Annum be allowed to the said William Hunter, to continue to the End of the next Session of Assembly, as a full Consideration for printing the Journal of the House of Burgeesses, printing the Laws of each Session, and sending thirteen of them to every County Court Clerk, one of which to be half-bound for the Use of the Court, printing Inspectors Notes and Books, Proclamations and other public Advertisements.

Ordered, That the said Resolve be ingrossed, and that Mr Waller do carry it to the Council for their Concurrence.

An ingrossed Bill, intituled, An Act to amend an Act, intituled An Act for the Defence of the Frontiers of this Colony, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, was read a third Time, and the Question being put that the said Bill do pass, the House divided, Yeas go forth,

Yeas 44,
Noes 8.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass.

Ordered, That Mr Attorney do carry up the said Bill to the Council for their Concurrence.

A Message from the Council by Mr Walthoe.

That they have agreed to the Bill, intituled, An Act to amend an Act, intituled, An Act for the Defence of the Frontiers of this Colony, and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

Also to the Resolve of this House, for allowing William Hunter, Printer, the Sum of £ 300 per Annum, for the Services therein mentioned.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning Ten o'Clock.

Saturday. the 11th of November. 32 Geo. II. 1758.

ORDERED, That a Committee be appointed (to examine the inrolled Bill and Resolve) of the following Persons, viz. Mr William Digges, and Mr Willis Ridick. February Session

JOURNAL

HOUSE OF BURGESSES

Thursday, the 22nd of February, 32 Geo. II. 1759.

A Message from the Governor was delivered by Mr Walthoe.

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses.

The Governor commands the immediate Attendance of your House in the Council Chamber.

Accordingly Mr Speaker, with the House, went up to attend the Governor.

And being returned, reported, That the House had attended the Governor in the Council Chamber; and that the Governor was pleased to make a Speech to the Council and this House, of which he had (to prevent Mistakes) obtained a Copy, which he read to the House, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses.

It gives me the greatest Pleasure that I can open this Session of Assembly with my Congratulations to you on the happy Event of the Surrender of Fort Du Quefne to his Majesty's Forces, under the Command of Brigadier-General Forbes; An Event of the utmost Importance to this Colony, as it brings with it the Advantages of opening an Intercourse of Friendship and Commerce with the Western Indian Nations on the Banks of the Ohio, and puts his Majesty in Possession of a very extensive, fine and fertile Tract of Country.

It is a Duty we owe to his Majesty, to ourselves, and our Posterity, that we should use our best Endeavours, and take the strongest Precaution to keep our Possession of these Benefits uninterrupted. The Indians are desirous to embrace our Friendship, to obtain which they have made offers; but at the same Time have frankly told us, we are not to expect the Continuance of it any longer than we can preserve the Country, and protect them from the Revenge of the now exasperated French: And that we may effectually do this, it is necessary we should drive these restless, ambitious, perfidious Neighbours from all their Settlements in these Parts, from which they can annoy and disturb us. To this Purpose Major-General Amherst, a Commander who has already proved himself a brave, prudent and careful Officer, whom his Majesty has been pleased to appoint to command his Troops in North America (a fresh Instance of his paternal Care of these Colonies) has wrote to me to desire I would use my Interest with you, Gentlemen, that you would join his Majesty's Forces with the same Number of Men which you paid last Year. Here I find myself at a Loss. I well know the great Debt this Colony has contracted; I well know the Chearfulness with which you have undertaken every Thing recommended to you: The First, deters me from using any Arguments; The Last, renders all needless, and I can only say, that by employing your Efforts this Year, it is probable we may, by following the repeated Blows already given, be able to drive the Enemy from our Frontiers, and so it may become the last of this burthensome and expensive War.

I should not do Justice to the brave Men who have hazarded their Lives in defence of their Country, and whose Conduct has done Honor to it, if I did not represent to you the naked Condition in which they are at present: Out of Commiseration of their wretched State, I have ordered each of them a Coat to be made of Blanket, to protect them, in some Measure, from the Inclemencies and Hardships of a Winter Season: This is all I thought proper to do, as they stand provided for till the First of May only; but if they are continued in Pay this will be far from sufficient; they must be entirely new clothed, it being now more than two Years since their last Cloathing. Whatever Resolutions you may come to on this Head, the sooner they are made known the better, that all may be ready by the usual Time of Troops taking the Field.

Gentlemen of the House of Burgesjes,

The Measures which I have recommended to your Consideration, and possibly some others which may occur to yourselves to be necessary for the Safety of the Colony, will create a large Expence; in the providing for which, I am confident, from the Experience I have already had of your tender Concern for the People, that you will have a due Attention to their Ease and Comfort; who, as they are the Strength of a Country, ought to be the principal Care of the Legislature.

Gentlemen of the Council, and of the House of Burgesjes,

From a Desire to lessen the Expences of the Country as much as possible, I have dismissed and ordered Home all the Militia, and every other Body of Men, excepting the Regiment and the Four Companies of Rangers established by Law. I have contracted for the Provisions of all these on the cheapest Terms, both that the Men may be well supplied, and the Country freed from the Hardships attending an Impress. And for the Defence of the Frontiers I have disposed the Troops according to the best Information I could get, to procure which I have neglected no Means in my Power; and I sincerely hope the End intended will be fully and effectually answered, by my having stationed the whole Regiment, excepting the Detachment left in Fort Du Quesne by Order of Brigadier-General Forbes, in the most proper and commodious Forts and Posts in the several Counties of Hampshire, Frederick, and Augusta; and the Rangers in the Counties of Bedford and Halifax.

I have informed you of every Thing which appears to me necessary for your present <sup>3</sup> Deliberation; and I hope a steady Unanimity will prevail in all your Counsels for the Interests and Support of this Colony, in the Prosperity of which I feel myself sincerely and strongly interested.

Resolved, That an humble Address be presented to his Honor, to return him Thanks for his affectionate Speech: To express the Pleasure we receive from the late good Success of his Majesty's Arms, and to assure him that our Affection to his Majesty, our Gratitude to his Honor, and our Regard to the true Interest of this Colony, will lead us to do every Thing in our Power that may tend to produce greater Glory to his Majesty, and a safe and honorable Peace to his Dominions.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to draw up an Address to the Governor, pursuant to the said Resolution; and it is referred to Mr Attorney and Mr Landon Carter to prepare and bring in the same.

Mr Speaker informed the House, That the Governor had delivered him a Letter, of the eighteenth of September last, from Mr Secretary Pitt; also a Letter, of the thirteenth of December, from Major-General Amherst; and desired him to lay them before the House.

And the said Letters were read, and ordered to lie on the Table.

Resolved, That this House will take the Governor's Speech into Consideration Tomorrow.

Ordered, That the Reverend Mr William Yates be continued Chaplain to this House and that he attend to read Prayers every Morning at Ten o'Clock.

Ordered,

Ordered, That William Francis, Thomas Broadrib, James Lawie, and James Yates, be continued in their respective Offices of Door keepers to this House; and that they give their Attendance accordingly.

A new Member, having taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Act of Parliament, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and taken and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, and also subscribed the Test, was admitted to his Place in the House.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eleven o'Clock.

A Message from the Governor by Mr Walthoe.

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

The Governor commands the immediate Attendance of your House in the Council Chamber.

Accordingly Mr Speaker, with the House, went up; And being returned, reported, That he, with the House, had attended the Governor in the Council Chamber; and that his Honor was pleased to make a Speech to the Council and this House, of which he had, to prevent Mistakes, obtained a Copy, which he read to the House, and afterwards delivered it in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

I have very lately received Letters from Mr Secretary Pitt, and Major-General Amherst, in Relation to this Colony's raising for the ensuing Campaign as large a Number of Men as possible, to act in Conjunction with the British Forces in offensive Operations against the Enemies of his Majesty and his Kingdoms, which I propose now to lay before you.

It would argue the highest Vanity in me to imagine that any Persuasions I could use to a brave, free, and loyal People, could add any Weight to the Desires of a King, who, by extending his Care equally over all his Subjects, is deservedly become the great Object of their Affections; notified by a Minister of known Integrity and Zeal for the Welfare of the American Colonies, and recommended by a General of experienced Valor, Prudence, and Activity; all tending to the great Point of securing this and the neighbouring Colonies from any future Encroachments and Disturbances from the French and their Indian Allies. Notwithstanding this Conviction, I should be deficient in the Duty I owe to his Majesty, if I did not, in the warmest Manner, recommend to you to exert your utmost Force and Strength on this Occasion: The First, in which I have been required to use any Endeavours to influence your Actions, since the Appointment I am honored with to take upon me the Administration of your Affairs. Sorry I am, that your Representations of Incapacity have in some Measure stopped my Mouth, for it is not in my Nature to press upon Necessity: But you have the Royal Word, that strong Recommendations will be made in your Favor to the British Parliament, that you may receive a proper Compensation for your Expences; and the End in View tends immediately to your Advantage, while Great Britain, whose Expences have been immense in Defence of this Continent, will reap hers but at second-hand.

By a Letter from Major-General Amherst, you will see that I have received an Invitation to meet him and the Governors of the neighbouring Colonies at Philadelphia, to assist at a Consultation for the promoting their common Interest. If the Business of this Session was drawing towards a Conclusion, or if any Expedient could be found out by which, during my Absence, it might be carried on to the Advancement of his Majesty's Arms, and to the Ease of you, Gentlemen, I should be glad to render my Services to both by my Presence at this Meeting. As this is a Point of Consequence, and is attended with some Difficulties, the Advice of this General Assembly how to act in it would be highly agreeable to me, and I shall refer it to your Consideration with my strongest Assurances that my greatest Ambition is to be useful to this Colony in any Place, and by every Measure which may be thought to be most conducive thereto.

Mr Speaker also reported, That the Governor had delivered to him the several Letters mentioned in his Speech, and desired him to lay them before the House: And he accordingly delivered them in at the Table, where they were read, and ordered to lie on the Table.

Upon a Motion made,

Resolved, That this House will resolve itself into a Committee to consider of the Governor's Speech immediately.

Ordered, That the Letters from Mr Secretary Pitt and Major-General Amherst be referred to the Consideration of the said Committee.

And then the House resolved itself into a Committee upon the said Speech and Letters; and after some Time spent therein, Mr Speaker resumed the Chair, and Mr Charles Carter reported, That the Committee had had the said Speech and Letters under their Consideration, and gone through the same, and had come to two Resolutions thereupon, which they had directed him to report to the House; and he read the same in his Place, and then delivered them in at the Table, where they were again twice read, and agreed to by the House, with an Amendment, as follow:

Resolved, That the Regiment in the Pay of this Colony, already voted to be compleated to one Thousand Men, is as much as can be supported in the present distressed Situation of the Colony.

Resolved, That as the Business of this Session is not near a Conclusion, and that it cannot be carried on during the Absence of the Governor; his leaving the Colony at this Time will too long retard the raising the Men voted by this Assembly, and put a Stôp to all the other public Busines.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to draw up an Address to the Governor, pursuant to the said Resolution; and it is referred to Mr Landon Carter and Mr Pendleton to prepare and bring in the same.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning Eleven o'Clock.

Sir,

If any Thing could add Weight to the Desires of a King, justly distinguished by his paternal Care, equally extended to all his People, your Honor may assure yourself, it would be the warm and affectionate Solicitation of a truly Patriot Governor.

These endearing Motives, joined with those that may be reasonably expected to result from a vigorous Prosecution of the common Cause, do naturally influence our Consultations in Favor of every Request that his Majesty's Concern for our Welfare may incline him to make, or your Duty induce you to recommend.

How sorry then must we be, when the Incapacity of the Country obliges us to inform your Honor, that we cannot support a greater Number of Forces than one complete Regiment for the ensuing Campaign?

The near Approach of the Time appointed for the Rendezvous of the Forces that we are now endeavouring to provide for, together with many other Matters of public Utility, which are absolutely necessary to be effected this Session of Assembly, and which cannot be forwarded with the Expedition required in Major-General Amherst's Invitation, are Arguments sufficient to convince of the Importance of your Honor's Presence; And as we know of no Expedient that can be proposed, consistent with our Constitution, to remedy the Inconveniences and Delays that will arise from your Absence; permit us, Sir, not only to advise, but earnestly to desire your Honor not to leave the Colony at this Juncture.

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

The good Opinion you entertain of me, and the Expressions, of Affection contained in your Address, claim my most hearty Thanks, which I return you with great Sincerity.

But

But as I am above Disguise, I cannot help expressing my Concern that the Dread of Poverty should frighten you from exerting yourselves to answer the Desires and Expectations of his Majesty for this Year, which most probably will put a finishing Stroke to the War in these Parts, the doing of which would, as I conceive, redound to your Honor and Advantage, both which I have greatly at Heart.

As the Interest of this Colony is the sole Motive which could induce me to be absent from it, so I shall not think of leaving it when that does not require my taking such a Step.

Ordered, That a Bill be brought in pursuant to the Prayer of the said Petition; and it is referred to Mr Peter Robinson and Mr Gaines to prepare and bring in the same.

Mr Attorney, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, reported, That the Committee had had under their Consideration the Petition of William Mead, to them referred, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Mr Samuel Hairstone and Mr Zachariah Burnley to serve as Burgesses in this present General Assembly for the County of Bedford, and had agreed upon a Report, and come to several Resolutions thereupon, which he read in his Place, and then delivered in at the Table, where the same were again twice read, and agreed to by the House, and are as follow:

Your Committee, in the first Place, take leave to observe, That the Petitioner did not appear before them either in Person or by his Council: Upon which they proceeded to consider the Depositions taken and returned, pursuant to the Order of this House, by which it appears that the Commanding Officer of the Militia of the said County of Bedford ordered Mr Hairstone to conduct the Persons drafted to recruit the Forces in the Pay of this Colony to Winchester, of which Patrick Napier, in the Petition mentioned, was one, who being very desirous to be quit of that Service, did, on the Way thither, propose to Mr Hairstone that if he would get one other Man to go in his Stead, and procure his Discharge, he would give him a Negroe, under ten Years of Age, That Mr Hairstone conducted the Drafts to Winchester, and delivered them to Colonel Washington, the Commanding Officer there; and having procured a Man to serve in the Stead of the said Napier, to whom he was to give five Pounds, besides the Bounty allowed by law, prevailed on Colonel Washington to accept him, and discharge Napier, who, on his Return Home, delivered to Mr Hairstone a Negroe about four or five Years old, and hath since declared that if such Delivery did not give him a good Title to the Negroe, he would make him a better: And Mr Hairstone hath declared that if Napier would repay the Money he was to give the Person that went in his stead he would return the Negroe back again (but whether Mr Hairstone really paid any Money to that Person does not appear to your Committee.) And no Evidence appearing to prove that Mr Burnley treated the Freeholders of that County after the Teste of the Writ for electing Burgeffes for the same, or any illegal Proceedings at the Election.

Resolved, That the said William Mead hath not made good the Allegations of his Petition.

Resolved, That the said Mr Samuel Hairstone and Mr Zachariah Burnley are duly elected to serve as Burgeffes in this present General Assembly for the said County of Bedford.

Mr Attorney also reported, That the said Committee had had under their Consideration the Petition of Mr Henry Blagrove, to them referred, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Mr Clement Read and Mr Matthew Marrable, to serve as Burgeffes in this present General Assembly for the County of Lunenburg, and had agreed upon a Report, and come to several Resolutions thereupon, which he read in his Place, and then delivered in at the Table, where the same were again twice read, and agreed to by the House, and are as follow:

It appears to your Committee that after it was publickly known in the said County, that the Writ was issued for electing Burgeffes to serve in this present General Assembly for the same, one Memican Hunt gave a Treat on Behalf of Mr Read to a Company of Militia he formerly had commanded, with Mr Read's Knowledge, but not at his Request, and invited Mr Read's Friends to partake thereof. That Mr Marrable desired one Henry Williams to acquaint the Company under the Command of Captain Williams that he intended to give them a Treat the next Muster Day, before which Time the Writs for Election of Burgeffes issued, upon which he desired the said Williams to excuse him to the Company, because if he should treat it would vacate his Election; and to tell them he would handsomely treat them after the Election was over, which he did do: That Mr Marrable hearing a Petition to the Assembly was handed about by Captain Cox, got another in Opposition thereto; and declared that by carrying it about several Days, and treating the Freeholders, he had got forty or fifty Votes, the Writ being then issued: That the Day before the Election a large Number of Freeholders came to Mr Marrable's, and were genteely entertained; at which Time their Votes were solicited for by Mr Marrable, in Behalf of Mr Blagrove and himself, and Mr Marrable declared they all promised him their Votes, but only one of them was as good as his Word: That Mr Marrable seemed strongly in Mr Blagrove's Interest, and declared he would spend eight or ten Pounds rather than he should lose his Election. That the Morning of the Election Liquor was distributed to the Company of Mr Marrable, by his Orders, but with this Caution, To take Care they should not intoxicate themselves, least a Riot might ensue at the Election, because he wanted a fair Poll, and every Candidate to stand or fall by his own interest; and Mr Marrable declared he expended seven Weathers, and thirty Gallons of Rum on that Occasion: That a few Days after the Election Mr Blagrove was at Mr Marrable's House, seemed very friendly, and said he was well satisfied with Mr Marrable's Proceedings in the Election, and was better satisfied that he should be a Burgefs with Mr Read than himself, if Mr Marrable would bring Mr Read to an Account upon Matters formerly against him alledged by Mr Marrable, and endeavour to divide the County: That on the fifth Day of July, being thirteen Days before the Election, Mr Marrable wrote a Letter to Mr David Caldwell, a Man of great Interest in the County, strongly soliciting his Interest, in which is contained the following Words: "This shall be my Obligation to be liable and answerable to you, and all who are my Friends, in the Sum of five Hundred Pounds, if I do not use the utmost of my Endeavours (in Case I should be a Burgefs) to divide this our County of Lunenburg, in the following Manner.

to wit: Beginning at Byrd's Mill, running a streight line to the Head of Nottoway, agreeable to a Division lately made in our Parish; as also to use the same Endeavours for this County, that shall appear for the Benefit thereof." And upon Consideration of the whole Matter,

Resolved, That the said Mr Clement Read is duly elected to serve as a Burgess in this present General Assembly for the said County of Lunenburg.

Resolved, That the said Mr Matthew Marrable is not duly elected to serve as a Burgess in this present General Assembly for the said County.

Your Committee cannot conclude this Report without taking Notice of the Behaviour of one John Hobson, which was very illegal and tumultuous, in offering to lay Wagers the Poll was closed when it was not; in proclaiming at the Court-house Door the Poll was going to be closed, and desiring the Freeholders to come in and vote, and then violently, by striking and kicking of them, preventing them from so doing, by which Means many Freeholders did not vote at the said Election.

Upon a Motion made,

Resolved, That the said John Hobson, in the said Report mentioned, is guilty of a high Misdemeanor, and Breach of the Privileges and Freedom of Elections, and also the Privileges of this House.

Ordered, That the said Hobson be sent for in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms, and brought to the Bar of this House, to answer for his said Offence.

Ordered, That an Address be made to the Governor to order a new Writ to issue for the Election of a Burgess to serve in this present General Assembly for the County of Lunenburg, in the Room of the said Matthew Marrable, and that Mr Read, do wait on him with the said Address.

Ordered, That Mr George Mason be added to the Committee of Propositions and Grievances.

A Petition of fundry Inhabitants of the Town of Fredericksburg in Opposition to a Petition to be presented to this House, for removing the Court house of Spotsylvania County out of the said County, was presented to the House and read.

Ordered, That the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Propositions and Grievances; That they do examine into the Matter thereof, and report the same, with their Opinion thereupon, to the House.

A Memorial of Mr Robert Stewart, representing that the Commanding Officer of the Virginia Troops, by the Governor's Approbation, appointed him Brigade-Major, which Duty he performed, but as there was no Fund to pay him, he has never received any Satisfaction for his said Service, and praying the Consideration of this House.

Also a Petition of William Istobe, setting forth, That he was a Soldier in Captain Ashby's Company of Rangers, and in an Engagement with some Enemy Indians on Patterfson's Creek, in April 1756, was by them taken Prisoner, and carried to Quebec, where he remained nineteen Months, and was then transported to England, and exchanged, and praying the Consideration of this House, were severally presented to the House and read.

Ordered, That the said Memorial and Petition be referred to the Consideration of the Committee of Claims; That they do examine into the Allegations thereof, and report the same, with their Opinions thereupon, to the House.

A Petition of John Langston and Tom Cook, in Behalf of themselves and the other Indians on Pamunkey River, in the County of King William, setting forth, That they are possessed of a valuable Tract of Land where they now live, which is more than sufficient for them (being now reduced to a small Number) to cultivate for their Subsistence: That they are also seized of a small Tract, separated from that they live on, containing about 200 Acres, which is of no other Use to them than to yield them Timber for building, but that for Want of some Person to take Care of their Interest, their Bounds are violated, and their Timber taken away, for which they can have no Satisfaction, not being acquainted with the Modes of obtaining Justice; and praying that an Act may pass to appoint them them Trustees to lease out the said small Tract of Land under an annual Rent, and the Restriction for reserving the Board Timber thereon for their own Use, was presented to the House and read.

Ordered, That a Bill or Bills be brought in pursuant to the Prayer of the said Petition; and it is referred to Mr Robinson and Mr Gaines to prepare and bring in the same.

A Claim of ——— Todd, for reducing the dislocated Arm of a Soldier, was presented to the House and received.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the Committee appointed by Act of Assembly to state the Accounts of Provisions, and the Pay of the Militia, and of the Damages done the Inhabitants of this Colony by the Cherokee and Catawba Indians, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, that they make such Allowance to the said Todd as they shall think reasonable for that Service.

A Claim of William Woodroof, for taking up a Runaway therein mentioned, was presented to the House and received.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the Committee of Claims to allow the said Claim in the Book of Claims.

A List of the Officers and Soldiers of the Militia drafted out of the County of Spotsylvania, on his Majesty's Service, in June, 1757, with an Account of the Time they were respectively employed in that Service, was presented to the House and received; and referred to the Consideration of the Committee of Claims.

Mr Charles Carter, from the Committee of Propositions and Grievances, reported, That the Committee had had under their Consideration divers Propositions from several Counties to them referred, and had come to several Resolutions thereupon, which he read in his Place, and then delivered in at the Table, where they were again twice read, and are as follow:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petition from the County of Lunenburg, praying that County may be divided, by a Line beginning at Byrd's Mill, and running thence a straight Course to the Head of Roanoke River, is reasonable.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petition from the Parish of Saint Patrick, in the County of Prince Edward, complaining of the illegal Proceedings of the Vestry of the said Parish, and praying the same may be dissolved, is reasonable; it appearing to this Committee, though not mentioned in the Petition, that one of the said Vestrymen is a Dissenter from the established Church.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petition from the Counties of Dinwiddie and Chesterfield, praying a Clause of an Act of Assembly therein mentioned may be repealed, and the Justices of the said Counties be obliged to build a bridge over Appamattox River, at the Town of Pocohontas, where the old Bridge now stands, is reasonable.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee That the Petition in Opposition thereto, be rejected.

Upon a Motion made,

Ordered, That the first Resolution be recommitted to the said Committee.

The second Resolution being read a second Time, and the Question put that the House agree thereto,

Resolved in the Affirmative.

Upon a Motion made,

Tuesday. the 13th of March. 32 Geo. II. 1759.

MR. Charles Carter, from the Committee of Propositions and Grievances, presented to the House, according to Order, a Bill To enable the Inhabitants of the County of Loudoun to pay their public Dues and Officers Fees in Money.

He also presented to the House, according to Order, a Bill To encourage Arts and Manufactures; and the said Bills were severally read the first Time, and ordered to be read a second Time.

Mr Attorney, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, reported, That the Committee had, according to Order, examined into the Conduct of Mr Thomas Walker, a Member of this House, and one of the Contractors for furnishing the Forces in the Pay of this Colony, that were stationed in the County of Augusta, with Provisions, in the Year 1757; and had agreed upon a Report, and come to several Resolutions thereupon, which he read in his Place, and then delivered in at the Table, where the said Resolutions were again twice read, and agreed to by the House, and are as follow:

In Order to prevent any Mistakes that might happen in the Course of this Enquiry, your Committee thought it expedient that the Objections made to Mr Walker's Conduct in that Office should be reduced into Writing; and therefore desired Mr Johnson (another Member of this House) who gave Rise to this Enquiry, to put into Writing the Objections he had to make to Mr Walker's Conduct, which he did, at two several Times, in the following Words: "The following is the Charge against Thomas Walker, Gentleman, one of the Contractors for victualling the Troops in the Pay of this Colony, in the Year 1757, exhibited against him by Thomas Johnson, and which he proposes to make good Proof to: That on the 28th Day of October, 1757, Thomas Walker, Gentleman, did covenant and

agree with the Honorable Robert Dinwiddie, Esq; late Lieutenant-Governor of this Colony, That the said Thomas would take to his own proper Account all such Provision as was then on Hand, that should be delivered unto him in the County of Augusta, and give the Government Credit for the same, after the following Rate, that is to say: For every Bushel of Salt ten shillings; for every Hundred Pounds of Flour nine Shillings; for every Pound of Bacon three Pence; for every Pound of dried or pickled Beef two Pence Half-penny, and for every Hundred Pounds of Biscuit twelve Shillings and six Pence. And whereas, soon after the said Contract was made, there was delivered to the Officers of the first Virginia Regiment and Rangers, stationed in the County of Augusta, whom the said Thomas had contracted to supply with Provisions, about eleven Waggon Loads of Bacon and other Provisions, as by Receipt, for Part of the same, by Captain Woodward, an Officer in the first Virginia Regiment, may appear, notwithstanding the said Thomas hath settled an Account many Months after the Delivery of the said Provisions (with the Government) and refused to give any Credit for the same, alledging that the same was unsound and deserved no Credit." Here ends the first Charge; the second was as follows: "A further Charge exhibited by Thomas Johnson against Thomas Walker, Gentleman, as one of the Contractors for victualling the Troops in the Pay of this Colony, in the Year 1757; That the said Thomas Walker entered into a secret Partnership with Major Andrew Lewis, one of the principal Officers of the first Virginia Regiment, stationed in Augusta County, relative to the victualling the said Troops under his immediate Command; and that after the Persons appointed to convey a certain Quantity of Bacon from the Hands of Colonel Read, which had been purchased for the Use of the Government, and had obtained a Receipt for the same, after being first inspected by proper Persons on Oath, and then admitted some were good, some indifferent, and the rest condemned, the said Walker received the same, and afterwards the said Lewis (Partner with the said Walker) by Virtue of his own Authority, caused the said Provisions, or at least the greatest Part of them, not then made Use of, to be examined and condemned; and that the said Thomas Walker as yet has rendered no Manner of Account of the whole or any Part thereof, as the said Thomas Johnson knows of, although the said Thomas Johnson expressly charges that some of the said Provisions was actually used; but in Order, as the said Thomas Johnson conceives, to prevent any Discovery thereof, the said Thomas Walker absolutely denied that the said Lewis was concerned with him in victualling the said Regiment; and this he did at a Time it was supposed that the said Lewis was killed in the Battle before Fort Du Quesne; And further, the 44 "said Thomas Johnson undertakes to prove that the Bacon delivered and afterwards condemned as aforesaid, was good at the Time it was delivered." So ends the second Charge. After hearing the said Charges read, and duly considering the same, your Committee proceeded to hear the Testimony of the Witnesses produced by Mr Johnson to prove the said Charges, as well as those produced by Mr Walker to exculpate himself; And from their Evidence it appears to your Committee That Mr Walker entered into the Contract mentioned by Mr Johnson, and on the Terms by him alledged. That eleven Waggon Loads of Provisions were sent from Lunenburg to Augusta County for the Use of the Forces Mr Walker was by that Contract to victual: That the Contract was negotiated in Williamsburg, and concluded the twenty-eighth Day of October, 1757; and while the same was in Agitation, and before it was concluded, Mr Walker told Colonel Read, another Member of this House, who had purchased those Provisions, by Order of the Governor, the Year before, that he would go to Lunenburg and see the same inspected before it was sent to Augusta and Mr Read told him it was too late, for that the Provisions were then gone, or going to Augusta, by the Governor's Order. That on the twentieth Day of October, eight Days before the Contract was concluded. it appears a Quantity of those Provisions were delivered to Captain Woodward, an Officer of the first Virginia Regiment, in Augusta, and the Residue was, about the last of that Month, lodged on Craig's Creek, about twelve Miles from the Garison, the Roads not being passable for Waggon, and for Want of an Escort: That the Provisions received by Captain Woodward were inspected, but it does not appear that those left at Craig's Creek were ever inspected. Yet from the Light your Committee have been able to discover from the whole Testimony, it appears that the said Provisions were in general very indifferent, and great Part quite spoiled. That Mr Walker, in July next following his Contract laid an Account before the Commissioners appointed by Act of Assembly to adjust the same, and did not make any Mention therein of those Provisions, but acquainted them that a Quantity of Provisions had been received from Lunenburg, which he had not then got an Account of, and that he would leave in the Treasury a sufficient Sum to pay for them whenever the Quantity could be adjusted, which he did, where the same still remains, the said Mr Walker not having as yet settled any other Account with the said Commissioners: The preceeding Facts are all relative to the first Charge exhibited by Mr Johnson. And with Respect to the second, it does appear to your Committee, that Major Lewis, the Commanding Officer of the Forces stationed in Augusta, was concerned with Mr Walker in the Execution of the said Contract, though not named in it, which your Committee entirely disapprove of, as it might open a Door to great Hardships and Oppression upon the poor Soldiers; but no such Consequences having appeared to attend it in this Case, your Committee have come to the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That Mr Johnson hath not made good the first Part of his Charge, wherein he alleges Mr Walker refused to account for the said Provisions.

Resolved, That he hath made good that Part of his Charge, concerning Major Lewis's being in Partnership with Mr Walker.

Resolved, That he hath not made good that Part of his Charge, touching a Re-inspection and Condemnation of the said Provisions by Major Lewis's Order.

And it not appearing to your Committee that any other Inconveniency attended Major Lewis's being concerned in the Execution of the said Contract, than the Absence of some of the Officers from their Posts at some Times necessarily occasioned thereby.

Resolved, That Mr Walker hath not been guilty of any Fraud in the Execution of the said Contract.

Upon a Motion made,

Ordered, That Mr Thomas Walker, Contractor for supplying the Troops with Provisions, do, in six Months, at furthest, from this Time, render an Account of all the Provisions he has received in the County of Lunenburg or elsewhere, according to the Terms of the Contract made with this Government, in the Year 1757.

The House being informed, That Mr Thomas Johnson, a Member of this House, having said that Mr Walker as Contractor to supply the Forces stationed in Augusta with Provisions, had attempted to cheat the Country of eleven Hundred Pounds, was asked, if that was the Case, how it happened that Mr Walker was not only continued in Office, but was courted thereto and carried by the Assembly, upon which Mr Johnson said the following Words: "You know very little of the Schemes, Plots, and Contrivances that are carried on in the House of Burgesses; in short, one holds the Lamb while another skins; and it would surprize any Man to see in what Manner the Country's Money is squandered away, which I have used my utmost Endeavour to prevent, in which I could never succeed but once, and that to a trifling Amount." That among other Instances the said Mr Johnson mentioned the following as a Proof of his Assertions: "That when the Clerk's Salary was proposed to be settled, Mr Randolph, the Clerk, got up, and walking through the Burgesses gave a Nod to his Creatures on each Side, who all followed him out of the House, and promised to be for the largest Sum proposed."

Ordered, That the said Information be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections; That they do examine into the Matter thereof, and report the same, with their Opinion thereupon, to the House.

The House proceeded to the Consideration of the two last Resolutions of the Committee of Propositions and Grievances, made on Thursday last, and referred to be considered this Day; and the first of the said Resolutions being read a second Time, and the Question put that the House agree thereto,

It passed in the Negative.

Resolved,

Resolved, That the Petitions from the Counties of Dinwiddie and Chesterfield, therein mentioned, be rejected.

The last Resolution being also read a second Time, and the Question put that the House agree thereto,

Resolved in the Affirmative.

Upon a Motion made,

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill To prohibit the Justices of the County of Dinwiddie from obliging the Justices of the County of Chesterfield to join with them in building a Bridge a-crofs Appomattox River, at Browder's Island, and it is referred to Mr Cary to prepare and bring in the same.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning Eleven o'Clock.

I did not doubt but that Reason, and a just Sense of your true Interest, would in the End prevail and overpower all your Fears of Distress and Poverty. I am particularly to thank you, Gentlemen of the House of Burgeses, for the Money you have raised for these Purposes; and it shall be my Endeavour, by a careful Application of it, and a steady Observation of what you have recommended to me, to give you such Conviction of the Sincerity of my Intentions, as will secure to me your future Confidence.*

November Session

JOURNAL

of the

HOUSE OF BURGESSES

Thursday, the 1st of November, 33 Geo. II. 1759.

A Message from the Governor was delivered by Mr Walthoe.
 Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,
 The Governor commands the immediate Attendance of your House in the Council Chamber.

Accordingly Mr Speaker, with the House, went up to attend the Governor.

And being returned, reported, That he, with the House, had attended the Governor in the Council Chamber; and that the Governor was pleased to make a Speech to the Council and this House, of which he had (to prevent Mistakes) obtained a Copy, which he read to the House, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

Some Letters which I lately received from Governor Lyttleton and Governor Dobbs to inform me of Commotions among the Cherokees, and to desire the Assistance of this Colony to suppress them, have obliged me to call you together sooner than I proposed; that, without Delay, I might lay them before you for your Deliberation, and communicate your Resolutions, on this important Affair, to their Excellencies. It is needless to represent to you the Dangers to which our Frontiers are exposed by these Indians: But by some subsequent Advices, I am not without Hopes that this gathering Storm may still be dispersed, and prevented from falling on our Heads.

The Men now in the pay of this Colony stand provided for but till the first of December next. Notwithstanding the great Success with which it has pleased the Almighty to bless his Majesty's Arms during this whole Campaign, (on the rapid and uninterrupted Course of which I most heartily and sincerely congratulate you) I recommend it to your Consideration, whether it would not be imprudent to lessen their Numbers in our present Situation: Though the French are driven from our Frontiers, we are not yet in that State of Tranquillity and Security which we could wish. I am averse to encrease, or even continue, any Expence to this Colony, that is not absolutely necessary. I am sensible of the great Burthen it has already born; but when I tell you, that those very Generals, to whose Conduct, Courage and Care, we owe our present Safety, and the Advantages this Colony is already reaping by the Roads now opening by their Direction, do earnestly desire that our Troops should be continued in Pay; can you doubt of the Utility of the Measure? When I tell you, that the British Nation is actually at this Moment expending a very large Sum to erect a strong Fort at Pittsburg, to defend this and the adjacent Colonies from any future Insult; can you hesitate whether you shall furnish your present Quota towards expediting the great Works now carrying carrying on there? Let me add, as an additional Motive, that the great Expence is already paid; the Men are raised and clothed, their Subsistence for some Months is the only present Matter of Contemplation.

There is one other Article of Expence I cannot help recommending to you, which is, the finishing and completing Fort Loudoun. The Sums already spent in erecting that Fortrefs will be entirely thrown away, as the Fort must fall to Ruins, if the Works are not preserved from the Damages of the Seasons, by being properly finished. If you consider the Importance of this Post, either as a Magazine, or as a Depository of Indian Goods, or as a Protection from those People, if they should again dare to molest us: If you could see the Forwardness it is in, and the little there is wanting to complete it, I am confident you would unanimously concur with me in the Usefulness of what I recommend to you.

Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

That you might be the better enabled to provide for all necessary Services, without oppressing the Inhabitants, I have made it the great Object of all my Actions, during the Recess of the Assembly, to be as saving as possible of all publick Money; to this Purpose I have endeavored to protect our back Settlements with the 300 Men in the Pay of the Colony, without having Recourse to the expensive and detrimental Method of calling the Militia from their Families and their Occupations, to protect their Neighbors; so that the Claims on that Head, which you may remember have been very numerous, you will find entirely reduced: And I have had the great Satisfaction to find the Inhabitants have suffered less Damage by the Incurfions of Indians than in former Years; a necessary Consequence of the French being removed from our and their Neighborhood. If by any Means whatever it should be in my Power to alleviate or lessen your Expences, you may entirely depend on my employing all such Means to the Relief and Ease of the Colony.

Gentlemen of the Council, and of the House of Burgeffes,

It is necessary for me to acquaint you, that I have received an Instruction from his Majesty, to recommend to you the providing for the Security of the Merchants of Great Britain, in the Recovery of Sterling Debts due to them from this Colony, from any Loss they may sustain from our unavoidable Emissions of Paper Money. This is a fresh Mark of his Majesty's universal paternal Care over all his Subjects; and as I am fully persuaded it is your Intentions that no Man should suffer by any Act of yours, I recommend it to you to reconsider this Affair, and if their Property is not already fully secured, to provide for the Security thereof in the fullest and amplest Manner. I have also received his Majesty's Disapprobation and Repeal of an Act passed in the Year 1752, intituled, An Act to erect a Light House on Cape Henry.

Having communicated every Thing to you which deserves your present Consideration, I have only to desire, in the Dispatch of these weighty Affairs, a Continuance of that Zeal for the publick Good; that Integrity of Heart in the Pursuit of it; that Loyalty to his Majesty; and that Affection to me, which I have always experienced during my Residence with you.

Mr Speaker also reported, That the Governor had delivered to him, and desired him to lay before the House, sundry Letters lately come to Hand, from Major General Amherst, Brigadier General Stanwix, his Excellency Governor Lyttleton, of South Carolina, and his Excellency Governor Dobbs, of North Carolina, which he accordingly delivered in at the Table.

Ordered, That the said Letters do lie on the Table.

A Member returned upon a new Writ, having taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Act of Parliament, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and taken and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, and also subscribed the Test, was admitted to his Place in the House.

Resolved, That an Address be presented to his Honor the Governor, to return him the sincere Thanks of this House for his very affectionate Speech, at the Opening of this Session: To assure him that we heartily join with his Honor in Congratulations on the Success with which his Majesty's Endeavors have been attended in the Prosecution of the present War: That we shall, with all possible Diligence, take under our Consideration the several weighty Affairs that he has been pleased to recommend to us; and to express the grateful Sense that we have of the Care and Tranquility with which he has conducted himself in the Protection of our Frontiers, and of the Happiness that we enjoy under his Administration.

Succes

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to draw up an Address to the Governor, pursuant to the said Resolution; and it is referred to Mr Landon Carter and Mr Attorney to prepare and bring in the same.

Resolved, That this House will take the Governor's Speech into Consideration To-morrow.

Ordered, That an Address be made to the Governor, to order a new Writ to issue for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present General Assembly for James Town, in the Room of Mr Travis, who, since his Election, hath accepted of the Office of Coroner of James City County; and that Mr Wythe do wait on his Honor with the said Address.

Ordered, That an Address be made to the Governor, to order a new Writ to issue for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present General Assembly for the County of Goochland, in the Room of Mr Reuben Skelton, deceased; and that Mr Cary do wait on his Honor with the said Address.

3 Ordered, That the Rev. Mr William Yates be continued Chaplain to this House, and that he attend to read Prayers every Morning at ten o'Clock.

Ordered, That Thomas Broadrib, James Lavie, and James Yates, be continued in their respective Offices of Door-Keepers to this House; and that they give their Attendance accordingly.

A Petition of Thomas Francis, praying that he may be appointed a Door-Keeper to this House, in the Room of William Francis, deceased, was presented to the House and read; and thereupon,

Resolved, That the said Thomas Francis be appointed a Door-Keeper to this House, and that he attend accordingly.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eleven o'Clock.

Friday, the 2nd of November. 33 Geo. II. 1759.

ORDERED, That an Address be made to the Governor, to order a new Writ to issue for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present General Assembly for the County of Norfolk, in the Room of Mr Veal, who, since his Election, hath accepted of the Office of Sheriff of the said County; and that Mr Tatem do wait on his Honor with the said Address.

Mr Landon Carter reported, That the Committee appointed had, according to Order, prepared an Address to the Governor, which he read in his Place, and then delivered in at the Table, where the same was again twice read, and agreed to, and is as follows:

Sir,

We, the Burgeffes of Virginia, with great Sincerity return your Honor Thanks for your very affectionate Speech, at the Opening of this Session.

The Success with which it has pleased God to bless his Majesty's Arms, as it must tend to effect those glorious Purposes of Peace and Tranquility, the ultimate End of all our Wishes, naturally raises in our Thoughts every Idea of Congratulation; and we most heartily beg Leave to join with your Honor, on the Occasion.

As a permanent Testimony of the just Sense we entertain of his Majesty's constant and Paternal Regard for his faithful People of this Colony, indulge us, good Sir, most dutifully to acknowledge it, in the gracious Instance that he gave in the Appointment of your Honor to preside over us; since Experience has now strongly impressed, on all our Minds, those Sensations of Happiness which at first were presaged in your great Affability of Temper. The Frugality

Frugality with which you have conducted yourself in the Protection of our Frontiers, is a farther Proof of your Prudence and Benevolence to this Colony; and calls upon us for its just Acknowledgments, in this Time of prodigious Expence: Permit us therefore to assure you, that no Endeavour shall be wanting, on our Part, to convince your Honor, and every impartial Judge, of our Zeal and unalienable Integrity for the Publick, Loyalty to his Majesty, and Affection to you, in the Consideration of those weighty Affairs which your Honor has been pleased to recommend to us.

Ordered, That the said Address be fairly transcribed, and presented by the whole House.

Ordered, That the Committee who prepared the same wait on the Governor to know his Pleasure when this House shall attend his Honor to present it.

The Order of the Day being read, for the House to take into their Consideration the Governor's Speech.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Speech be put off till Monday next.

Upon a Motion made,

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the Treasurer of this Colony to execute a Release to John Frog, Sheriff of Prince William County, from the Penalty of a Bond by him given for the Collection of the Taxes in that County, and from a Judgment obtained by the said Treasurer, in the General Court, against the said John Frog on the said Bond; it appearing that he has paid into the Treasury the whole Money wherewith he was chargeable for Taxes arising in the said County.

A Petition of John Mercer, Gentleman, was presented to the House and read; setting forth, That he hath (with great Labor and Expence) compiled and printed a complete and correct Abridgment of all the publick Acts of Assembly of this Colony in Force and Use at this Time, which, by Reason of his Majesty's not having signified his Approbation of the Land Law, and his repealing divers Acts printed in the Revival, and the many Acts passed since, lie interpersed in so many different Books; that it is a very difficult Matter to distinguish which of the said Acts are in Force and which are not; besides their being so scarce and difficult to procure, that very few, if any, of the County Courts are furnished with a complete Collection of the said Acts of Assembly at large. That as the Legislature of this Colony has thought it reasonable, from Time to Time, to supply the Magistrates of the several Counties (who serve without Fee or Reward) with the printed Acts of Assembly at the publick Expence, the Petitioner hopes this honorable House, to whom he submits the Usefulness of his Performance, will so far encourage it as to take off his Hands a sufficient Number of the said Abridgments to supply the said Magistrates, as he has not only printed it for that Purpose, but adapted it particularly to their Use, by abridging every Clause of the said Acts under its proper Title, with necessary Tables; and the general Complaint through the Colony of the Want of such a Collection was his principal Inducement to undertake a Work of so much Labor and Expence in a Multiplicity of other Business. That in Order to render that said Work as useful and beneficial as may be, the Petitioner will undertake, as long as he lives, to publish at the End of every Session (at the most reasonable Expence that may be) an Abridgment of the publick Acts of such Session, with proper Notes and Directions what Alterations are made by such new Acts in the former ones.

Ordered, That the said Petition be referred to Mr Landon Carter, Mr George Johnston, Mr Attorney, Mr Harrison, and Mr Cary; that they do examine into the Matter thereof, and report the same, with their Opinion thereupon, to the House.

A Claim of Henry Settle, for taking up a Deforter therein mentioned, was presented to the House and received, and referred to the Consideration of the next Session of Assembly.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning Eleven o'Clock.

Saturday.

Saturday, the 3rd of November. 33 Geo. II. 1759.

M<sup>R</sup> Landon Carter reported, That the Committee appointed had, according to Order, waited on the Governor to know his Pleasure when this House should attend him with their Address, and that he was pleased to appoint Monday next, and to say he would signify by a Message to the House when he was ready to receive it.

A Claim of Hillary Boushop, for taking up a Runaway therein mentioned, was presented to the House and received, and referred to the Consideration of the next Session of Assembly.

And then the House adjourned till Monday Morning, Eleven o'Clock.

Monday, the 5th of November. 33 Geo. II. 1759.

Resolved, That this House will again resolve itself into a Committee upon the said Speech and Letters To-morrow.

Mr Landon Carter reported, That the Committee to whom the Petition of John Mercer was referred, having considered the same, and having also before them the concurring Testimony of the Gentlemen practising at the General Court Bar, as to the Usefulness of the Abridgment mentioned in the said Petition, had come to several Resolutions thereupon, which he read in his Place, and then delivered in at the Table.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Report be referred to Wednesday next.

Upon a Motion made,

Spotswood were to be entitled to their respective Parts of the Estate. That the said John Spotswood being impowered by his Father's Will to sell certain intailed Lands for the Payment of his Sisters Fortunes and other Purposes, did, in his Lifetime, amongst other Parcels of the said Land, sell and convey to John Thornton, of the County of Spotsylvania, Gentleman, 9000 Acres, lying in the County of Culpeper, and re-purchased the said Land to himself in Fee Simple, and by his Will devised the same to his younger Son John; but some Doubts remain whether by such Repurchase the said John Spotswood was not restored to his old Estate Tail, so that his younger Son could not be entitled to the said Lands under his Will: And to prevent Law Suits and Animosities in the Family, the Petitioner, in his Petition for the said Act of Assembly (which was calculated to preserve the Estate to the Family in an equitable Manner, according to the Ancestors Wills) prayed that the said 9000 Acres of Land might be confirmed to the said younger Son, as his Father had paid his Money for it, and was in the Light of a fair Purchase; but not being able at that Time to discover the Deeds for the said Land to and from the said John Thornton, the Matter was then dropped. Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeses,

As you have gone through the particular Branches of Business which were the immediate Cause of my summoning you, and as you have shewn a Desire of retiring to your own Counties, by your not entering on the common Business of the Country, I shall not detain you longer from pursuing your Inclinations, being at all Times desirous to comply therewith as far as is consistent with the Duty I owe to his Majesty, and the Attachment I have to this Colony.

I cannot but wish that you had more amply provided for the great Services which to me seemed necessary for your Preservation; notwithstanding this, I give you the strongest Assurances that I will, with the utmost Assiduity and Application, employ the Forces you have entrusted to me, to the best of my Abilities, towards the finishing and protecting the Works now erecting at Pittsburg, the assisting Governor Lyttleton against the Cherokee Indians, if they should be rash enough to declare War, and the preserving and securing our own Frontiers. If I should be so unfortunate as to fail in either of these Particulars, I trust you will have Candor enough to attribute it to the Scantiness of the Power with which you have invested me. This you have encouraged me to hope, from the Approbation you have given to my former Conduct. I shall close this Session, with repeating the Satisfaction I always receive from being thought to have done my Duty; and shall accordingly prorogue you, and you are hereby prorogued, to the First Tuesday in March next.

HOUSE OF BURGESSES

AT A GENERAL ASSEMBLY summoned to be held at the Capitol in the City of WILLIAMSBURG on THURSDAY, the fourteenth Day of SEPTEMBER in the XXXII<sup>d</sup> Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the second and in the year of our Lord 1758 and from thence continued by several Prorogations to TUESDAY the 4th Day of MARCH in the XXXIII<sup>d</sup> Year of his Majesty's Reign Annoqz Dom 1760 and then held at the Capitol in the said City being the fifth Session of this Assembly.

Tuesday, the 4th of March, 33 Geo. II. 1760.

A Message from the Governor was delivered by Mr Walthoe.
*Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,
 The Governor commands the immediate Attendance of your House in the Council Chamber.*

Accordingly Mr Speaker, with the House, went up to attend the Governor.

And being returned, reported, That the House had attended the Governor in the Council Chamber; and that the Governor was pleased to make a Speech to the Council and this House, of which he had (to prevent Mistakes) obtained a Copy, which he read to the House, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

I Have called you together at this juncture, that I might be informed in Time of your Resolutions and Intentions, in Relation to the Regiment; which, without your farther Assistance, I must disband on the first Day of May next, agreeably to the Act providing for their Subsistence, which has been punctually complied with in every other Particular.

The Expediency of keeping up this reputable Body of Men will fully appear to you, from the Letters I have received from Major-Generals Amherst and Stanwix, Governor Lyttleton, and Colonel Byrd, all of which I shall immediately lay before you, for your better Information: Could I add any thing to what these Gentlemen have wrote on this Head, I would remind you, that Great Britain, notwithstanding the enormous Debt under which she at present labors, is raising many Millions for the Service of the ensuing Year; that notwithstanding the Invasion with which she was threatened, and the Sums expended for the Defence of her own Coasts, she has never been backward in supporting and defending her Colonies, but has, like a true and tender Mother, in Part reimbursed them for the Expences they have been at in their own Defence, as is evident by the annual Grants of Parliament for the Support and Encouragement of the Colonies; and we can have no Room to doubt of her future Benevolence towards us.

As a farther Motive to induce you to pursue this salutary Measure, consider the present declining State of France; her Trade ruined, her Navy destroyed, her Treasury Bankrupt, and

and the Spirits of her People so entirely broke, that she is become rather an Object of Pity than of Resentment: From these Circumstances, it is most probable that the Blessings of Peace will soon attend us; will you not then persevere to the last? Will you furnish the Honour and Reputation you have justly acquired, by withdrawing yourselves at the Close of the Day? I cannot suppose it. Therefore,

Gentlemen of the House of Burgeses,

Though I recommend Measures productive of farther Expence to your Consideration, let me assure you, that I am sorry the Circumstances of the Times oblige me to it; but I think them for your Honor, for your future Safety, and in all Respects for the Interest of this Colony, for which you have always shewn so uniform a Regard; and I make no Doubt but you will concur in them.

Gentlemen of the Council and of the House of Burgeses,

Having thus laid before you all Matters which occur to me for your present Deliberations, I shall leave them with you, requesting you to use Dispatch in your Consultations, that I may make known your Resolutions to the Commanders before the usual Time of opening the Campaign. I have the farther pleasure to inform you that I have received a Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, appointing Major-General Amherst to be Governor and Commander in Chief of this Colony; an Instance of his Majesty's Regard to true Merit, which must give great Satisfaction to the Inhabitants of this Continent, who are rescued from the Hands of the Enemy, by the Conduct and Vigor of so able a Commander.

And late in the Evening Yesterday, I received fresh Letters from Mr Secretary Pitt and Major-General Amherst, signifying his Majesty's Commands to me, to recommend to the General Assembly of this Dominion, in the strongest Terms, the exerting themselves by the most vigorous Measures during this Campaign, which will probably be the last.

Mr Speaker informed the House, that the Governor had delivered to him several Letters from Mr Secretary Pitt, Major-Generals Amherst and Stanwix, Governor Lyttleton and Colonel Byrd, and desired him to lay them before the House.

A Message from the Governor by Mr Walthoe,

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

I am commanded by the Governor to acquaint this House, that his Honor is now ready to receive their Addrefs in the Council Chamber.

Accordingly Mr Speaker, with the House, went up; and being returned, reported, That he, with the House, had attended the Governor in the Council Chamber, and presented the Addrefs of this House to him, to which he was pleased to return the following Answer:

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

The just Sense you entertain of his Majesty's great Wisdom and Goodness; the Steadiness with which you have persevered to support his Rights and protect this Colony; the Alacrity with which you have undertaken, and the Progress you have already made in, the Measures recommended to you, together with the Affection and Regard shewn to me in this Address, demand a Return of my most sincere Thanks, which I give you with the greatest Cordiality. 18

Mr Speaker informed the House, that the Governor had delivered to him several Letters from Sir John St. Clair, Colonel Byrd, Major Stobo, and Mr Van Braam, which he had desired him to lay before the House.

And the said Letters were read, and ordered to lye on the Table.

A Memorial of the Officers of the Virginia Regiment was presented to the House and read, setting forth, That they had cheerfully entered into the Service of this Colony, at a Juncture when an aversion to a Military Life was general and conspicuous, and when the unjustifiable Encroachments of the French threatened our Lives and Properties with great Danger; since which Period, they had made the Study of their Profession the Object of their closest Attention, and dropped all Thoughts of their former Employments, to which they cannot return but with the utmost Reluctance, and under such Infinity of Disadvantages, as will totally incapacitate them from pursuing the same with any Probability of Success: That such of them as had any Fortunes, had expended them; and those who had none are greatly involved by procuring the Necessaries, and a very few of the Conveniences of Life; of both which they were often destitute, and which in the Country (or rather Wilderness) they generally served in, could never be 19
got but at an exorbitant Rate: That they have for a Number of Years been on constant severe Duty, encountered the rudest Toils and most imminent Dangers, been Strangers to Winter-Quarters, and other Relaxations from the Duties of the Field, which other Troops enjoyed, and all have a Right to: That they have spent their youthful Days, impaired their Health, hurt their Constitutions, and in fine been deprived of those Resources that would have enabled them to have gained a Livelihood: That by close Application, and a steady Perseverance in the punctual Execution of their Duty, such good Order, Regularity, and strict Discipline (which can alone constitute good Troops) have long been maintained in the Regiment so as to have attracted the Particular Notice and Approbation of the best Judges; acquired a Superiority over all other Provincial Troops, and rendered it universally admired by all with whom it did Duty: This Assertion is clearly evinced, by the general Behaviour of its Officers in the many Actions it has been engaged in, and the signal Bravery of several, whose gallant Conduct and glorious Deaths redound so much to the Honor of this Colony: That the publick Spirits which have so long exhibited our military Affairs in a distinguished Light from those of the neighbouring Provinces, and the ready Attention of this House to redress the Grievances of 20
the Memorialists, give them room to hope that, still actuated by the same noble Motives, this House will form some Establishment for their future Support, that the Blessings of Peace

Peace which they have been instrumental in procuring to many of their Fellow Subjects, they may in some Measure participate of themselves; or in Case the unprecedented Perfidy of the Cherokees should protract the War, in that Event, such a Provision would create the strongest Incitement in generous Minds (viz. Gratitude) to the utmost Exertion of their Abilities in the Execution of such ulterior Operations as may be judged most efficacious for re-establishing the Tranquility, and supporting the Honor, Interest and Security of this Colony: And praying that this House will take this Affair into Consideration.

Ordered, That the said Memorial be referred to the Consideration of the next Session of Assembly.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning Eleven o'Clock.

HOUSE OF BURGESSES

Monday, the 19th of May, 33 Geo. II. 1760.

A Message from the Governour was delivered by Mr Walthoe.
 Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesfes,
 The Governour commands the immediate Attendance of your House in the Council Chamber.

Accordingly Mr Speaker, with the House, went up to attend the Governour;

And being returned, reported, That he, with the House, had attended the Governour in the Council-Chamber; and that the Governour was pleased to make a Speech to the Council and this House, of which he had (to prevent Mistakes) obtained a Copy, which he read to the House, and then delivered in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesfes,

From my great Desire to give you all the Relaxation from the Attendance on publick Business, which the Exigencies of Government will permit, you may be assured that nothing but a Matter of the most pressing Nature, which would admit of no Delay, could have induced me to call you together again so soon.

I have received Letters from the Honourable William Bull Lieutenant-Governour and Commander in Chief of South-Carolina, since the Departure of his Excellency Governour Lyttelton, requesting, in the most urgent Terms, that I would send immediate Assistance to Fort Loudoun; a Fort situated in the Overhill Cherokee Country, consisting of a Garrison of 200 Men, who cannot be relieved from Carolina, and must inevitably fall a Prey to the merciless Indians, unless we can throw in timely Succours to save them: When I considered the distressed Condition of these unhappy Men, and that not only the common Ties of Humanity, but that the Honour of this Colony (which perhaps had too great Share in the Cause of this Rupture) called upon me in the strongest Manner, and demanded this Assistance, I could not hesitate whether I should endeavour to succour them; and when I considered my own Situation, and that I was totally incapacitated from affording them the least wished-for Relief, I could not hesitate whether I should summon you to meet, for your Advice and Assistance in this important interesting Affair.

That no Time might be lost, I have already, by a special Messenger, wrote to Governour Dobbs and Mr Bull my Sentiments on this Matter, provided the Colony should enable me to send them any Assistance, the Return of which Messenger I expect every Hour.

I shall immediately lay these Letters before you, and shall only add on this Subject, that I have nothing to ask by the Directions of my Royal Master on this Head, otherwise than by his general Instructions, to defend the Colony from all her Enemies; it is an Affair which concerns ourselves immediately, in the Protection of our own back Settlements.

I have the Pleasure to communicate to you, that Mr Abercrombie informs me, that the Proportion.

Proportion allotted to this Colony out of the £50,000 granted by the Parliament of Great Britain in the Year 1756, for the Use of the Southern Colonies is, by the Report of Lord Loudoun, to be confirmed by the Treasury Board, £32,814, 19. 0-¼, for the Receipt of which he is now furnished with full Powers; and that he has actually in his Hands at present his Majesty's Warrant for £20,546, out of the £200,000 granted by Parliament for the Use of the Colonies in general, for the Services by them respectively performed in the Year 1758, which now stands as a Loan on the Royal Exchequer, at Four and an Half per Centum to be paid out of the Monies raised for the Service of the Year 1759.

It would be needless to recommend Dispatch to you, as the Business you meet upon so necessarily implies it.

Mr Speaker also reported, That the Governour had delivered to him, and desired him to lay before the House, two Letters from Lieutenant-Governour Bull, of South-Carolina, and his Excellency Governour Dobbs, of North-Carolina, lately come to Hand, mentioned in his Honour's Speech, which he accordingly delivered in at the Table.

And the said Letters were read, and ordered to lie on the Table.

Resolved, That an Address be presented to the Governour, to return him our Thanks for his Speech: To express our Acknowledgements for the Care and Vigilance with which he conducts the affairs of this Colony; to assure him that we are truly sensible of the Importance of the Matter recommended to us, and that we shall use our utmost Endeavours to avert the Danger with which we are threatened.

Ordered, That an Address be drawn up, pursuant to the said Resolutions; and it is referred to Mr Attorney, and Mr Pendleton, to prepare and bring in the same.

Resolved, That this House will take the Governour's Speech into Consideration To-morrow.

Ordered, That the Rev. Mr William Yates be continued Chaplain to this House, and that he attend to read Prayers every Morning at Ten o'Clock.

Ordered, That Thomas Broadrib, James Lavie and Thomas Francis, be continued in their respective Offices of Doorkeepers to this House, and that they give their Attendance accordingly.

A Petition of Nathaniel Hix, praying to be appointed a Door-Keeper to this House, in the Room of James Yates, deceased, was presented to the House and read; and there-upon

Resolved, That the said Nathaniel Hix be admitted to the said Office, and that he give his Attendance accordingly.

Several Petitions of Thomas Withers, Julius Kirk and Peter Meace, respectively, praying that they may be admitted to the said Office of Door-Keeper, were severally presented to the House and read; and the Question being severally put upon the said Petitions,

It passed in the Negative.

Resolved, That the said Petitions be rejected.

And then the House adjourned till To-Morrow Morning Eleven o'Clock

Tuesday, the 20th of May. 33 Geo. II. 1760.

A Member returned upon a new Writ, having taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Act of Parliament, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and taken and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, and also subscribed the Test, was admitted to his Place in the House.

Ordered, That an Address be made to the Governour, to order a new Writ to issue for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present General-Assembly for the County of Amelia, in the Room of Mr Richard Booker, deceased; and that Mr Edmund Booker, do wait upon him with the said Address.

Mr Attorney reported that the Committee appointed had, according to Order, prepared an Address to the Governour; which he read in his Place, and then delivered in at the Table, where the same was again twice read, and agreed to, and is as follows:

Sir,

We his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgeffes of Virginia, now met in General-Assembly, return you our Thanks for your kind Speech, at the Opening of this Session. Permit us, Sir, at the same Time, to make those acknowledgements which Gratitude demands of us, for the Care and Vigilance with which you conduct the affairs of this Colony.

We are truly sensible of the Importance of the Matter your Honour has been pleased to recommend to us: The Destruction of Fort Loudoun in the Cherokee Nation, and of the Garrison therein, and the Danger that threatens our Frontier-Settlements, on such an Event, Humanity, Honour, and our Interests, equally oblige us to prevent; you may, therefore, be assured we shall use every Effort which the Circumstances of this unhappy Case will admit of, reposing an entire Confidence in you, that our Endeavours will be directed by your Prudence, in such a Manner as is most likely to obtain the wished-for Success.

Gentlemen

Gentlemen of the Council, M<sup>r</sup> Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

I Have most earnestly wished that the Messenger which I sent to Governour Dobbs would have returned in Time, for me to have acquainted you with the Proceedings of the 19 Assembly of North-Carolina in relation to the Relief of Fort Loudoun; but as you have already dispatched the Business you met upon, and have so liberally and nobly undertaken the Defence of the Distressed, I will not longer detain you from your Families and private Affairs, I cannot dismiss you, without expressing my Approbation of the generous Motives which have induced you to exert your-selves on this melancholy Occasion; and of assuring you that I will, with all imaginable Assiduity, endeavour to give Success to your Efforts; but the Time is short, and the Task is arduous: Two Extremes lye before me; the uselessly expending the Money raised, which may be deemed Inactivity; and the sacrificing the Lives of Men, which may be called Rashness: These shall not deter me from attempting my utmost; and while I act with Integrity of Heart, which is in my Power, I rely on your Candour to excuse all Defects of the Head, which are not in my Power, should my Endeavours prove unsuccessful.

I now prorogue you, and you are accordingly prorogued, to the first Tuesday in August next.

October Session

JOURNAL

of the

HOUSE OF BURGESSES

Monday, the 6th of October, 34 Geo. II. 1760.

A Message from the Governour was delivered by Mr Walthoe.
Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

The Governour commands the immediate Attendance of your House in the Council Chamber.

Accordingly Mr Speaker, with the House, went up to attend the Governour in the Council Chamber; and that the Governour was pleased to make a Speech to the Council and this House, of which he had (to prevent Mistakes) obtained a Copy, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

I Have called you together at this Time, that you might take into your Consideration the present State of the Forces now in the Pay of this Colony, and to inform you that the Money raised for the support of the old Part of the Regiment, will not be sufficient to pay the Men for the Time they stand provided for by Law; And I have farther to inform you, that Brigadier-General Monckton, has by a Letter (which I shall lay before you) desired to be assisted with 300 of our Men to help to garrison and maintain the Posts which we have in the course of this successful War taken from the French.

It is with the greatest Satisfaction possible, I can congratulate you on the Arrival of that long wished for Period of Time, when our Forces in those Parts find no other Employment; for by the Conduct and Vigour of our Governour Major-General Amherst, the War is gloriously brought to a happy End, by the Reduction of all Canada, to an entire Submission and Obedience to his Majesty.

I shall leave it with you to consider, whether, after the Bounties we have actually received from the British Parliament, you will, for the Sake of the Pay of a few Men, for a few Months, retire from the Service at the last.

It is with great Concern I must acquaint you, that your Expectations are by no Means answered, nor the End proposed effected, by the large Sum of Money you so generously and nobly gave to raise Men, and purchase Provisions for the Relief of the unhappy Garrison of Fort Loudoun: Unhappy indeed! for the Garrison capitulated but they capitulated with Savages; the Capitulation was immediately most perfidiously broke, and those miserable Men who escaped the Sword, are at this Instant Prisoners in the Hands of our merciless Enemies. Several unforeseen Difficulties and Obstacles delayed the March of our Men, and here the Hand of Providence seems remarkably to have protected us; for it was impossible or our little Army to have reached the Fort before the Capitulation was signed; And, had no Delays obstructed their March, they would have been in the Heart of the Enemies Country, before we had heard of Col. Montgomery's Retreat from the Lower Towns, by which the whole Force of the Cherokee Nation might, and probably would have been, employed to intercept our Convoy; the Consequence of which is obvious to us all. A late Letter from the

the Hon. Col. Byrd, will fully inform you of the State of Affairs now transacting between himself and those Indians.

Mr Abercrombie writes me, that on his Bond given to the Treasury Board for the Payment of the Money according to the Directions of the Colony, he has received at the Exchequer the Sum of £32,268. 19. 0 out of the £50,000 granted by Parliament, for the Use of the Southern Colonies, and the farther Sum of £20,546 out of the £200,000 granted for the Use of the Colonies in general for the Services by them respectively performed in the Year 1758, and that he waits for proper Powers and Orders how to dispose of this Money agreeable to the Conditions of the Bond he entered into: All which Letters and Papers I shall immediately lay before you.

It is my Duty to inform you, that I have received an Order from his Majesty in Council dated August 10th, 1759, to repeal the four following Acts, viz.

An Act for paying the Ministers of the Parishes of Frederick, in the County of Frederick; and of Augusta, in the County of Augusta; and of Hampshire, in the County of Hampshire; One Hundred Pounds annually, instead of the Salaries now allowed.—Passed in 1753.

An Act for enabling the Inhabitants of the Counties of Princess Anne and Norfolk to pay their publick Dues in Money.—Passed in 1755.

An Act to enable the Inhabitants of this Colony, to discharge their Tobacco Debts in Money for this present Year.—Passed in 1755.

An Act to enable the Inhabitants of this Colony to discharge their publick Dues, Officers Fees, and other Tobacco Debts, in Money for the present Year.—Passed in 1758.

And that I have also received two other Orders of his Majesty in Council, dated 20th of May, 1760, to repeal the three following private Acts, viz.

An Act for vesting certain Lands therein mentioned in Philip Johnson, Gentleman, adding the same to the City of Williamsburg, and for other Purposes therein mentioned.—Passed in October, 1758.

An Act for vesting certain Lands, in the County of Hanover, in Philip Whitehead Claiborne, Gentleman, in Fee Simple, and for other Purposes therein mentioned.—Passed in April, 1759.

An Act to enable the Executors of the Will of John Spotswood, Esq; to pay the Debts and Legacies due from the Estate of Major-General Alexander Spotswood, and for other Purposes therein mentioned.—Passed April, 1759. For reasons apparent in the Order leading to the said Order of Repeal. And I have his Majesty's directions to notify to you, that out of his great and wonted Goodness, he allows the Legislature to re-enact the same Laws, provided they are conformable to the Rules laid down in his Royal Instructions. The Disallowance and Repeal of all these Acts, I have published by Proclamation in the Gazette, according to the usual Forms of Government.—I am also directed to recommend to you an Amendment and Alteration in the Act for appointing an Agent, and I am farther to inform you, that the Act is in general thought just and reasonable, but that it cannot be allowed until the said Alteration be made in it.

I have likewise had the Honour to receive from his Majesty an additional Instruction, to enforce a former Instruction relative to my passing the Bills offered for my Assent. I need not represent to you, that it is my indispensable Duty, as well as my Inclination, to pay an implicit Obedience to all Instructions which his Majesty has or shall favour me with in regard to my Conduct in the Affairs of Government; And as I find I have inadvertently fallen into some Errours, in giving my Assent to these private Acts, which are not according to the Forms prescribed, I think it the Part of a candid honest Man, to apprise you, that I shall strictly adhere to all his Majesty's Royal Instructions. Therefore, as it will be a very unpleasing and grating Talk to me to refuse any Bill, which you shall think expedient for the Benefit and Service of this Colony (the Welfare of which I have greatly at Heart) or for the Advantage and Ease of Individuals (who justly merit my Esteem and Regard) I recommend it to you in the most earnest Manner, thall all Bills offered me for my Assent may be in every Instance conformable to the Rules prescribed in the Royal Instructions and Orders; the Contents of which I shall, at all Times, be ready to communicate to you, on proper Application.

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes.

The little I have asked of you, I hope will be chearfully given; and I am confident that you will take the easiest Method for the Subject, in raising that little. Possibly I shall have no Occasion to ask more from you for the Remainder of my Life, or my Residence with you: With Satisfaction shall I then meet you to prepare such Laws as shall be judged necessary to promote the Interest of this Colony, and to adjust the common Occurences incident to every Community.

6 Gentlemen of the Council, and of the House of Burgeffes,

If I knew at what Season of the Year it would be most convenient for you to attend to the Bufiness of the Country, which must naturally occasion a long Session, I would convene you at that Time; but as I am ignorant of your Avocations, I shall leave it entirely to your own Determination, whether you will now enter into that Bufiness, or defer it until the Spring. I think proper to premise thus much, that if you should judge it advisable to engage in it, during this Session, I shall think it expedient to adjourn you for some Time, during the Hurry of Bufiness in the General Court; that the Suitors for Justices in that Court may not receive any Impediment or Delay in their obtaining it, from the Absence of their Counsel; or the Country suffer from the Non-Attendance of some of the most useful Members of the Legislature.

Mr Speaker also reported, that the Governor had delivered to him, several Letters, from General Monckton and Mr Abercrombie; mentioned in his Speech, which he had desired him to lay before the House.

And the said Letters were read, and ordered to lie on the Table.

Resolved, That an humble Address be presented to his Honour the Governour, to return him the Thanks of this House for his affectionate Speech at the Opening of this Session; to congratulate him upon the signal Success that has attended his Majesty's Arms, under the Command of his Excellency General Amherst; to assure him that we shall take the Matters, referred to us by his Honour, under our immediate Consideration; and that we view the near Approach of Peace with double Pleasure, as it opens a Prospect of Relief from the Distresses of a long and burthenfome War; and we have the greatest Reason to expect a full Enjoyment of its Blessings, under his wise and benevolent Administration.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to draw up an Address to the Governour, pursuant to the said Resolution; and it is referred to Mr Attorney and Mr Bland to prepare and bring in the same.

A Member returned upon a new Writ, having taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Act of Parliament, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and taken and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, and also subscribed the Test, was admitted to his Place in the House.

7 Resolved, That the House will take the Governour's Speech into Consideration To-morrow.

Ordered, That the Rev. Mr William Yates be continued Chaplain to this House, and that he attend to read Prayers every Morning at Ten o'Clock.

Ordered, That the several Door Keepers be continued in their respective Offices, and that they give their Attendance accordingly.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning Eleven o'Clock.

The Governour commands the immediate Attendance of this House in the Council Chamber, and that you bring with you such other Bills and Resolves as are ready for his Assent.

Mr Speaker, with the House, went up accordingly; and being returned, reported, that he with the House attended the Governour in the Council Chamber, and that the Governour was pleased to give his Assent to the following Bills,* viz.

An Act for appointing Persons to receive the Money granted, or to be granted, by the Parliament of Great Britain to his Majesty for the Use of this Colony.

An Act to explain and amend the Act, entitled, An Act for appointing an Agent.

And that his Honour likewise gave his Assent to the following Resolves, viz.

A Resolve For paying the Officers Salaries.

Also to the Resolve for allowing William Hunter, Printer, a Salary of £350 per Annum.

And that his Honour then made a Speech to the Council and this House, of which he had, to prevent Mistakes, obtained a Copy, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses.

As you have gone through all the Business I recommended to you, and which you entered upon, I shall not longer detain you from your Families; but, before I dismiss you, I am of Opinion it will be a Satisfaction to you to be yourselves informed, and to be able to inform your Neighbors, that I have already taken every Step in my Power to give a full and speedy Operation to the Act passed this Session for the Protection of our Frontiers, by having informed the Honourable Brigadier-General Monckton of the Terms of the Act, by having recalled Lieutenant-Colonel Stephens from under his Command, and given him Orders to march his Corps immediately to join the Honourable Colonel Byrd to the Southward; by having given Mr Byrd Directions to complete his Regiment; and sent up Money for that Purpose; and by having contracted for victualling and clothing the Men: And I recommend it to you, Gentlemen, to give all the Assistance in your Power, in your respective Counties, to expedite these Measures, so salutary, and necessary to the Colony; that our Force may be united, and properly provided for, as soon as possible.

As a recess at this Time is certainly convenient, and agreeable; and as the Expiration of an Act, entitled, An Act to amend the Staple of Tobacco, and to prevent Frauds in his Majesty's Customs, will take Place at the End of this Session of Assembly; I have thought fit, with the Advice of the Council, to order both Houses, and they are hereby ordered, severally to adjourn themselves to Thursday the 11th of December next, at which Time I require all their Members to re-assemble at this Place.

Ordered, That the House be adjourned to the 11th Day of December next.

Thursday, the 11th of December. 1 Geo. III. 1760.

THE House being met according to Adjournment, a Message from the Governour was delivered to them by Mr Walthoe.

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeses,

The Governour commands the immediate Attendance of this House in the Council Chamber.

Accordingly Mr Speaker, with the House, went up; and being returned, reported that he, with the House, had attended the Governour in the Council Chamber, when his Honour was pleased to say, that having no particular Business to communicate to them at this Time, he had ordered both Houses to adjourn themselves to Thursday the 5th of March next, and thereupon Ordered, That the House be adjourned to the said 5th Day of March next.

Thursday, the 5th of March. 1 Geo. III. 1761.

SEVERAL Members being met according to Adjournment, having taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Act of Parliament, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and taken and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, and also repeated and subscribed the Test, took their Seats in the House.

A Member returned on a new Writ, having taken the Oaths and subscribed the Test above mentioned, was admitted to his Place in the House.

A Message from the Governour was delivered by Mr Walthoe.

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeses,

The Governour commands the immediate Attendance of your House in the Council Chamber.

Mr Speaker, with the House, went up accordingly; and being returned reported that he, with the House, had attended the Governour in the Council Chamber, where his Honour

Honour was pleased to make a Speech to the Council and this House, of which he had to prevent Mistakes, obtained a Copy; which he read to the House, and then delivered in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

I should have omitted the calling you up on this your meeting according to your Adjournment, were it not incumbent on me to notify to you, now met in General Assembly, the great Loss we have sustained by the Decease of our late Sovereign, of happy and glorious Memory: a King who, by his private as well as royal Virtues, had rendered himself justly dear to all his Subjects. Deplorable indeed would our Loss have been, had we not the greatest Reason to form the most sanguine Expectations of enjoying the Blessing of Freedom, in the same full Latitude we experienced under the Grandfather, in the Person of his Successor, his present Majesty; a Prince descended from that royal Family who have used the Prerogative of their Crowns with the utmost Tendernefs and under whose Government the Liberty of the Subject has not suffered the least Attack, during a Term of six and forty Years, since their first Accession to the Crown; a Period of Happiness to Great Britain, and its Appendages, which the British Annals cannot parallel; a Prince born among us, who has himself been a Witness of the Blessings flowing to Sovereign and Subject from a due Mixture of Liberty and Obedience; a Prince who, from his Education, has imbibed the Strongest Notions of Virtue and true Religion; to countenance and encourage which, he has from the Throne assured us, is his fixed Purpose. On this Authority, I can promise you a continuation of that Justice and Lenity which you have felt under the Government and Authority of his royal Progenitors. The only Instance of Gratitude you can show for the Blessings you have so long enjoyed under our deceased Monarch, will be your Zeal in the Service of the present; and this Consideration, with a grateful People, will, I make no Doubt, render it needless for me to recommend it further.

I was in Hopes that the Time was come, that you might have been eased in the great Article of Expence necessary to keep on Foot the same Body of Men you have lately had in Pay; but when you shall consider the Letters I shall lay before you from Major-General Amherst, who in his Majesty's Name requires to be assisted with some Men from this Colony; from Governour Bull and Colonel Byrd, who represent our Situation with the Cherokee Indians as very critical; I apprehend that you will be of Opinion with me, that it will not be prudent to lay down our Arms until a solid Peace is made with those Indians.

The likeliest Means to procure a full Security for our Frontiers, is to treat Sword in Hand.

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeffes,

It is my Duty, both as Servant to his Majesty, whose Commission I bear, and as Guardian of your Peace and Safety, to represent and recommend these Services to you; for which I hope you will provide in such Manner, as to render them effectual to answer the End proposed and desired. Happy it is for us that, by the Bounty of the British Legislature, no new Tax need be laid, or old one continued, on the Inhabitants of this Colony, to answer these Purposes.

Gentlemen of the Council and of the House of Burgeffes,

Having nothing further, on my part, to refer to your Consideration, I shall only recommend to you the greatest Dispatch, in finishing the Business of this Session, which the Circumstances of the Country demand; that the whole may be completed before the Sitting of the General Court in April.

Resolved, That an humble Address be presented to his Honour the Governour, to return him our Thanks for his kind Speech; to express how deeply we are afflicted with the Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, and our great Happiness on the Accession of his present Majesty to the throne of Great Britain, and to assure him that we will proceed on the Business now recommended, and depending before us, with all possible Unanimity and Dispatch.

Ordered,

Ordered, That an Address be drawn up pursuant to the said Resolution, and it is referred to Mr Attorney and Mr Pendleton to prepare and bring in the same.

Resolved, That this House will take the Governour's Speech into Consideration on Monday next.

And then the House adjourned until To-morrow Morning Eleven o'Clock.

Friday. the 6th of March. 1 Geo. III. 1761.

MR. Attorney reported that the Committee appointed had, according to Order, prepared an Address to the Governour, which he read in his Place, and then delivered in at the Table, where it was again twice read, and agreed to by the House, and is as follows:

Sir,

We his Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgeffes of Virginia, return your Honour our sincere Thanks for your kind Speech.

The Death of his late Majesty, our most gracious Sovereign, must necessarily leave deep Impressions of Sorrow on the Minds of all his Subjects, when they reflect how conspicuously his Diadem was adorned with royal as well as private Virtues.

It is with Gratitude we acknowledge that Power, the Scourge of Nations, when under the Influence of Ambition, has never, during his long and happy Reign, been suffered to pass those Boundaries, established for the Defence of Liberty, by our excellent Constitution; and it was with Pleasure we saw that his Magnanimity and Humanity, his Justice and Lenity, had rivited to him the Affections of his People, the never failing Source of Happiness to deserving Kings. His Colonies feel their Loss with exaggerated Affliction, as by it they are deprived of that Arm which so carefully protected them from the Desolation prepared for them by Cruelty and Despotism.

But we cannot longer indulge ourselves in the Contemplation of this Misfortune, lest we should show a Diffidence of that Prince who now so deservedly fills the Throne of our deceased deceased Sovereign: We are extremely happy, Sir, that a Descendant from that illustrious Family, whose Conduct and Disposition we have so much Reason to applaud, should preside over us; and we have the highest Expectations from every other Consideration, that, after the Example of his great Progenitors, his paternal Care will constantly protect the Liberties of his People; and that, in Return, they will endeavour to promote his Happiness and Glory. We do give his Majesty the most sacred Assurances that this shall be the constant Aim of his Subjects in Virginia; on whose Zeal, Affection and Loyalty, he may always rely with the greatest Security.

Your Honour may depend that all possible Dispatch shall be given the Business recommended, and depending before us, so as to bring the Session to a speedy Conclusion.

Ordered, That the said Address be fairly transcribed, and presented by the whole House.

Ordered, That the Committee which prepared the same wait on the Governour, to know his Pleasure when the House shall attend his Honour to present it.

A Message from the Council by Mr Walthoe.

That they have prepared an Address to his Majesty, in which his Honour the Governour had joined them, and that they had sent it down to desire this House would join them therein, and had left a Blank for that Purpose; and the said Address was twice read, and agreed to by the House.

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That this House will join with the Governour and Council in the said Address, and that the Blank left for that Purpose be filled up accordingly.

Ordered, That Mr Bland go up with the Message to the Council, and acquaint them therewith.

Several Claims of John Lackey and Richard Sykes for taking up Runaways therein mentioned were presented to the House and received, and referred to the Consideration of the Committee of Claims.

And then the House adjourned until Monday Morning Eleven o'Clock.

Monday. the 9th of March. 1 Geo. III. 1761.

MR Attorney reported that the Committee appointed had, according to Order, waited on his Honour the Governour, to know his Pleasure when this House should attend him with their Address; and that he was pleased to appoint this Day, and to say that he would signify by a Message to the House when he was ready to receive it.

A Message from the Governour by Mr Walthoe,

That his Honour is now ready in the Council Chamber to receive the Address of this House.

Mr Speaker, with the House, went up accordingly; and being returned, reported that he, with the House, had attended the Governour in the Council Chamber, and presented the Address of this House to him, to which he was pleased to Return the following Answer.

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgeesses,

I Return you my sincere and hearty Thanks for this Affectionate, loyal and dutiful, Address.

Your just Sense of Gratitude for your former Happiness, and your well grounded Expectations of your future, together with your Assurances of Zeal Affection and Loyalty, to his Majesty

Majesty, give me the greatest Cause of Satisfaction, and must necessarily meet with the Approbation of his Majesty, and all his faithful Subjects, in every Part of his Dominions.

A Petition of Hannah Corbin, Widow, and Richard Henry Lee, Gentleman, only acting Executors of the Will of Gavin Corbin, Gentleman, deceased, was presented to the House and read, setting forth, That the said Gavin Corbin died seized in Fee of several Tracts of Lands in Westmoreland, King George, Fauquier and Lancaster, all settled with Slaves; and also two undivided third Parts of a Tract in Caroline, unsettled; and by his will devised his whole Estate to his Wife and Daughter Martha, with Remainders, in Case of his Daughter's Death without Issue, to the youngest Sons of the Hon. Richard Corbin, Esquire; and the two youngest Sons of Robert Tucker, Gentleman; and directed that, if his Crops should not be sufficient to pay his Debts, his Lands in Caroline, should be sold for that purpose; That the Petitioners having applied the said Crops to the Payment of the Debts, there still remains a Balance of £1210.9. 2 Sterling and £696. 19 Currency due from the Estate, which the Creditors are pressing to receive: That by Reason of many Disputes depending about the Bounds of the Lands in Caroline, and the Want of a Partition thereof between the Representatives of the said Gavin Corbin and the Heir of John Corbin, Gentleman, deceased, who is also an Infant, the said Lands could not now be sold for near their Value; and yet, being fresh, might be worked to greater Profit for the Estate than the Lands in Lancaster, which are mostly exhausted; but, from their Situation and Circumstances, might be sold immediately for more than their real Value: That if the Petitioners were allowed to save the Caroline Lands for the Heir, and sell Lands in Lancaster and some Slaves for Payment of the Debts, it would be a great Advantage to the Heir, and prevent* expensive Law Suits and other Difficulties; and praying that an Act may pass for that Purpose.

Ordered, That a Bill or Bills be brought in pursuant to the Prayer of the said Petition, and it is referred to Mr Pendleton to prepare and bring in the same.

Ordered, That a Committee of Privileges and Elections be appointed of the following Persons, viz.

Mr Page,
Mr Dudley Digges,
Mr Nicholas,
Mr Wythe,
Mr Richard Henry Lee,
Mr Pendleton,
Mr Presly Thornton.

27 And they are to meet and adjourn from Day to Day, and to examine in the first Place all Returns of Writs for electing Burgesses to serve in this present General Assembly, and to compare the same with the Form prescribed by Law, and to take into their Consideration all such Matters as shall or may come in Question touching Returns, Elections and Privileges; and to report their Proceedings, with their Opinions thereon, from Time to Time, to the House; and the said Committee are to have power to send for Persons, Papers and Records, for their Information.

That it appears to this Committee that the Petition of fundry Inhabitants of the County of Hanover, setting forth that the great Extent of that County, and the inconvenient Situation of the Court House, render it very incommodious for the Petitioners to attend their Business there; and praying that the said County may be divided, was presented to the House and read, and referred to the Consideration of the next Session of Assembly.

That a Petition of fundry Merchants, Planters, and others, residing on and trading to York River, setting forth that the Warehouses at Page's and Crutchfield's, in the County of Hanover, for the Inspection of Tobacco, are very inconveniently situated; and that the Petitioners are under great Difficulties, Trouble and Expence, in sending their Tobacco from thence to be shipped for Exportation, occasioned by Sands in the River Pamunkey, on which the said Warehouses are established, and the difficult Navigation thereof, by which Means Ships are frequently delayed and prevented from proceeding on their Voyages to Great Britain, for Want of the Tobacco they must wait for from those Warehouses; and praying that the said Warehouses may be suppressed, and new ones erected in their Stead at the Town of Newcastle in the said County.

Also a Petition of fundry Inhabitants of the said County of Hanover, in Opposition thereto; were severally presented to the House and read, and referred to the Committee of Propositions and Grievances to examine into the Matters thereof, and report the same, with their Opinions thereon to the House: That on a Motion made, the said Committee was discharged from proceeding on the said Petitions, and the Consideration of the same was put off until the next Session of Assembly.

That a Petition of Abraham Maury, setting forth that in the Month of November 1758 he entered into a Contract with his Honour the Governour, in which he bound himself, under a Penalty, to furnish as well the Militia as such Rangers as should be employed in his Majesty's Service, in the Counties of Bedford and Halifax, until the 1st Day of May 1759, which contract be punctually complied with; that on the Reduction of Fort De Quésne the Militia were recalled, and before the Detachment from the Ranging Companies took Possession of the Forts they had occupied, great Part of the Provision the Petitioner had laid in for their Use was stolen and otherwise destroyed, those Detachments not coming until long after the Militia had abandoned their Posts, and left those Provisions to the Mercy of the Neighborhood; that the Petitioner's Agents might have disposed of the Provisions left on Hand for his Account, but that the Petitioner had contracted to provide for the Rangers also in those Counties, and retained the Provisions for their Use; and praying the Consideration of the House on the Premises, and that he may be allowed for the Loss he has sustained in such Manner as shall be thought just, was presented to the House and read, and referred to a Committee to examine into the Allegations thereof, and report the same, with their Opinion thereon, to the House; that the said Committee reported they had had the said Petition under their Consideration, and had come to a Resolution (which was agreed to by the House) that the said Petition ought to be referred to the Consideration of the next Session of Assembly.

That

That a Petition of Thomas Roy, praying to be reimbursed by the Publick for the Expences he has been at in building a Wharf for the Publick Use at Roy's Warehouse, in Caroline County; alledging that the Rents of the said Warehouses (of which he is Proprietor) are not sufficient for that Purpose, was presented to the House and read, and referred to the Consideration of the next Session of Assembly.

That a Memorial of the Officers of the Virginia Regiment, setting forth that they had cheerfully entered into the Service of this Colony at a Juncture when an Aversion to a Military Life was general and conspicuous, and when the unjustifiable Encroachments of the French threatened our Lives and Properties with great Danger, since which Period they had made the Study of their Profession the Object of their closest Attention, and dropped all Thoughts of their former Employments, to which they cannot return but with the utmost Reluctance, and under such Infinity of Disadvantages as will totally incapacitate them from pursuing the same with any Probability of Success; that such of them as had any Fortunes had expended them, and those who had none are greatly involved, by procuring the Necessaries, and a very few of the Conveniences, of Life; of both which they were often destitute, and which, in the Country (or rather Wilderness) they generally served in, could never be got but at an exorbitant Rate: That they have for a Number of Years been on constant severe Duty, encountered the rudest Toils, and most imminent Dangers; been Strangers to Winter Quarters and other Relaxations from the Duty of the Field, which other Troops enjoyed, and all have a Right to: That they have spent their youthful Days, impaired their Health, hurt their Constitutions, and in fine been deprived of those Resources that would have enabled them to have gained a Livelihood: That by close Application, and a steady Perseverance in the punctual Execution of their Duty, such good Order, Regularity and strict Discipline (which can alone constitute good Troops) have long been maintained in the Regiment, so as to have attracted the particular Notice and Approbation of the best Judges; acquired a Superiority over all other Provincial Troops, and rendered it universally admired by all with whom it did Duty: This Assertion is clearly evinced by the general Behaviour of its Officers in the many Actions it has been engaged in, and the signal Bravery of several, whose gallant conduct and glorious Deaths redound so much to the Honour of this Colony: That the publick Spirits which have so long exhibited our Military Affairs in a distinguished Light from those of the Neighbouring Provinces, and the ready Attention of this House to redress the Grievances of the Memorialists, give them Room to hope that, still actuated by the same noble Motives, this House

32 will form some Establishment for their future Support; that the Blessings of Peace, which they have been instrumental in procuring to many of their Fellow Subjects, they may in some Measure participate of themselves: Or, in Case the unprecedented Perfidy of the Cherokees should protract the War, in that Event such a Provision would create the strongest Incitement in generous Minds (viz. Gratitude) to the utmost Exertion of their Abilities, in the Execution of such ulterior Operations as may be judged most efficacious for reestablishing the Tranquility, and supporting the Honour, Interest and Security, of this Colony; and praying that the House will take the Affair into Consideration, was presented to the House and read, and referred to the Consideration of the next Session of Assembly.

That a Petition of James Barbour, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Mr Henry Pendleton to serve as a Burgess in this present General Assembly, for the County of Culpeper, was presented to the House and read, and referred to the Consideration of the next Session of Assembly.

That a Petition of Clement Norman, praying to be reimbursed the Sum of Five Pounds, paid by him to Doctor Parker for attending his Son, who was shot, and died in the Service of the Publick.

Also a Petition of William Peachey, late Colonel of the Frontier Battalion in Behalf of himself and the Officers lately under his Command, and praying that they may be repaid by the Publick for the additional Expences they were at, more than allowed by Law,

Law, in raising Recruits for the said Battalion, and marching them through the Country to their Place of Rendezvous.

Also a Petition of Christopher Hudson, setting forth that he was Captain of a Company of Militia on the Frontiers of this Colony, which he was under the Necessity of leaving to come to Williamsburg for Instructions, in which and other publick Services he was detained from his Command a Month, for which Reason the Commissioners appointed to settle the Militia Accounts refused to allow him his Pay for that Month; and praying the Consideration of the House therein.

Also a Petition of sundry Inhabitants of the Parish of Hamilton, in the County of Prince William, praying that that Part of the said Parish, lying below the dividing Line of Prince William and Fauquier Counties, may be added to the Parish of Dettingen, in order to render their Attendance on divine Service more easy and convenient.

Also a Petition of sundry Inhabitants of the Parish of Cameron, setting forth that the late Election of Vestrymen for the said Parish was illegal, and praying that the same may be dissolved.

Also a Petition of sundry Inhabitants of Rockfish River, in the County of Albemarle, setting forth that the Advantages and Benefits they lately enjoyed in supplying their Families with Fish, which used to go up the River in great Abundance, they are now entirely deprived of, by a Mill built thereon by Allan Howard, which has stopped the Course of the Fish up the said River; and praying that the said Howard may be compelled to cut a Slope in his Mill Dam for the Passage of the Fish.

I am much obliged to your House for the Confidence they have placed in me with Regard to the Affairs now to be transacted with the Cherokees, which really appear to be of a very nice and delicate Nature; because I am to satisfy those People with such Presents as ought to be given on this Occasion, when perhaps they expect much larger, and to avoid treating of Peace, the Terms whereof cannot be offered or accepted on our Parts without bringing the Faith of Britons, so necessary to be preserved, under Suspicion; To redeem also the unhappy Captives that have fallen into their Hands on such Conditions as are Consistent with the Safety of his Majesty's other Subjects, and at the same Time to show them that we are ready for a Reconciliation when our Honour will permit it, without discovering any Tendency to Insult or Dejection. On these Considerations, it would be extremely agreeable to me if your House would allow me to employ one or two Commissioners to assist me, on whose Care and Prudence I might rely, to whom I might explain the Plan I have laid down for my Conduct, on whom I might depend for a strict Adherence to my Orders, and with whom I could from Time to Time correspond whilst the Matter is in Agitation.

It appears to your Committee that Mr Trent's Claim for £401. 2. 9½ Part of his Recovery, was for his Expense and Trouble in carrying out Presents of Goods for the Indians at two several Times by Order of the Governour and Council; that his Claim of £291. 5. 10 was for the Pay and Provisions of himself and a Company of Men under his Command, raised by Order of the said Lieutenant-Governour, before the first Virginia Regiment was established, and who afterwards were enlisted into the said Regiment; and that £107. 11. 4½, the Residue of his Recovery of £800, was allowed by the Jury for Interest on those Sums, of which Interest £45. 2. 2 accrued on the said Sum of £291. 5. 10.

96 The said Resolution being read a second Time, and the Question put that the House agree thereto,

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesfes.

I am arrived at a Day the most disagreeable to me of any one since I have been intrusted by his Majesty with the Administration of your Affairs; As you have shown yourselves on all Occasions dutiful Subjects, by your Loyalty and Attachment to your Sovereign and his Government, I consider you as my Friends; as Friends, grieve to part with you. I should not justly acquit myself of the Duty I owe to his Majesty, were I to omit thanking you, before I dismiss you, for the Readiness and Alacrity with which you have engaged in the Measures recommended to you to assist his Majesty's Arms, in the Recovery of that Country which the French had usurped; and on my own Part I can with Truth assure you, that the many Marks of Affection and Respect you have shown me, the Confidence you have placed in me, and the strong Proofs you have given me of your Approbation of my Conduct, has made an Impression on my Mind which nothing can efface, as long as it shall please the Almighty to continue to me the Blessings of Life and Memory.

The Constitution of the Council is such as secures to me the meeting you, Gentlemen, who compose it, in the same Capacity the ensuing Assembly: This gives me the greatest Satisfaction, as I have so often experienced your Ability and Zeal to serve his Majesty, and your Integrity and Candour in conducting every Measure to promote his Interest, and the general Good of this Colony. But,

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesfes,

My Assurances of meeting you again as Particulars are not so certain as I could wish they were, for I can never expect, or even desire, to meet an Assembly composed of Gentlemen more acceptable to myself; who have happily found the Means of joining your Duty to his Majesty to your Care for the Interest of the Colony, which can never be separated but to the Disadvantage of both. In this Light, I hope your Constituents will see your Conduct; approve the whole Tenour of it; and show their Approbation by the Choice which the Circumstances of the Times will give them an Opportunity to make.

Gentlemen of the Council and of the House of Burgesfes,

All that remains for me to do is to put an End to this Assembly, which I do with great Unwillingness; but it is requisite you should be now dissolved, and you are dissolved accordingly.

APPENDIX.

Appendix.

DRAPER MSS. 4 ZZ 51.

[A. L. S.]

SIR,

I have yours of May 26th and have by Col<sup>o</sup> Washington sent you up £475—which with the £600 by Jenkins makes £1075. The Baggage, Forage and Bat money intended for your Officers by the Council amounts to £1007-10-0 according to S<sup>r</sup> John St Clair's Estimate of £806, with 25 p<sup>r</sup> C<sup>t</sup> added; but M<sup>r</sup> Webb's in drawing the order on the Treasury by mistake took £860 for S<sup>r</sup> Johns Acco<sup>t</sup> and put 25 p<sup>r</sup> C<sup>t</sup> on that, for Col<sup>o</sup> Washington and Col<sup>o</sup> Byrds Regiments which is £67-10 each too much and to be accounted for; Col Washington nows of the mistake.

I have sent you a Chest of Medicines from M<sup>r</sup> Pasteurs Shop, with Instruments; but cannot yet hear of a Surgeon for you which gives me much concern. You will soon have Tents, Kettles and Canteens from Gen<sup>l</sup> Forbes; but I am desired to provide Haversacks, which if not sent up with Blankets and other things expected here in a few days, must be got at Winchester, as the pay will be sure when settled.

I send Col<sup>o</sup> Byrds the Commissions back again to be filled up and dated, to give precedence according to a regulation made in Council, of which I send a list. By it you will find Captain Cocke and Captain Lightfoot set aside; the last as having but 43 Men exclusive of Armisteads, and all very bad; and as there was a necessity to lay one aside, the Council tho<sup>t</sup> Capt<sup>n</sup> Meredeth with his 55 Men all very good and on the Day to deserve a preference. Capt<sup>n</sup> Cocke tho' a good Officer was considered as having only 26 Men himself, whereas Capt<sup>n</sup> Scott's had raised 54 extream good and in a short time, but which we must loose by Contract, if he were not a Captain, as they were attached to him. But to make all the acknowledgement we could to Cap<sup>t</sup> Cocke's merit the Council named him first Lieut<sup>t</sup> & M<sup>r</sup> Lightfoot 2nd, but if they refuse to accept, then Capt<sup>n</sup> Munford will be first and so on; by which the first Ensigns will be Lieu<sup>ts</sup> and Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd will fill up the rest as he thinks proper. I am sorry to find M<sup>r</sup> Gunn so low in the list, but as I did not observe it at the Time, I hope he will still serve his Country as signally for this Campaign; and not desert us on a Punctilio which a good Patriot would overlook. M<sup>r</sup> Temple's performance was not duly considered in the hurry but I hope he will make a good Officer and so reconcile things.

As to the extravagant Charges in recruiting by some Officers, it produced perhaps, what will be tho<sup>t</sup> by some too severe a correction; but the Council are justified in it, by the Practice at raising the First Regiment; their Pay as Officers, from the date of their recruiting

<sup>2</sup> Sir John St. Clair was a lieutenant-colonel in the British army. He came to America in 1755, was quartermaster-general under Braddock, and was wounded in Braddock's Defeat. He served as quartermaster-general under Forbes in 1758.

<sup>5</sup> William Byrd III, son of the celebrated William Byrd, of Westover. The Virginia troops in 1758 were increased to two regiments, one commanded by George Washington and the other by William Byrd. Washington still held his rank of commander-in-chief of the Virginia troops. William Byrd was also a member of the Council and continued as such until the Revolution. He sympathized with England in the Revolution and committed suicide in 1777.

recruiting Warrants, was all that was then allowed for Charges of enlisting, and only Subsistence to the Men followed. On this footing the settling becomes easy; but it leaves equal Service to receive only 4s. a day to one, while to another is Paid 10s.

I have given Capt<sup>n</sup> Posey £300 to enlist 30 Men more, and Col<sup>o</sup> Washington had £1000 to enlist Men. But if you have not enough to pay the Expences the Pay master must make it up out of what I send him for there is no more in the Treasury, at present.

I am glad you put me in mind of Mr French Mason and must by you desire Col<sup>o</sup> Byrd to do for him, and if he can to a Lientenancy. Mr Walker & Mr Eppes are well recomended for Ensigns. Also Mr Lovell and young Mr Lightfoot Brother to John, may help you to Ensigns, as perhaps due to them or what I encouraged them to expect. Mess<sup>rs</sup> Cary & Debnam are in the Councils list of Lieut<sup>ts</sup> as are some others, tho not strictly entitled, as there were none to dispute it with them. I have sent back the Commissions without erasing any Names or Dates here, as I know not who will accept or refuse; but both Names and dates must be altered above. When that is known, to suit with the Regulation made in Council. And I leave it to the Col<sup>o</sup> to suit the Officers to their Companys as may suit best, and to fill all other vacant Commissions in the best manner as he shall judge.

As to the little old Accounts for the Indians you are Demurr'd about for signing; I should be glad to have them paid, many such are sent down and paid here, but they are first examined by 3 Commissioners here and then I gave an Order on the Treasury for a long list of them to one Person a neighbour, that brought them down. Let them prove the Acco<sup>ts</sup> by such Vouchers or Oath, and send them by a Neighbour coming down.

I shall by Mr Boyd who stays the signing, send up all I can for paying the Regiment's after their march, as you Desire.

Cap<sup>t</sup> Meredeth had an Order and received £300 to be accounted for at the Treasury by the Commanding Officer which he must therefore charge himself with; but as it was to enable him to recruit, it must be discharged by his acco<sup>s</sup> for that service.

I am now come to your concluding paragraph and from my own pains and attention to so many particulars can the better conceive of your 20 hours fatigue upon a stretch which you have lengthened by a needless Apology, as I think myself obliged to you for being so particular. Be thus or more particular in your Acco<sup>t</sup> of the demolition of Fort Duquesne and bind me yours forever I am Sir Your very hum Serv<sup>t</sup>

I recd the favour of your Letter by Mr Mumford by whom I send this in answer thereto. I am extremely obliged to you for your Congratulations on the safe Arrival of myself and my Family in this Dominion of which his Majesty has been graciously pleased to appoint me his Lieutenant Governor.

The Contents of your Letter being of great Importance and requiring an immediate Answer, I summoned a Council to meet this morning by whose advice, after duly weighing every part, I give you our Determination w<sup>ch</sup> I hope will be satisfactory in every Particular.

In the first place it was agreed to submit the recruit<sup>s</sup> Acc<sup>ts</sup> of the Officers to yourself and the Field Officers of your Corps, and you are desired to examine and audit the same,

<sup>6</sup> John Blair was a nephew of James Blair, president of William and Mary College and the bishop of London's commissary in Virginia. He was a member of the Council and, as its president, became the acting governor of Virginia in the interval between the Dinwiddie and Fauquier administrations.

fame, and whatever shall be found reasonable by you will be allowed, of which you may assure the gentlemen, tho' the Money raised by the Assembly for paying acc<sup>ts</sup> of the 2<sup>d</sup> Regiment is so far exhausted that it cannot be immediately repaid them before the Assembly meets. This I hope will entirely remove all Cause of Uneasiness from the part of the officers, as I shall most earnestly recommend this point to the assembly on their meeting.

As for the private Men, they have this Day orderd the French prize Cloaths to be purchased of Col<sup>o</sup> Hunter, and to be immediately forwarded to the Army where it is hoped they may arrive in 7 or 8 Days. This Cloathing is sufficient but for 800 Men, therefore it is desired that you distribute them amongst those who are most in Need of them, stopping 2<sup>d</sup> a Day out of their pay as was practiced in the first Reg<sup>t</sup> and as it is imagined, that at least 200 of your Reg<sup>t</sup> have Cloaths sufficient for this Campaign, their pay will go on without any Stoppage. By this Step I hope the Defertion and all Complaints of the Men will be entirely stop'd. I ought to mention that there are but 200 Shirts made but there is Cloth and Thread to make up the rest, as well as Materials for the Leggings.

The officers Bonds will be sent up, to be deposited in your Hands, and to be delivered by you, when you shall find the Conditions have been complied wth

In Case of Capt<sup>n</sup> Posey's being broke, M. Cockes being appointed to succeed to that vacant Commission is approved of; and He may have the Commission accordingly. and in that Case, the Blank Commission herewith sent to you, may be fill'd up with the Names of either Mr Lightfoot or Mr Munford, as upon an Enquiry and Examination you shall find best intitled to it, by having first bro<sup>t</sup> in their Complement of Men to Winchester; the Rule originally laid down and most religiously observed in distributing those Commissions.

The calling Mr Cocke, Mr Lightfoot, and Mr Munford all Capt<sup>n</sup> Lieutenants arose from a Mistake in the Gentlemen who were not well versed in Military affairs, and supposed the Lieutenants of the three Companies belonging to the three Field Officers, had all a Title to be rank'd as Capt<sup>ns</sup> Lieutenants.

Thus Sir We hope we have settled all Matters to your and the Regiments Satisfaction. I am sure nothing shall ever be wanting on my part to give all reasonable Content to every Man engaged in his Majesty's Service to the utmost of my power.

I sincerely wish You all Success in the approaching Campaign, and to add to the Success hope to thank you all personally on your Return. I am, Y<sup>r</sup> Very Hum. Serv<sup>t</sup>

[Col. *Wm. So must trouble you with a Recital of it I was to acquaint you that the very day that was appointed for to march They refused going & laid it all to the Conjurors, I was so much astonished that I cou'd hardly believe what I heard, but beg'd that they would all come to the Fort & Sertify the Same under their hands the which They did I have inclof'd it to you I have got a Belt of Wampum which I shou'd Send up but will (as it may be lost) bring myself which I cant do till I have the honour of a Line from you, for I have no Money to pay the Expreß & have this morning apply'd to Capt. Gest that I might not detain the Expreß any longer, He has partly promist to furnish me with money & I have told him I wont leave the Town till I pay him I must beg of you to put it into my Power & shall remain here till then. I have sent the inclof'd Certificate hoping you will

<sup>1</sup> Captain Paul Demeré was the British commandant at Fort Loudoun. Provisions ran short in the fort and the Indians besieged it. Demeré surrendered on August 7, 1760, but the British were attacked, notwithstanding, and Demeré and 26 others killed.

<sup>2</sup> Atta-culla-culla, or the Little Carpenter, was one of the principal chiefs of the Cherokee nations. He was concerned in making treaties with North and South Carolina about the beginning of the French and Indian War. He received Andrew Lewis with kindness when he came in 1756 to build Fort Loudoun. Atta-culla-culla was in general friendly to the English, and when Fort Loudoun fell in 1760 he enabled Captain Stuart to escape.

I told him I shoud relate all that pass'd & so if you think proper to send I am ready to go if not I will Joyn you as fast as I can. I congratulate you very heartily upon your Rank & hope to God you will live to enjoy it. I have set down every thing in my Journal that happend from the time parted with you till now tis too long for a letter but I will let you have it when we meet. I hope it will appear by that, that my Want of Success was owing to no neglect of mine. I have had a very long & Tedious Journey & believe I have travelled 1000 Miles since We parted. I shall be happy if my Conduct meets with your Approbation which as I am Conscious of no Error I flatter myself it will. I beg my Compliments to Col. Mercer & the rest of the Gentlemen I have the honour to know that is with you. I recd your two Letters of the 21st July and 3<sup>d</sup> instant by Jenkins who arrived here on the 15th and am so far from thinking you troublesome for your frequent writing, that I am always desirous to hear from the Army; for I think the better I am informed of the posture of Affairs, the better able I shall be to be serviceable to this Colony w<sup>ch</sup> is the utmost of my Wishes. I am sorry to find by yours and Col<sup>o</sup> Washington's Letters, that we have so little Room to expect great Matters this Year. I have by Jenkins wrote to him my sentiments at large on this Head to w<sup>ch</sup> I beg Leave to refer you, and I desire you will join with him in representing the Case of the Virginia Regiments, and the Temper of the assembly who have with so remarkable Alacrity raised these Men, for the important Service of the Reduction of Fort du Quesne w<sup>ch</sup> they so much depended on being performed or at least attempted this year, that they enlisted the Men till December only, and God only knows whether they may be prevailed on to do as much the next Year. My Endeavors shall not be wanting to induce them to it. But perhaps all this is too late to ward off the Attempts to cut a new Road which if already determined upon, seems to determine the Fate of that Fort for this Year at least. I don't doubt but that Col<sup>o</sup> Washington and your self will do all in your power to set this in its true light to your Commanding Officers. All I can add to what I have already wrote to Col. Washington is that I write these Letters by advice of Council w<sup>ch</sup> I summoned to meet this morning to consider your Letters, and may be supposed to well know the state of this Country, of w<sup>ch</sup> I must be in great Measure ignorant.

It was the Opinion of the Council that we had it not in our power to comply with your Request in relation to a Brigade-Major; the Act of Assembly is so particular, as even to mention the number of Officers to command the Regiment, and we cannot add one for whose Subsistence there is no provision by the Act. But as the Assembly will sit certainly on the 14 of September, If such an Officer is absolutely necessary, I don't doubt but they will readily come into it, as they have so generously done in all Measures for the public Service.

I have

* George Mercer, lieutenant-colonel of Byrd's regiment. George Mercer was a captain in Joshua Fry's regiment in 1754. In the Braddock expedition he commanded an independent company. He became a captain in Washington's regiment, and was promoted to be lieutenant-colonel in Byrd's regiment.

* John Smith, captain of rangers, and later of a company in Wm. Byrd's Cherokee expedition of 1761.

I have seen or heard nothing of Humphries since I sent him up, but hope you will be able to provide your self with a Doctor (a Surgeon, I fear you will not much want) for I really can not find any Body to send up to assist your Men; your Account of whom is the only comfortable Part of your Letter. I desire to have an exact Acc<sup>t</sup> of all the Indians who have been with you, and of all who remain with you at this Day distinguishing their Nations, for I am very apt to believe, the Service they do us is very inadequate to the Expence they occasion.

I shall never think it a trouble to correspond with the Gentlemen who have Command in the Army, on the Contrary I desire to hear every Step on all Occasions particularly so now before the Assembly meets, and the more free you are in giving your Sentiments (as far as you can trust them with shall never transpire beyond the limits you shall prescribe to them) the greater pleasure you will give to S<sup>r</sup> Your sincere Hum. I have now the pleasure to inform you that the assembly with I summoned to meet on Thursday, broke up Yesterday after having pass'd an Act to empower me to keep the Regiments with the Kings Army till the first of January; by which Time it is supposed the Fort will be taken or the Army retired from before it. I hope and believe there is no Doubt which of the two Events will take place. By the End of this Month or the beginning of next, I expect to be gratified with the agreeable News of its Surrender.

The Regiments under your Command cannot by Law be compelled to stay with you, but what I before wrote to you, and what I have said of them in my Speech will, I flatter myself, induce them to stay till the End of December, as their pay is provided for if they chuse it. But it must be their own Option. I am with great Esteem S<sup>r</sup> Y<sup>r</sup> Very Hum. Serv<sup>t</sup>

I have recd your Letters of the 9th & 29th ult<sup>o</sup> and shall endeavour to comply with all your Requests contained in them as far as lies in me. And I hope you will consider the Commission I have enclosed in this Cover to M<sup>r</sup> Menzie as a Specimen of the Readiness with which I shall always be ready to do any Act, that I think can give you pleasure.

By some Expressions in your last Letter you seem to be willing to serve your Country, if She stands in need of your Service; give me Leave then S<sup>r</sup> to hope that an opportunity has offer'd which will recall you into this Colony. Colonel Washington has resigned his Command of the Virginia Forces (and is married to his agreeable widow) This Command is intended for you, on Condition the assembly when it meets in February will restore the Officers and put the Regiment upon the former Establishment, of which I believe there is now no Doubt, as I have consulted your Friend and mine the Speaker on this Head, and the Gentlemen who were the chief promoters of the alteration see their Error, and seem willing to retrieve it. But of this, Lieut<sup>t</sup> Col<sup>o</sup> Mercer who will deliver deliver this to you, can give you a better Acct as they are mostly his Friends, so he may better know their Dispositions. I am not without hopes of reinstating him, but this is an Affair in Embryo. Your Acceptance of this Command will I know be very agreeable to the Colony and particularly so to me.

General Amherst has wrote to me to use my Endeavours with the Assembly that they would pay the same number of Men as they paid last Year, whether they will be prevailed on to raise another Regiment I much doubt; but I firmly believe they will keep up the old one (which I hope I may call yours) on its former footing. If you see the General at New York, I should be obliged to you to have a Conference with him on the operations of the ensuing Campaign as far as they relate to this Colony, and let him know, you enter on the Subject at my instance. If he is not far from you I should be glad you would go to him on purpose.

I have mentioned your Journey into the Cherokee Country in Council, and Col<sup>o</sup> Peter Randolph is to draw up a Memorial, and furnish me with Materials, for me to transmit to the Board of Treasury, w<sup>ch</sup> you may assure yourself I will faithfully perform.

The Little Carpenter is now here, conscious and cast down on Acct of his bad Behaviour, and I believe all Differences are accomodated between us, and he seems glad to get off so. We have engaged to send the Goods to open the Trade in Spring.

I should be glad to know your Resolutions as soon as possible, that I may send you the commission as soon as the Assembly has settled the affair of the Regiment; tho' I should be much better pleased, if you would give me an Opportunity of presenting it to you in person, but it shall be done in the way the most agreeable to you, being wth great Regard Sr Your very Hum. Sir,

I have received very pressing Letters from Gov<sup>r</sup> Dobbs of North, & Gov<sup>r</sup> Bull of South Carolina, that I would Join with them in Application to You for Assistance from some of His Majesty's Troops Under Your Command, to Subdue & Quell the Cherokee Indians. I am of opinion that if a Peace is not made with them Provincial Troops alone cannot Effectually finish this Affair, to the advantage and honor of His Majesty's Colonies.

The Plan propos'd between those Gentlemen & Myself, is, that an Attack should be made by the South Carolinians, Assisted by some Regulars from You, on the Lower Towns; and by Us Assisted likewise in the same manner, on the Upper Towns at one and the same time, to Divide their Force as much as possible. By the best Information I can Obtain it is probable, that if both parties of the Cherokees retire into their Middle Towns, they can long Elude the force of our Arms, by the Impracticability of the Country; but in that Case they must Abandon all their Upper & lower Towns & Crops, to the Mercy of their Enemies, and they must very soon be Reduced to the greatest Extremities for want of necessaries.

<sup>2</sup> Arthur Dobbs was an Irishman, who had served in Parliament and held various civil offices in Ireland. He was governor of North Carolina from 1753 to his death in 1765. He attempted to discover the North-west Passage and wrote a good deal on that subject.

Sir,

New York 19th January 1761

I am this day favoured with Your Letter of the 25th November last from Wilmington, Acquainting me that the Assembly was then sitting; and Considering the granting an aid to His Majesty, for Six months to Co-operate with Your Neighboring Colonies; I am hopeful that their Resolves will have been favorable, and that by virtue thereof, this so necessary aid, will have been forwarded with the utmost Dispatch, in order that they might be ready to Join, and Act in Concert with the Virginia Forces in their operations against the Cherokees on that side Whilst the Regular Forces under Lieut. Col<sup>o</sup> Grant, already in Carolina, and the Troops of that Province are attacking them on the other, in which Case we may promise ourselves Certain success; as the Numbers of these Combined Forces Acting as aforesaid, are full sufficient to Warrant & Ensure the same; I must therefore once more hope that the Province of North Carolina will not have been backward in Exerting themselves to the utmost in Aiding and Assisting in so Essential a service but that they will, as they ought, have Chearfully and speedily Contributed thereto, with all their might and Capacity.

Extract 1.

Sir,

New York 21st January 1761.

Your Favor of the 15th ultimo, came to my hands last night; the application it Contains at the Instance of the Gov<sup>r</sup> of North & L<sup>t</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> of S<sup>o</sup> Carolina for the Assistance of some of His Majesty's Troops to subdue & Quell the Cherokee Indians, has some time since reached me on the part of the first, and very lately on that of the latter, as You will see by my Letters of the 28th Decem. & 19th Instant; by the former of which You are acquainted with the powerfull Assistance I have sent to Charles-Town; By the other that the Assembly of North Carolina in November, were sitting, and Considering the granting an aid to His Majesty, for six months to Co-operate with their Neighboring Colonies; and by both how fully sufficient I thought those Combined Forces for the Services above mentioned.

I do not only Continue of that opinion, but am firmly persuaded, if Virginia Continue their old Regiment of 1000 men, as from their past Zeal I must trust they will, altho' North Carolina should not, as they ought, Grant the proposed aid; that the Virginians acting agreeable to the plan You lay down of their attacking the upper Cherokee Towns whilst L<sup>t</sup> Colonel Grant with the Body of Regulars and the Provincial Troops of South Carolina attack the Lower ones, and further pursues his Instructions, I am firmly persuaded, I say, that the Indians must soon be reduced, to the greatest Extremities and not only be glad to sue for & receive peace at our hands, but be Incapacitated for a long time thereafter from renewing Hostilities of any degree of Consequence, to the Southern Provinces.

Wherefore as Virginia, North & South Carolina are more than any of the other Colonies Exposed to the Cruel & barbarous Insults of those savages; And that it is not in my power from the present Dispositions of His Majesty's Forces, to send them any more powerful Succour, than what I have already Assisted them with, I must rely on their strongest

<sup>1</sup> Francis Grant, colonel of the 42d Highlanders. He fought at Ticonderoga in 1758. He accompanied Amherst in the campaigns of 1759 and 1760. In 1761 he made a campaign against the Cherokees. He served as brigadier-general in the Martinique expedition of 1762, and was also at the siege of Havana in the same year. He became lieutenant-general in 1777 and died in 1782.

strongest & most vigorous Exertion upon this Occasion; and that they will Chearfully and speedily to the utmost of their Efforts And Capacities Grant & furnish the further aids that are requisite for most Effectually accomplishing the intended Chastisement of the Chorokees; which as I have observed before, Cannot fail, if Conducted in the manner proposed; and that Virginia furnish her 1000 men, on whom from the Character I have had of their Goodness as Soldiers, I rely much; as I do likewise on the greater facility of their operations from the Report Colonel Byrd has made me of the goodness & practicability of the Roads from Your Back Settlements to the Upper Towns.

"I sent three days ago, an Express to acquaint Gov<sup>r</sup> Fauquier, with the time, when it was proposed that our army should reach Keowee, and strongly urged him so to Regulate his motions, as that the army from Virginia should arrive at Chotee about the same time, that we might receive the advantage of putting the Enemy between two fires."

The General's Answer to the foregoing Paragraph.

"I have already acquainted You of my having wrote to Gov<sup>r</sup> Farquier, on the operations of the Virginia Troops; I have repeated my application to him on that subject since I received Your last Letter; and I am in hopes, the Diversion from that Quarter, will have the Desired Effect."

I took the Liberty to detain Lieut Irwin here 'till the Return of my Express from Virginia, that I might be able to inform your Excellency by him what Troops may be expected from our Colony, & of their Transactions with the Cherokees. I therefore Sir inclose you G. F. Letter, to which I beg Leave to refer you. Our assembly is to set some time in March & I dare believe they will comply with whatever you are pleas'd to ask.

I have heard nothing more about the Savages than what the New York Papers contain'd, for that Reason I flatter myself they have shown some Attention to their Engagements with me. I hope Sir you will not take amiss my begging the Favour of you to allow Lieut Irwin to continue with me for this Campaign, if he does not go to Europe, because he has really been very usefull to us hitherto.

Sir,

I take the Opportunity of Captain Mirrie who sets out to morrow for Williamsburgh, to Acquaint You that I Yesterday received some dispatches from L<sup>t</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> Bull & Colonel Grant, advising me of the safe arrival of the Troops at Charles Town; but that thro' * Keowee was one of the principal Cherokee towns, very near Fort Prince George.

thro' the want of Grads in the woods, it was then Impracticable for them to proceed into the Country; that therefore they must Defer it till March, when Colonel Grant proposes to take the field, and to be at Fort Prince George by the 1st of May; at which time he Desires the Virginia Forces May be at Chotee in Order to Act in Concert with the Kings Troops; of all which I understand the Lieut. Gov<sup>r</sup> has given You notice, and has Urged You to Regulate Your Motions Accordingly.

As you must be sensible that the Acting of these two Bodies in Concert, must Ensure the more speedy success of the Intended operations; and that the Southern Provinces ought to have nothing more at heart, I trust that the Assembly will so strengthen Your hands, as to Enable You to send their Quota to the Rendezvous above mentioned at the time preferred.

Sir.

I recd your Letter of the 6th by Express, yesterday which gives me the Satisfaction of knowing I am soon to expect the pleasure of seeing you here, honoured with a command w<sup>ch</sup> I hope will be agreeable to you, and beneficial to your Country.

That you may be fully Master of the present Situation of our Affairs, I will give you a Detail of my late proceedings. General Amherst has in my Letter to him a full Acc<sup>t</sup> of the plan w<sup>ch</sup> appears to me the only one w<sup>ch</sup> can promise Success, and w<sup>ch</sup> by a late Letter from Gov<sup>r</sup> Bull is quite agreeable to him, and w<sup>ch</sup> he says he has concerted wth Colonel Grant. A Description as plain as I was able to give it, (but w<sup>ch</sup> you can make much more so) of the Nature of the Country, the Forces were to march thro' and a Requisition of what assistance appears to me to be necessary to perform and complete this work.

As to recruiting the Regiment, I have not been very solicitous about it, as I had great Doubts whether the general assembly would continue them in pay beyond the first of May or not, I rather thought not; but by your Letter, one I have lately recd from Gov<sup>r</sup> Bull; and one I daily expect to receive from General Amherst, all of w<sup>ch</sup> I propose to lay before the assembly on their meeting the 5th of March, I am now inclined to hope and believe they will be induced to keep up the Regiment complete. Another Reason w<sup>ch</sup> made me backward in advancing Money for the recruiting Service, was, the unwillingness or absolute Refusal of the gentlemen to settle their recruiting Acc<sup>ts</sup> except upon their own Terms; w<sup>ch</sup> the assembly may allow, but w<sup>ch</sup> I, as an honest Man entrusted with the Disposal of the Money of others, cannot.

In Relation to the presents to the Carpenter and the Indians who come in with him, I have enclosed to you a copy of a Letter I have this morning wrote to Capt<sup>a</sup> Bullett on that head, by w<sup>ch</sup> you will judge of the Sentiments of the Gentlemen of his Majesty's Council and see what steps I have taken therein. As I have no prospect of having a full Council before the first Day of the Assembly, I think it proper to advise you that I do not propose to take any further measures either as to recruiting the Regiment or providing Goods for the Indians till then the Time being near at hand.

It gives the greatest pleasure to find I am soon to be able to confer with you on the Subject of the peace proposed to the little Carpenter because I foresee great Difficulties arising from that Quarter. If he should perform his promise and Engagements, we cannot enter their Country wth Fire and Sword, without a most notorious and infamous Breach of Faith; and if we should refuse it we shall with Justice be represented at home by Carolina, as having deserted them and made a separate peace for ourselves. I have already sent Orders to Lt. Col<sup>o</sup> Stephen to rendezvous all the Men returned from Fort Pitt and the other posts at Winchester, and to refresh the Men there, but to have them in Readiness to march Southwards immediately, on Orders for that purpose. They cannot possibly join the Men on the Southwest Frontier by the Full Moon in March.

Having now finished all public Business, give me Leave to congratulate you on your Marriage w<sup>ch</sup> your Express informed me of tho' you are silent on that Head; and to assure you that I most sincerely wish you all the Happiness you expect from an agreeable I may say handsome woman (as I am informed) one of a handsome Family of w<sup>ch</sup> I am some Judge having seen a Specimen in M<sup>rs</sup>. Stirling. I shall endeavour to make William<sup>b</sup> as agreeable to M<sup>rs</sup>. Byrd and all her handsome Sisters as I am able when I have the pleasure of seeing them here. New York 5th March 1761

Dear Sir.

I am yesterday favoured with your Letter of 22<sup>d</sup> February, by Lieutenant Irwin, enclosing one of the 16th from Governor Fauquier to you, but before I enter on the Subject of either of them, I must desire you will accept of my Congratulations on the change of your State, since I had the pleasure of seeing you, and be assured, I sincerely wish you all the happiness you can have proposed to yourself, and that will consequently follow from so judicious a Choice, as I am told, you have made.

Captain Heming or Lieut Dow will set out to day, and I intend this should be delivered to you by the first who goes. you are well acquainted with my opinion in regard to the Savages, and as to the present Situation of the Provinces of Virginia and Carolina, as far as is relative to the Cherokees and their Abettors, I think all proper means are taken for an effectual Chastisement of that fickle and Vile Crew. that you may know more fully the measures which are proposed I send you paragraphs of some Letters I have received and wrote on that Subject, by which you will likewise see Governor Fauquier will have received from me, what he mentions to you that he expected.

I am entirely of Governor Fauquier's opinion about making a separate peace, that must not be, or must our Faith either with the little Carpenter be broke, without Reason, by us, in acting opposite to what may have been solemnly promised. as I shall have the pleasure of seeing you soon, we will talk on this.

It gives me pleasure that Lt Irwin has been usefull to you in the last Campaigns, if the Service should not require his presence with his Regiment, I shall be glad to leave him with you, if you desire it.

I return you M<sup>r</sup> Fauquier's Letter and am with great Regard Dear Sir, Your most Obedient Humble Servant

Sir.

I yesterday had the Honour to receive your Excellency's Commands by Lieu<sup>t</sup> Irwin, & propose to set out for Virginia as soon as possible & make no doubt but that I shall get there in time to our Assembly. I sincerely wish the Southern Provinces may vote Men sufficient to answer your Expectations. I shall use my utmost endeavours, not only to carry that Point in the Assembly but to levy the Men in Consequence thereof without delay. As I am at a Loss in some essential Particulars I take the Liberty to send this Express to you Sir for your orders therein, & have directed him to return immediately, & to follow me in case I can get away before he comes back. If the Colony of Virginia raises more Men than to compleat the old Reg<sup>t</sup> they will be greatly distressed for Arms, for I know by experience none are to be procured there, & I believe North Carolina will be in the same Situation, which will probably delay the March of the Troops as long this Year, as it did the last. neither is it possible to provide tents in either of those Places. In regard to the Provisions & Carriage, I believe Sir 'tis your Intention the charge of them is to be born by the Crown (for the Colonys I am convinced will not vote a Shilling for that Purpose) therefore you will be pleased to inform me who to apply to. There must likewise be Contingencies which I do not know whether you intend shall be paid by the Crown or the Colonys; I hope we are not to depend upon the last. If they are to be defray'd by the first I think it will be proper to appoint Lieu<sup>t</sup> Irwin to act as D. Q. M. G. as he is perfectly well acquainted with Accounts. With Respect Sir to what I am to do, in case the Colonys comply with your Letters, I hope I am to receive Orders from you, (for the Governours are so confused in their Military Plans that 'tis impossible ever to know what they would be at) particularly in regard to a Peace with the Cherokees, for 'tis probable when they are allarm'd at the approach of two Armys they may apply to me rather than any body else, from the Acquaintance I have with them, & I shall be at too great a Distance to consult with Lieu<sup>t</sup> Col<sup>o</sup> Grant, or to be acquainted with your Orders to him on that Head; therefore I flatter myself Sir I shall be honoured with your Instructions by the Return of the Express. As there must be many raw Officers on the Campaign with me I hope your Excellency will not take it amiss that I beg the Favour of you to allow Maj<sup>r</sup> Stuart & Cap<sup>t</sup> McKinzie to continue in the Regiment till it returns from that Expedition. I would not take this Liberty Sir but that I well know they will be of great Advantage to the Service.

By Cap<sup>t</sup> Herring I had the Honour to receive your Excellency's Letter of the 5th of the Month & beg Leave to join with M<sup>r</sup>. Byrd in thanking you for your very polite
Congratulations

* Robert Stewart was one of the captains of the Virginia regiments at Braddock's Defeat and was in service in Washington's regiment at the time of the latter's retirement in December, 1758.

* Robert McKenzie was a captain in the Virginia regiment in 1755 and was present at Braddock's Defeat.

Congratulations on our Marriage. We both intend ourselves the Pleasure of making our acknowledgements to you at New York when the Roads are better, but if Sir you think it necessary to see me before that happens I shall with the greatest Chearfulness attend you. I have with the strictest Attention considered your Excellency's Letters to myself & the Governours of the Southern Provinces with the Copys of their's to you & think it my Duty on this Occasion to give my Opinion on the intended Expedition against the Cherokees, & hope Sir you will not think me impertinent in differing from you on some Points. From the preceeding Conduct of the Assembly of North Carolina, I fear nothing is to be expected from them now, more than the Protection of their own frontier. Virginia will probably continue her Reg<sup>t</sup> (completed) to act in conjunction with any Troops you may think proper to order to the S. W. but I suspect Sir from what I have heard the Assembly will object to its marching out of the Colony unless join'd to what they may think a Sufficient force to awe the Cherokees in their upper Towns, as they well know the impracticability of the Passes thro' the Mountains for an Army from Charles Town & the inability of so small a party of Men to annoy them there if any unforeseen accident should happen to delay the March of Col<sup>o</sup> Grant, & really Sir I must so far agree with them as to think it very improbable that the two Armies can attack at the same time, considering the Distance between them on their march will be some hundreds of Miles, the Communication cut off, & every Rain may oblige one or the other to halt for several Days. The Enemy will certainly have intelligence of our Motions & will have it in their Power to oppose either army with their whole Force, as they can march from their upper Towns to their middle Settlements in 24 Hours. If Sir we depend on the Virginia Reg<sup>t</sup> alone to attack the over-Hill's Towns I imagine we shall find our Numbers very unequal to the Task. For should it be compleat upwards of 300 of the Men will be New Recruits who I have never found able to endure the Fatigues of such a March, besides the Garrisons for the many necessary Posts on the Communication & the Escorts will employ most of the Troops. I am convinced Sir our Assembly would readily comply with your Demand was it possible for you to spare 500 of his Majesty's Troops for that Quarter, & I hope you will excuse my taking the Liberty to say I think 1500 good Men are no more than are absolutely necessary for that Service, for as their principle & most Populous Towns are to the westward of the Mountain 'tis to be supposed they will defend them with their largest Force, & I need not paint to you the fatal Consequence that will attend the unhappy People on the Frontier in case of a Misfortune.

With Respect Sir to a Paragraph in your Letter to G. F. of the 21st of Jan<sup>y</sup> relating to our Troops pursuing the Directions they may receive from Col<sup>o</sup> Grant, I hope you will not take it amiss that I observe to you I had the Honour to Command that Gentleman in a former Campaign & have still a Right to do it from the Commissions we are possessed of, unless there should be a particular order from your Excellency to the Contrary.

If the Virginians take the field this Spring I think it my Duty to inform you Sir they have neither Tents Kettles &c & I do not know whether the Colony will pay for them now as the Crown has done it hitherto.

I am extremely obliged to you Sir what you said of Liu<sup>t</sup> Irwin & am very sorry to give you the trouble of so long a Letter. I am with all Respect

To the Hon<sup>ble</sup> William Byrd Colonel of the Regiment and Comm<sup>r</sup> in chief of the Forces of Virginia, and of the Expedition into the upper Cherokee Towns.

Sir.

In pursuance of an act of assembly pass'd here the 31st of March 1761, I hereby desire you to recruit the Regiment to the full number of one Thousand Men, after discharging such Invalids as are unfit for Service. The Bounty-Money allowed by the said act is £5 p<sup>r</sup> Man, besides the Clothing already provided for them. The officers recruiting recruiting are to be allowed 1 sh<sup>1</sup> p<sup>r</sup> Day Substinance for the Recruits, till they are provided for by the proper Commissary appointed or to be appointed for that Purpose. And they are further to be allowed £1. 10. 0 p<sup>r</sup> Man for their Expences in raising such Recruits; which Sum is to include all Expences whatever.

You are desired to order the Division of the Regiment now at Winchester under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Stephen* (if not already done) to march southwards to join the rest of the Regiment, at the Posts on the South-west Frontiers, forthwith: as you shall judge most convenient for that Purpose.

As soon as this Junction is made, you are desired to proceed forwards to Stallnackers† or such other post as you shall judge most convenient; and there to erect a small Log-house Fort for the Security of provisions, ammunition &c. and from thence to advance with as many picked Men as you shall judge necessary to the Big Island‡; leaving Lieut. Colonel Stephen to follow as soon as may be with the new raised Men and the rest of the Regiment, there to wait for Orders from Major General Amherst under whose Command and by whose Directions You are to conduct the intended Expedition into the upper Cherokee Towns.

That no Time may be lost, and to prevent any the least Imputation of Delay being laid to the Charge of this Colony You are desired to effect this as soon as possible, and to communicate these Instructions to Major General Amherst immediately; and to inform him that you are to obey such orders as you shall from Time to Time receive from Him, in prosecuting this Expedition. and lastly

You are desired to omit no opportunity of keeping open a constant and regular Correspondence with Major General Amherst, Governor Dobbs, Lieutenant Governor Bull, Colonel Grant, and my self so far as in any wise concerns or relates to the Expedition carrying on under your Command.

Dated 28th 1761

DRAPER MSS. 4 ZZ 32.

[L. S.] New York, 11th May 1761.

By the Express which Arrived here last Night from L<sup>t</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> Fauquier, I have received Your Letter of the 19th of April.

I find His Majesty's Requisition for raising as large a Body of Men, as the Number and Situation of the Inhabitants of Virginia may allow, has not met with the Success that I flattered myself it would; notwithstanding that it appears to be the opinion of the Gentlemen of the Colony that a Thousand Men are not Sufficient; I must own I differ with them in the last point; but I am very sorry to find that they have not Exerted their utmost Efforts in Raising men According to His Majesty's Commands which might have given You all the Number You could have Desired.

The L<sup>t</sup> Governor Acquaints me that he had given Orders for making the Regiment as Compleat as possible Discharging the Invalids and Unserviceable Men, and he is so sensible * Adam Stephen was appointed a captain in Fry's regiment in 1754, and became a major or lieutenant-colonel upon Fry's death, serving until the command was discharged. He was appointed paymaster to the troops raised in the winter of 1754-55 and served until superseded by William Byrd. Stephen was captain-commandant in the Braddock expedition, with actual command of the Virginia companies. He was appointed lieutenant-colonel of the Virginia regiment when Washington resumed command. He continued to serve in this capacity under Byrd until the regiment was discharged in 1762. He commanded the Virginia regiment raised in that year.

† Stallnacker's was located on the Fry and Jefferson map of 1751 on the Middle Fork of the Holston a few miles above its junction with the South Fork. In 1750 Dr. Thomas Walker and his associates met Stallnacker and helped him build his house. This was the extreme settlement in Virginia to the westward. In 1756 the Indians wished to meet the Virginia commissioners at Stallnacker's to make the pending treaty. In 1768 or 1769, J. F. D. Smyth, the English traveller, stopped with Stallnacker on his way to Kentucky.

‡ Big Island of the Holston; not far from the French Broad. It was a well-known place of rendezvous.

lenfible of the Neceffity there is of Your Marching as Early as poffible that I am Confident he will Expedite that bufinefs to the utmoft.

The Pofts on the Communication being Guarded with Militia, will undoubtedly be of great help; If thefe People have been Ufed to Stay no longer than they liked they muft now be brought to a better Senfe of their Duty, that the Communication may be kept up in the manner it ought to be.

I am Surprifed to hear that no Steps are taken for Your Provifion, when Brig<sup>r</sup> General Monckton immediately Sent through the hands of the Contractors Agents at Philadelphia Orders to Dr Walker for Supplying You; and had my Directions to Inform himfelf of the beft method, by which the Supplies could be Continued; and on Confidering the whole, it was Determined to leave it in Dr Walker's hands, and Mefrs Plumstead & Franks wrote to him accordingly.

I Acquainted You in my Letter of the 24th of March with regard to any Contingencies, if there are any, the Province muft Defray them; and when the Accompts are hereafter laid before me, whatever Articles Should be borne by the Crown, I would Direct the payment of them.

I am Extreemely Sorry to find that You think You can do nothing to annoy the Cherokees with Your Regim<sup>t</sup> alone; which You alfo believe will not be Completed by Midfummer I am hopefull the Events will prove otherwise.

I have already fully Acquainted You of my Sentiments in regard to the operations You are to Carry on, which are to Co-operate with L<sup>t</sup> Colonel Grant, and to march and attack the Cherokee on one Side, while he does it on the other. You already know the Road, and Your Marching up that way Can't but be of the greateft Affiftance to Colonel Grant.

I fhall give You the Same orders, as I have given to L<sup>t</sup> Colonel Grant, as to granting the Indians a Peace which muft not be untill they have been properly Chafitied; when that is Executed, and that Peace Seems Eligible, I refer the terms of it to L<sup>t</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> Fauquier, who, with his Council, are to Digest, Direct, and bring the Same about, as they fhall Judge proper, which I rely he will do, in Concert with L<sup>t</sup> Governor Bull, & Decline a Separate Peace, which is by all means to be avoided; and You will therefore follow Such Inftuctions as You fhall Receive from L<sup>t</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> Fauquier, in regard to any overtures that may be made for a Peace.

You will, of Courfe, take great precautions on Your marches, in having flanking and advanced parties that You may never be Surprifed; and thefe parties Should, on any attack always be fupported, and Act offenfively.

There is no Danger in pushing Indians boldly; they will never Stand an Attack; but this is to be done with order; there is great Danger in retreating from Indians, be You ever fo Carefull, & that You do it in the moft Regular manner; You are fo well Acquainted with their motions, that, I think, I hardly need mention this, or Caution You of the pofts & Camps that You'll take, that they may be Such as never to give the Indians an opportunity of Gaining the leaft advantage.

I have nothing more to add to what I have already wrote to You, and have verbally acquainted You, I muft leave the reft to Your Judgment & Experience and I truft to your Zeal in Executing Every thing that may be for the good of His Majefty's Service,

1 Robert Monckton commanded at the reduction of the French forts in Acadia in 1755 and deported the Acadians. He became lieutenant-governor of Nova Scotia in 1756 and lieutenant-colonel of the Royal American regiment in 1757. He commanded a battalion at the siege of Louisbourg in 1758. He was a brigadier-general at the siege of Quebec and was severely wounded. He became governor of New York in 1761 and commanded the expedition which captured Martinique in 1762. His death occurred in 1782.

2 Dr. Thomas Walker, of "Castle Hill," Albemarle County. He was probably the first white man to enter Kentucky, going there in 1750, thirteen years before Daniel Boone's visit. He gave the name to Cumberland Gap and the Cumberland Mountains. Walker was commissary-general of the Virginia troops from the time of Braddock's expedition to the end of the war. He was present at the Defeat. Walker was appointed by Virginia a commissioner, along with Andrew Lewis, to treat with the Six Nations at Fort Stanwix, New York, in 1768. He was also an Indian commissioner for Virginia in 1777. He was a member of the Virginia House of Burgesses in 1775 and was put on the second Committee of Safety. He was one of Virginia's commissioners in 1778 to complete the running of the boundary line between Virginia and North Carolina. Walker died in 1794.

Sir.

Your Excellency's Letter of the 11th of May came to Hand only the Day before Yesterday. From the length of time I had been without your Orders, & not having yet heard anything about the Contractors, I concluded this Expedition has been given over, however I forwarded everything under my Direction as far as possible, & as I inform'd you in my Last by Express had advanced the Troops as far on the Frontier as they can be subsisted. The Contractors have not to this Hour employ'd any Person to furnish me with Provision, neither have they sent one Shilling of Money for that Purpose. On receiving your Excellency's Instructions to push on without Loss of time to cooperate & assist Col<sup>o</sup> Grant, & being sensible, I am now full late to be serviceable to him, according to your Plan, & that no further Delays can be admitted of, I hope Sir you will think I have done right in sending all over this & the next County to engage the Farmers to deliver a Large quantity of Flour at the advanced Post, & to provide as many Carriages as we shall have occasion for on our March. By my own Endeavours & at my own Risk & Credit & by the Diligence of those I employ'd, I have so far succeeded, as to find I shall be able to march this Detachment of the Reg<sup>t</sup> on thursday next, when you may be assured Sir I shall lose no time in executing your Orders, for I flatter myself Doctor Walker will have directions to pay off my Engagements, & to supply us properly hereafter. I inclose a Return of my Regiment, which I wish may prove strong enough for the intended Service.

Sir.

I recd your two Favors of the 23<sup>d</sup> June on the 28th and had very luckily summoned a Council to meet on the 29th (on the advising the most proper Cruise for his Majesty's Ship Affiance who brought in the London Fleet and is to cruise on these Coasts for the protection of the Trade till he returns) to whom I communicated your Letters.

I have sent up the Breviats for Colonels to Mr Stephen and Mr Lewis<sup>1</sup> to prevent their being subject to the Command of a Junior officer as you desired, and Letters to the Lieutenants of the Countys to prepare Militia to occupy the posts you will be obliged to leave, in which Service I desire you will employ as few as possible, in order to save Expence of w<sup>ch</sup> the Colony will soon grow tired.

By the Return of the Regiment it appears that it will be tolerably strong when the Recruits join, there being now by the Return 732 rank and file Men exclusive Serj<sup>ts</sup> Corporals &c<sup>t</sup>.

I wrote to you on the 15th June, but as the Messenger had orders to call at Warrick about the sending up the paper, powder and flints, and then was to proceed to Bedford

Court

<sup>1</sup> Andrew Lewis was a native of Ireland, son of John Lewis, and settled in Augusta. He early saw service on the frontier and was wounded twice at Fort Necessity. He was major in the Virginia regiment in the Braddock expedition. He commanded the Sandy Creek expedition in 1756 and was taken prisoner at Grant's defeat in 1758. He was a Virginia commissioner at the Fort Stanwix treaty with the Six Nations in 1768. Andrew Lewis commanded at Point Pleasant in 1774, and when the Revolutionary War broke out he seemed to have a great military future. He drove Dunmore from Virginia and then his active service ended.

Court House there to enquire whether you were at Staunton or were gone to the Army on the out Posts, you could hardly have recd those Letters when you wrote. The Messenger was charged wth Letters for you from General Amherst and from the Carolinas.

I shall sign a warrant to Col. Hunter for the payment of Mr Frank's Acc<sup>t</sup> amounting to £989. 4, 6-1-2 pens<sup>y</sup> Cur<sup>cy</sup> tho' this affair met wth great Difficulty's, the payment being once ordered to be postponed till the meeting of the Assembly; but for a particular Reason I was afterwards advised to pay it immediately and submit it to the approbation of the assembly when it meets in Nov<sup>r</sup>. The Reasons for this Demur were many w<sup>ch</sup> I was desired to advise you, and at the same time to warn you from running hastily into any unnecessary Expenses for the future. The goods ordered as by Acc<sup>t</sup> recd from Mr Franks were sufficient, and calculated for a Regiment of 1000 Men to be new raised, destitute of all those articles. Now tho' our Men might want some goods of every article it was impossible they should be in the same Situation as a new raised Regiment. By my Letter of the 14th Nov<sup>r</sup> last you will observe that I therein told you very plainly, that it was the Sense of the assembly that all the money expended on the Regiment, sh<sup>d</sup> be laid out in this Colony and not out of it. In the same Letter I mentioned the Demurrage on the payment of your Draught to Mr Cunningham being designed as a Check. To w<sup>ch</sup> Letter I refer you.

If such things were absolutely necessary, it was proper it should be made known, that we might consult whether the Fund was able to answer the Expense, those Articles not being considered in the Estimate. This care of the public Money being expected from me there is another Reason w<sup>ch</sup> tho' but conjectural, yet the Date of Mr Franks's acct authorizes such a Conjecture w<sup>ch</sup> is, that these goods were ordered by you before you left Philadelphia to come to Williamsburgh, when you had not the Charge of the Regiment, and bore no Commission from me in the Service of this Colony. Notwithstanding all these weighty Reasons against it to support your Honor in Philadelphia the Council were of Opinion I should grant the warrant tho' they doubted much of the assembly's allowing it in the passing the Treasurer's Acc<sup>ts</sup>. The Council are further of the opinion that the articles of Buckles, Garters, Combs, & Stocks should be stopd out of the Men's pay if they take them. these amount to a considerable part of the Demand.

As for the affair of peace, you will please to recollect that in my former Letters of July 24th & October 17th 1760, I told you that this Colony did not consider themselves as principals in this Cherokee Warr, therefore all Matters of that Sort were to be refer'd to Gov. Bull, to w<sup>ch</sup> Letter I beg Leave to refer you. Gen<sup>l</sup> Amherst in his Letters to you, says, that after Col. Grant and you have chastised the Indians all affairs of peace are to be left to the Discretion of the Governors, in w<sup>ch</sup> the Military are not to be concern'd if I rightly remember his words. Lt Gov<sup>r</sup> Bull in a late Letter I have recd from him, says that the neighboring provinces sending Deputies to meet about the settling peace will occasion Delay: therefore in Compliance wth the Directions he has recd from General Amherst, (an Extract of whose Letter he sent me) he shall take upon him to make peace as well for the Subjects of all the British Colonies, as of his own in particular, at Charles Town, in due Form wth the Deputies of the Cherokee Nation, whenever that Measure shall be necessary. For all those Reasons I shall not take upon me to have any hand in the making of peace but leave that Matter entirely to Mr Bull, therefore if any proposals of that Sort should be made to you, the Indians are to be told that they must send Deputies down to Charles Town together wth the Deputies of the middle and lower Towns to concert on Terms of peace and Friendship with the Governor of South Carolina whose proper Business it is, and that we cannot enter into Conferences with them on the Subject, but that you will be ready to forward any talks of theirs to the Governor of Carolina to expedite matters if they desire it. But this Colony will engage for nothing but to regulate themselves according to the Articles of peace that shall be made and signed at Charles Town. At the Desire of Mr Bull I have given him my own opinion what their Terms should be, w<sup>ch</sup> is the Securing our own Settlements from any future Inroads, and the preventing their Commerce and Intercourie wth the French by any means proper for that purpose, but that I think we have nothing more to ask or insist on, and such a peace without hard or apprehensive [oppressive?] Terms may possibly, I may almost say probably be lasting, w<sup>ch</sup> is what we want, so that we may not be kept in continual alarms.

I have some time since informed General Amherst of the Cause of your Delay, by the Contractors not doing their Duty. His Letter to you was sent to me open under the flying Seal w<sup>ch</sup> I fasten'd. Gov<sup>r</sup> Bulls Letter contained no news of the Troops any more than that their March had been obstructed by heavy rains. The Day was May 25th at w<sup>ch</sup> Time or soon after he supposed they should be near Fort prince George, but his own Letters to you may possibly have given you a more full Acc<sup>t</sup> of Col. Grants March and Operations.

I have no further orders to give, as you are fully Master of the Design of your Campaign the Conduct of w<sup>ch</sup> I leave to your self and shall only add that I am wth great Regard Sir Y<sup>r</sup> most Obed<sup>t</sup> hum: Serv<sup>t</sup>
 To the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Col. Byrd.

Sir,

On the 25th June, I had the favor of Your Letter of the 7th of the same Month, Enclosing a Return of the Strength of the Virginia Regiment.

You might have been Assured that the Expedition Intended to be Carried on under Your Command, would not be Laid aside, without my Acquainting You; And soon after the date of Your Letter, You must have received Several of Mine, by which You will have been fully Informed of my Sentiments, in regard to Your pushing forwards, with the Strength You had, as I judged them full Sufficient for Answering the desired End of Annoying the Enemy on that Quarter, whilst they were Attacked by a Superior Force on the other Side the Mountains.

I Make no doubt but the Orders given by General Monckton, for Supplying You with provisions, & Every other Necessary furnished by the King, will have been punctually Obedyed; And that You will have, long e're now, been relieved from the Inconveniencies arising from the Want of these necessary Articles.

The Expenses You have been at, in purchasing provisions for the Troops, must certainly be made good by the Contractor's Agents.

I am, with great Truth, Sir, Your most Obedient Servant.

I did myself the Honour to write to your Excellency the other Day by Gov. Fauquier's Express, & inform'd you the low State of the Reg<sup>t</sup>. Since which I have used my utmost Endeavours to compleat it, but as our Bounty Money is one half less than it ever has been, We have met with no Success. I have order'd all the men from Winchester & the Pittsburgh Communication to Augusta, where they must remain till Provision & Carriages are provided, & I have not as yet heard that the Contractors have given any Directions concerning them. Indeed Sir if the Colonys are to furnish no other Troops for that Expedition than our weak Reg<sup>t</sup>, that Expence may be saved, for I am too well acquainted with the Nature of that Service to hope for any Success from so small Numbers, & I flatter myself let the Consequence be what it will, no blame can lay at my Door. In Obedience to G. F's Instructions I shall proceed with 500 Men to the Great Island, as soon as the Victualers are ready for us, where I am to erect a Post & wait your Orders. It is pointed out that the study of history is not only a means of understanding the past, but also a means of understanding the present and the future. The author argues that the study of history is essential for the development of a nation and for the well-being of its people. He also discusses the role of the historian in society and the importance of the historical method.

Sir.

I am now to inform your Excellency that I arrived at this Place on the 13th of laſt Month, ſince which time I have been detain'd for want of Carriages & Horſes, & find it impoſſible to get them in any reaſonable time. This Delay proceeds from the Contractors neglecting to employ Agents in time to provide thoſe things, for thoſe Gentlemen did not agree with Doctor Walker at Philadelphia to ſupply our Troops with Proviſions till the 14th of June, by which Means it was out of his Power to engage proper Carriage & Forrage for ſuch Diſtance before it was render'd too late for me to execute your Orders in Cooperating with Colonel Grant, who wrote me from Fort Prince George he had compleated his Work by the 10th of July, which I conceive was the principle Object of my Deſtination. Indeed I ſee no probability of Doctor Walker's being able to victual us farther than this Place, was it otherways poſſible for us to proceed to the Cherokee Country.

The Whole Regiment is preſent & the few Recruits have join'd, my whole Force is only — effective Men. Thoſe I have employed ſince I came here in building a Block Houſe & throwing up an Intrenchment round it for the Security of themſelves & Proviſion.

We are ſtill 200 Miles from the Nation & have the Road to open & make all the Way, which with the neceſſary Guards I am convinced your Excellency will think Impracticable for my ſmall Force, if oppoſed by an Enemy. Governour Fauquier has order'd up only 60 of the Militia, who are certainly not ſufficient to gariſon the neceſſary Poſts for 330 Miles beyond the Inhabitants, & cover our Retreat in caſe of an Accident.

The Enemy's retiring from Col<sup>o</sup> Grant's Numbers makes the Task ſtill more Difficult for my few Men, for they are all retreated into the upper Towns, where they have nothing to fear from him, from whence I have certain Inteligence, large Bodys are detach'd to hunt between Broad River & the Holſtien, to watch our Motions.

If Col<sup>o</sup> Grant with his formidable Power could only burn fifteen Towns & over run the Country below the Mountains, not more than fixty Miles from his advanced Poſt, I do not imagine it can be expected that I can with my Pityfull Number, proceed thro' a Wildderneſs, 200 Miles from my outermoſt Poſt to attack 32 Towns in the remotest Part of the Nation, defended by their united Force. Col<sup>o</sup> Grant had the whole Winter before him to provide every thing for his well appointed Army, & I was not even thought worthy of the Contractor's Notice in Philadelphia till the middle of June, & had double his Diſtance to march. How we were to cooperate together, under thoſe Circumſtances, God only knows.

The Little Carpenter with 43 Indians from all parts of the Nation came in laſt Month to ſolicit me for a Peace, but as my Hands were tied up I could only recommend them to Col<sup>o</sup> Grant & Gov<sup>r</sup> Bull, & uſed every Argument & Threat to haſten them to it. I certainly muſt appear in a very deſpicable Light to them, as I really do to myſelf, for I am neither enabled to chaſtiſe them, nor empowered to make a Peace.

For my Part I know it to be impoſſible for me to do any thing more, as well thro' the Deficiency of Numbers, now Col<sup>o</sup> Grant has retreated to F. P. G. as the Want of Carriages, therefore Sir as it never was my Intention to lay upon the Frontier without a Proſpect of doing Service to my Country & Credit to myſelf, I humbly hope you will not take it amiſs that I reſign the trifling Command to the Lieu<sup>t</sup> Col<sup>o</sup> of the Reg<sup>t</sup>, after the

Albany, 20th August 1761

Sir,

You will have Seen by my two former Letters, that, altho' L<sup>t</sup> Colonel Grant had Chastised the Cherokees, Yet I had Sent him Directions not to Remove the Troops, out of Carolina, Untill a Peace was Settled, & Concluded with those Savages by Lieut. Governor Bull; and that to bring about this Salutary Work so much the sooner I likewise Desired You to pursue Your Instructions, in the same manner as if nothing favorable had happened in our behalf in those parts. Wherefore 'till those Ends are fully answered, the principal Object of Your Destination is not Effected: but I make no doubt that ere this Reaches You, Lieut. Governor Fauquier, agreeable to Mine of the 17th Instant, will have been Enabled to Recall You with the Virginia Regiment, into the province, if not, I must Repeat my Desire, that You will, to the utmost Exert Yourself in the Annoying the Cherokees in their Upper Country; and that You will not think of declining the Command of the Virginia Regiment, before the Service to which they are Destined is Completed.

LT. COL. STEPHEN TO LT. GOVR. FAUQUIER.

Sir,

I rec'd the honor of your letter, and would have been under the greatest obligation for your sentiments on the Indian Trade. There are proper regulations wanting to make it useful and profitable for us, and a manner is wanting to make it agreeable and easy to the Indians. The Pensylvanians engross it at present and are pushing all possible measures to keep it in their hands. About twenty Tuns of Skin and Furr have been bought at this place within these three months; the Pensylvanians say the Post is within their limits, and accordingly have made an Act of Assembly for enhancing the Trade. This does not affect Virginia whilst the General Commands, but were one of the Pensylvania Officers to Command, they would be obliged to act according to their orders from that Province. The determination is of importance to us who first engaged in Virginia service; as we are intitled to a considerable quantity of Land by virtue of Gov<sup>r</sup> Dinwiddie's proclamation approved of by His Maj<sup>ty</sup>, and I would be glad to know the sense of your honor and Council on that Head.

Two Officers are just returned from Presqu'isle with an account of the Country, communication & the situation of the French Posts.

It is about seventy miles to Venango, it has been a small stockade, about 400 yards below the mouth of French Creek, which is there about 100 yards over. There are about

<sup>2</sup> A fort built on the present site of Erie, Pennsylvania. In 1753 Duquesne, the governor of Canada, sent a force to occupy the Ohio Valley, and, as a base for the movement, built a log fort at Presqu'isle.

<sup>3</sup> A fort built at what is now Franklin, Pennsylvania. It stood near the confluence of French Creek and the Alleghany River. In 1753 Joncaire was the commandant at Venango, and he it was who informed Washington over their wine of the aggressive intentions of the French government.

50 houses 12 feet by 16 ftanding, the vestiges of as many burnt; a fine Mill stands in good order.

From that about 46 miles to Le Boeuf, very bad ground, a barren Country for 30 miles—about nine miles a mere swamp. The situation of the Post very pleasant and commodious.

From le Boeuf to Presqu'isle about 18 miles, the road well made; it is one continued Bridge through a swamp the whole way; the situation of Presqu'isle was upon the bank of Lake Erie, poor foil and piney land about. That Post and le Boeuf was a citade with four Bastions, built only for the communication.

I have the honor to be.

Sir

Your most obedient humble servant.

LIEUT. GOVR. FAUQUIER TO THE LORDS COMM. OF TRADE.

My Lords,

I inclose your Lord<sup>sh</sup>s a copy of a letter I have just received from L<sup>t</sup> Col. Stephen: which, as it contains some minute particulars of points of consequence, I have choose to communicate to your Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board in the words of the Writer. By it you may observe My Lords, that the affair of the Indian Furr Trade, if not prevented, may again prove a bone of contention between this Colony and Pensylvania. The surest way to stop any ill consequences that may arise from such a contention, appears to me to be to settle the determination of the Boundary-line of Pensylvania which is to run 5 degrees due West from Newcastle. We say from Mess<sup>rs</sup> Fry and Jefferson's authority that this distance terminates 15 or 20 miles short of Pittsburgh. The Pensylvanians act, as if it did not; upon what authority they proceed I am as yet entirely ignorant.

I hope Your Lord<sup>sh</sup>s will be of opinion that this should be settled by Commissioners either appointed by your Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board immediately or mediately by Instruction sent to the Governors of the respective provinces to appoint such Commissioners. The first method seems least liable to create disputes, as the Lands between the mountains and the Ohio are now cleared of the Enemy, people seems to be very desirous to settle on the fine fertile lands, lying on the waters which fall into the Ohio, and so into the Mississipi, and are generally called by the general name of Lands on the waters of the Mississipi; but to the well future settling of these lands, there are some points w<sup>ch</sup> seem to require consideration. By proclamation from Mr Dinwiddie, all officers and private Men, who have served in those parts have a Right to a certain proportion of those lands, to which they are daily laying claim. It is also to be considered, whether the Crown will renew the two great Grants. If they should be renewed, whether the Grantees should be at liberty to take up lands within their Grants, in as small parcells as they please; by which means they have it in their power to skim all the fine Lands on the Waters and have

<sup>2</sup> The boundary controversy between Virginia and Pennsylvania began with Dinwiddie's attempt to have a line run between the colonies in 1753. Governor Hamilton of Pennsylvania was instructed by the proprietors to assist Dinwiddie in running the line, but to require an acknowledgment that his proposed settlements in the West should not alienate the rights of Pennsylvania. In 1754 Dinwiddie commenced to build a fort on the site of Pittsburg and issued a proclamation, promising to reserve 200,000 acres of land for the benefit of soldiers fighting against the French. Hamilton objected, and Dinwiddie agreed that the quit-rents might be collected by Pennsylvania until the boundary dispute was settled, and applied to England to have the boundary line run. After much discussion the controversy was settled in 1779 by a commission which met at Baltimore. The line agreed upon was the extension of Mason and Dixon's line "due west 5 degrees of longitude completed from the river Delaware for the Southern boundary of Pennsylvania, and that a meridian drawn from the Western boundary thereof to the Northern limit of said State, be the Western boundary of said State forever." Olden Time, I, pp. 433-524.

have the uplands unpatented, whether they should not be obliged not to exceed a certain price for a certain term of years, to their under patentees.

Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> may be fully convinced that I think these things of consequence, and that I speak my sentiments with sincerity, when I inform you that my son is taken partner into one of the great grants. But I hope that or any other consideration in which my interest shall be concerned, will never make me prostitute my opinion to your Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board, whenever I think His Majesty's and my Country's interest at stake.

It seems to be the general opinion of all the speculative gentlemen here, that it will be more adviseable to make a separate Govern<sup>t</sup> of all the Lands between the mountains and the Waters; the reasons they assign are these, which are specious enough. It will require a Constitution of a more military form than this Colony, I believe, can ever be prevailed upon to enter into, in order to protect these out settlers from Insults and incursions of the Indians. The Militia Laws now in force in this Colony would be ineffectual to secure them, and from a jealousy of the liberty of the subject, I apprehend the General Assembly would never be brought to put them under such restraints as are necessary to make a militia serviceable. I attempted an amendment of those Laws on my first arrival, without success. The establishment of the Clergy in this Colony is thought to be of such a nature, as to be an obstacle to the coming in of protestant foreigners, from whom we are to hope the greatest accession of people, who must have a Minister of their own to maintain, besides paying their quota to a public Levy for the support of a parochial Minister of the established church.

I thought it my duty, My Lords, to throw out these hints for your Lord<sup>ships</sup> consideration, to do therein as you shall judge most expedient, whenever it may please his Maj<sup>ty</sup> in his most honorable privy Council, to take the matters relative to the patenting and settling these lands into consideration.

The Assembly broke upon the 21st Nov<sup>r</sup> after having passed an Act to keep up the Regiment till the first of May next, and to disband the 500 Men before that time; viz<sup>t</sup> 200 immediately and 300 on the first of February; & an Act to prevent Frauds on Negro duties. I shall transmit those Acts and some few of a private nature by the first opportunity I can find. I have wrote to Brig<sup>er</sup> Gen<sup>l</sup> Stanwix to inform him of these transactions, and to desire he will be particular in the service for which he will require the Men to be kept longer in pay if necessary; otherwise I fear, the Colony will be for dropping them at the time prescribed.

I shall write more particularly on the aforeaid Acts when I send them to your Lord<sup>ships</sup> with the other public papers of Govern<sup>t</sup>. I am My Lords, with the greatest respect your Lord<sup>ships</sup> most obedient & devoted servant.

Sir

In obedience to His Majesty's commands notified to me in the letter I had the honour to receive from you, the very night before the General Assembly met, I recommended the measures directed in it and laid your letter before the Assembly and I have the pleasure to acquaint you that the Assembly agreed to keep up the Regiment now on foot. Of this I have apprized Major Generals Amherst and Stanwix.

He was assigned command of the Southern District of North America, with headquarters at Carlisle, Pennsylvania, in 1757. He became brigadier-general in 1757. In 1758 he was relieved by Forbes; he went to New York, where he built Fort Stanwix. In 1759 he came back to command the Southern District, with headquarters at Pittsburg. He resigned the command in 1760.

[Enclosed in a letter to the Board of Trade.]

W<sup>m</sup>sburgh May 7th 1760.

Sir,

My Predecessor Mr Dinwiddie, by authority of His Maj<sup>ty</sup> notified by one of his principal Secretary's of State: issued a proclamation to encourage persons to engage in the services then proposed to be carried on against Fort du Quesne, and other French Settlements on the Waters of the Ohio. In this Proclamation he promised a grant of 200,000 acres of land on the east side of that River, to be apportioned to the Officers and private Men who should voluntarily enter into that service, 100,000 of which were to be contiguous to Pittsburgh or Fort du Quesne, the other 100,000 on some other part of that River.

In consequence of this promise by authority, The Officers and Men who served on the Ohio have laid in their claims to me in Council, to have these lands immediately granted to them, which they say they have merited at the hazard of their health and lives.

But some difficulties arising, from the bounds of your Colony not being settled, and from the Treaties which it is said Gen<sup>l</sup> Forbes made and Gen<sup>l</sup> Stanwix has since confirmed with the Indians inhabiting that Country (but which I have not yet seen), this Colony has done nothing in that affair.

I have also to inform you that about three months since I wrote to the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Board of Trade and Plantations in which letter I informed them of these Claims; and of the difficulties which attended our granting these Lands; desiring at the same time that Commissioners might be appointed by the Crown to settle the extent of your line, which is to run 5 degr: due West from Delaware Bay in the latitude of 40 North, and that the proprietors of Pennsylvania or Maryland might be restrained from making any grants of Lands, which from our scrupulous observance of Treaties etc., we did not think proper to make ourselves, till His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s pleasure was known therein, on which head I desired I might have instructions as soon as conveniently could be.

By advice of His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Council, on these Considerations, I have postponed the making of any grants of lands in question, till I receive directions from Home, relative thereto. And that a perfect harmony and unanimity may at all times subsist between the Sister Colonies of the same common Mother on which the safety and security of all depend, I have to request you, that you on your parts, would, as we have on ours, postpone the granting those lands till such instructions arrive which shall be immediately made known to you. And if you shall already have made any such grants, I beg the favour of you to inform me thereof, as to the quantity, the situation and the names of the Grantees.

I am with the greatest regard

Sir

Your very humble servant.

LIEUT. GOV. FAUQUIER TO THE LORDS OF TRADE ETC.

W<sup>m</sup>sburgh May 12th 1760.

My Lords,

I enclose in this Box to your Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board, the Acts of the last Session of Assembly which broke up the 11th of March, the Journals of the Council and Burgeffes, the minutes of the Council since the Departure of the late Lieut<sup>t</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup>, the Accounts of the Receiver General, and of the Naval Officers, with the Duplicates of the Acts and Journals of the former Session. I hope your Lord<sup>pp</sup>s will not accuse me of remissness in the discharge of my duty, for I cannot get the Acts and Journals sooner out of the respective Offices.

The Cherokees having immediately broke the peace made with them by Gov<sup>r</sup> Lytleton before his departure, and having taken up arms throughout all their Towns, Mr Bull has applyed to this Colony for assistance, particularly for succour for the Garrison of Fort Loudoun, in the Upper Cherokee Country. As I was not in a capacity to send them any relief by the powers vested in me by the General Assembly, I have by, and with the advice of His Majesty's Council call'd the Assembly to meet again on Monday the 19th inst: the result of which I will give your Lord<sup>pp</sup>s the earliest Information of.

The affair of granting the Lands on the Ohio grows every day of more importance; for which reason, I crave your Lord<sup>pp</sup>s excuse for again mentioning that affair, and for begging leave to refer your Lord<sup>pp</sup>s to my letters of the 1st December and 13th March on this subject. I have wrote fully to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hamilton upon these matters, a copy of which letter I inclose to your Lordships.

I am with the higheft regard and respect

My Lords,

Your Lord<sup>pp</sup>s most obedient,
obliged humble servant

FRAN: FAUQUIER.

LT. GOV. FAUQUIER TO THE LORDS OF TRADE ETC.

My Lords,

The Assembly which I had summoned to meet on the 19th ult<sup>o</sup> of which I gave your Lord<sup>pp</sup>s advice in my letter to your R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board of the 13th sat six days, and provided for the raising and paying 700 Men till the 1st of December to be joined to the 300 already stationed on the south west Frontiers, to attempt the Relief of Fort Loudoun, or to be otherwise employed as Lieut<sup>t</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> Bull shall advise. These Men are now raising, and as I hear the Recruits enter very fast. This Act, with two other acts of course, I shall transmit to your Lord<sup>pp</sup>s as soon as engrossed.

At the end of the supply Bill the House of Burgeffes added a Clause to encrease the duty arising by the importation of slaves, by reducing it to ten per cent instead of twenty, which was the method I most approved in the late Act relative thereto of which I wrote your Lord<sup>pp</sup>s a full account in my letter of the 17th of Decemb<sup>r</sup> sent by the Deliverance, Capt. Whyte, who I hope, is safely arrived, tho' we have not heard of her. She carried the Box of public papers and Acts.

The incertitude of the proceedings of the General Assembly of this Colony, has struck me on many occasions and seems to be so inherent in the nature of the Members, as to be characteristic of the People. This Act was passed this Session in the lower House, but by a single voice, on account of this Clause; and it is apprehended will occasion a Battle in the next Session whenever the assembly meets again; for the contest on this occasion is between the old Settlers who have bred great quantity of Slaves, and would make a Monopoly of them by a duty which they hoped would amount to a prohibition; and the rising Generation who want Slaves, and don't care to pay the Monopolists for them at the price they have lately bore, which was exceedingly high. These reasons reasons your Lord<sup>ps</sup> may guess are not urged in the arguments on either side; but, I believe are the true foundation of the Squabble.

But setting this Act aside, the uncertainty of all public measures, is in nothing more apparent, than in their immediately disbanding Men, who by seeing some service are become useful, upon the least relaxation from their fears of an Enemy; and as immediately raising fresh raw Men at a great Bounty, as soon as their passions are again alarmed. Whoever charges them with acting upon a premeditated concerted plan, don't know them; for they mean honestly, but are Expedient-Mongers in the highest degree, even to their own cost daily. I am confident the Assembly could have kept two Regiments in constant pay since my arrival in the Colony at a much less expence than the methods they have pursued have occasioned.

I am My Lords with the greatest respect

most obedient and devoted servant.

LT. GOV. FAUQUIER TO THE LORDS COMMISS'RS OF TRADE ETC.

My Lords,

By the Fleet which arrived here the 20th instant I had the honor to receive an order from his Majesty in Council to repeal four Acts of Assembly. The Repeal of which I shall proclaim in the next Gazette. His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Royal Instruction to me to enforce former Instructions relative to the passing Laws was delivered to me at the same time, to which I shall pay all due obedience on all occasions.

The manner in which this order and Instruction were delivered to me, appeared to me so unusual and extraordinary, that I hope your Lord<sup>ps</sup> will excuse my relating the circumstances to your R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board.

The copies of these papers have been in the Colony above these six months, they were sent to Mr Camm's Friends, and have been communicated to many. I then thought that the sending copies of His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Royal orders and Instructions, before they were made known to his Gov<sup>r</sup> to whom they are directed, was a step unprecedented, of pernicious consequence, and, a high insult on Majesty. On the 20th instant Mr Camm landed in this Colony and immediately went down to Hampton to meet and consult with his particular friends. On the 27th he came to me accompanied by two of them, and delivered to me His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Royal order in Council and Instruction, both open, dirty, and worn out at the edges and Folds; seeing they were of an old date, I asked him where they had been till this time; he answered, in his custody. I asked him if they were delivered to him open and without cover, his answer was, they were.

The Order in Council carried all the marks of its not being the original order designed to be sent to me, but a copy obtained by Mr Paris Solicitor to the Convention of the Clergy, it being so indorsed on the back. But as it came accompanied with His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Instruction, which had all the appearance of being the original Instruction under His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Sign manual; for fear of being negligent in my duty and obedience to His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s pleasure, I have acted upon it, in the same manner as if I was fully convinced it was authentic.

<sup>2</sup> John Camm, born in 1718, died 1779, was minister of Newport Parish, Isle of Wight County, in 1745. He became professor of divinity in William and Mary College in 1749 and was also rector of York-Hampton Parish. He represented the convention of the clergy in England in opposition to the Two-penny Act, which was nullified by the British government. He became president of William and Mary in 1771 and commissary in 1775.

In 1760 Camm was in England fighting the Two-penny Act. He returned to Virginia in June, 1760, and delivered to the governor instructions which he had brought from England. Fauquier flew into a passion and abused Camm in rather violent terms, instructing his footmen not to let him enter the house again. (See Perry's Historical Collections of the American Colonial Church, Virginia, p. 463).

The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work during the year. It is followed by a detailed account of the various projects and the results achieved. The report concludes with a summary of the work done and a list of the names of the persons who have taken part in it.

The second part of the report contains a list of the names of the persons who have taken part in the work during the year. It is arranged in alphabetical order and gives the names of the persons who have taken part in the work during the year.

The third part of the report contains a list of the names of the persons who have taken part in the work during the year. It is arranged in alphabetical order and gives the names of the persons who have taken part in the work during the year.

The fourth part of the report contains a list of the names of the persons who have taken part in the work during the year. It is arranged in alphabetical order and gives the names of the persons who have taken part in the work during the year.

This is so unlike the manner in which I received the Orders and instructions with which I have already been honoured, which have come directly from your R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board or from one of His Maj<sup>'ty</sup>'s principal Secretaries of State, that I am at a loss what to think about it. As I have received no letter or advice from your Lord<sup>ps</sup> on this head, tho' it is long since your Lord<sup>ps</sup> had the Act, and my reasons for giving my assent to it; I cannot entertain the least thought that your Lord<sup>ps</sup> meant to cast a slur upon me, and lessen me in the eyes of the Gentlemen in the Colony, as it must of course do, if it is so understood. There is an universal surprise at this proceeding of Mr Camm, which he and his Friends publish with triumph. Besides, as Mr Camm has on all occasions studiously affected to treat me with great indignity, I must imagine that this was an Act merely his own, to keep up the same spirit.

This transaction makes the greater impression on the Gentlemen of the Colony, because, when Mr Attorney Randolph went to England about the pistole affair, he asked whether he might carry His Maj<sup>'ty</sup>'s Instructions to Mr Dinwiddie, and was answered, that the Board would send His Maj<sup>'ty</sup>'s Instructions to His Maj<sup>'ty</sup>'s Governor. A copy of them was refused him, but the Instructions were read over to him. And no copy was in the Colony when I came into it.

As it is my duty to support the dignity of His Majesty's Crown and authority, I thought it incumbent on me to be circumstantial in the relation of this affair, that if your Lord<sup>ps</sup> should think Mr Camm's proceedings derogatory to the Honor of his Maj<sup>'ty</sup> and his Lieut<sup>e</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> I may receive your directions, how I shall conduct myself in this affair.

The Men are raised for the assistance of Carolina against the Cherokee Indians, and I hope will be ready to march as soon as I hear from L<sup>t</sup> Gov<sup>r</sup> Bull and Col: Montgomery, in what manner we can most effectually serve them; to whom I have wrote to this purpose.

I inclose to your Lord<sup>ps</sup> a copy of a letter sent by Capt<sup>n</sup> Petersham the 9th inst: and am with the greatest respect My Lords

and devoted servant.

My Lords,

Under Cover with this, I inclose to your Lord<sup>ps</sup> a Triplicate of a letter I wrote to your R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board on the 1st of December last, with a Copy of a letter from L<sup>t</sup> Col: Stephen to me, referred to in it. My reason for sending this is, my apprehension, that the Duplicates were both lost; one being sent in my Box of public papers to the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board, by the Deliverance Capt<sup>n</sup> White, who, we know was lost on the coast of France. The other I sent by post to New York, and fear it went by the General Wall packet, which was taken and ransom'd, but all the papers thrown overboard.

I am with the greatest respect, My Lords,

Your Lord<sup>ps</sup> most obedient,
and devoted servant

ARTICLES OF CAPITULATION.

On the 7th August Captain John Stuart set out to Chotee, accompanied by L<sup>t</sup> Jas. Adamson and some Indians where the following terms were stipulated.

Articles

* Peyton Randolph, Attorney-General of Virginia, Speaker of the House of Burgesses, and first President of the Continental Congress. Governor Dinwiddie, who became governor in 1751, discovered that the regulations governing the patenting of lands were little regarded and that the royal revenue from the quit-rents was thereby defrauded. He endeavored to correct the abuse by charging the fee of a pistole on every patent. The House of Burgesses protested against the tax and sent Peyton Randolph to England to petition the king for its remission. The Board of Trade, however, virtually decided in favor of Dinwiddie.

* John Stuart was an officer at Fort Loudoun when it fell in 1760. He was very popular with the Cherokees friendly to the English. After Demeré's death, Stuart with the other prisoners remained at Fort Loudoun in great jeopardy. Atta-culla-culla, or the Little Carpenter, escaped with him to Colonel Byrd's camp, and Stuart gave warning of the intended attack upon Fort Prince George.

Articles of Capitulation agreed upon, & assented to by Capt<sup>n</sup> Paul Demere Commanding His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Forces at Fort Loudoun, and the head Men and Warriors of the Over Hill Cherokee Towns.

1st That the Garrison of Fort Loudoun, march out with their arms and Drums, each Soldier having as much powder and Ball as their Officers shall think necessary for the march, and what Baggage he may choose to carry.

2<sup>d</sup> That the Garrison be permitted to March for Virginia, or Fort Prince George, as the Commanding Officer shall think proper unmolested, and that a number of Indians be appointed to escort them, and to hunt for provisions on the march.

3rd That such Soldiers as are lame, or by sickness disabled from Marching, be received into the Indian Towns, and kindly used until they recover, and then to be returned to Fort Prince George.

4th That the Indians do provide the Garrison with as many Horses as they can conveniently for their march, agreeing with the Soldiers or Officers for payment.

5th That the Fort, Great Guns, Powder, Ball, and spare arms be delivered to the Indians, without any fraud on the day appointed for the March of the Troops.

LT. GOVR. FAUQUIER TO THE LORDS COMMISS'RS FOR TRADE ETC.

My Lords,

I take the opportunity of a Bristoll, which is just ready to sail, to acknowledge the receipt of your Favour of the 13th June which I received on the 30th ult<sup>o</sup> together with the copy of the Representation of your R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board to His Maj<sup>ty</sup> in relation to three acts of Assembly passed by me in the year 1758 and 1759; His Majesty's orders in Council, and Repeal of the said Acts in consequence thereof; and the Report of Sir Matthew Lamb, concerning the Agents Act.

Give me leave My Lords to make an acknowledgement of the obligations I have to your Lord<sup>sh</sup>s for the tenderness you shew me in not aggravating the deep concern I feel myself under, for having inadvertently fallen into so many errors as I find I have done, in respect to the giving my assent to Acts which have passed the other two branches of the Legislature. But I hope, My Lords, to set my actions in such a point of view, as to take off, in great measure at least, the unfavourable opinion your Lord<sup>sh</sup>s entertain of them at present.

As to the three particular acts in question, upon the receipt of His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Repeal thereof, I enquired of Mr Waller the Clerk of the General Court, an old and leading member in the House of Burgesses; who is frequently employed in drawing the acts, and actually drew one of these three, what was the reason that the saving and suspending clauses were left out in these three Acts; whereas I must own, that in examining into all the private Acts passed since the Revival of the Laws in 1748, I could not find one single instance of their being omitted. His answer was, that in these Acts, as in all others, he had followed the established practice and Custom of their house, which was this: That in all Acts to dock entails, and in case of Infants, where the parties in possession cannot alienate the premises without an act for that purpose; the saving and suspending clauses are never omitted; but that, where the parties in possession had an undoubted right in themselves to alienate and convey the Lands upon a proper application to a Court of Judicature (which was the case in all these Acts) and only applied for an Act of Assembly to expedite the sale & make it clear and indisputable hereafter; they were never inserted. But My Lords, to confess a plain truth, which shall always be the measure measure of my conduct to your Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board, I fairly own, that upon a presumption that all such acts were prepared according to Form, in the Lower House, and the Rights of His Maj<sup>ty</sup> was properly taken care of when the Bills came before the Council, I gave my assent to them without ever examining them, or paying any attention to them. But as I have incurred His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s displeasure by so doing, your Lord<sup>ps</sup> may be assured I will be more circumspect for the future.

The Box of public papers and Acts, among which was the Negro Act<sup>1</sup>, was ship'd on board the Deliverance Capt<sup>n</sup> White who was lost on the Coast of France, the Duplicate of these acts went by the Jacob and Johanna Capt<sup>n</sup> Clarkson, who sailed the latter end of May, who I hope is safely arrived, and that your Lord<sup>ps</sup> are in possession of the Acts of that session.

I am truly sensible that a Governor or Commander in Chief is not to ask the advice of the Council assigned him by His Maj<sup>ty</sup>, whether he shall obey the Instructions of His Maj<sup>ty</sup>; but in regard to this Act, it was attended with some particular circumstances, which induced me to take that step, from which I thought I ought not afterwards to recede. The Act did not lay any new duty; if it had, I should most certainly have refused it without taking advice upon it: but it only provided against a Fraud daily practiced to avoid a duty, originally laid and by other subsequent Acts continued long before I arrived in the Colony. But the Act, in express terms (which could not be avoided, to give it its intended force and effect) contradicted the Instruction; in this situation and under these circumstances I applied to the Council for their advice what I should do? who, all but one, were unanimous that the sense and spirit was by no means broke in upon, as no new duty was imposed by the Act; as your Lord<sup>ps</sup> will find by their reasons inserted in the minutes of the Council and by a Duplicate I sent as soon as I heard of the loss of the Deliverance. I have been unfortunate, for duplicates of all these papers, were sent by the New York Packet which was taken by the French & Ransomed; but the papers were all thrown overboard and lost; however there is now an end of this affair, as in the next Session, this Act was repealed and the duty lowered from twenty to ten per cent, to answer the same purpose as was intended by the former Act; viz<sup>t</sup> to encrease the money coming into the Treasury from the said duty.

In relation to the Agent's Act, I am fully convinced that it was not the design of any part of the Legislature, to give the Committee of Correspondence any powers for which they should not be accountable to the General Assembly, so that the alteration desired by Your Lord<sup>ps</sup> will not as I apprehend meet with the least difficulty; whether the word General was left out by mistake, or whether the common acceptation of the words, Assembly and General Assembly having the same import here, occasioned this, I know not, but Your Lord<sup>ps</sup> may depend on my rectifying this in the next session. I hope your Lord<sup>ps</sup> will indulge me in the explanation of the step leading to this Agent's Act. When my predecessor the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Mr Dinwiddie had a dispute in this Colony ab<sup>t</sup> the Pistole Fee, the Burgesses lamented their not having an Agent at Home, to represent affairs of this nature to His Maj<sup>ty</sup> and Your R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board, supposing naturally enough that Mr Abercrombie<sup>2</sup> who was paid by the Gov<sup>t</sup> and Council out of the 2<sup>d</sup> duty, would not solicit that or any other affair against the Gov<sup>t</sup>; so they sent home an Agent<sup>3</sup> on purpose at a great expence. From that time they have been very intent on an Agent's Act, which in Mr Dinwiddie's time they could never obtain; so intent were they on this affair, that they attempted to tack it to the money Bill, in the second Session after my arrival, which I told them I would certainly refuse under such conditions. As I hoped never to make myself liable to any complaint, I could not see the ill consequence of letting them have an Agent, upon their raising money on themselves to pay him. Thus the Agent's Bill was prepared and passed. Notwithstanding this appointment of an agent agent by Act of Assembly, Mr Abercrombie is still continued as Agent to me and the Council to transact all business relating to the Royal Revenues, and such other affairs as are immediately under our cognizance only. He has instructions to co-operate with the other Agent in all matters for the behoof and benefit of the Colony.

<sup>2</sup> James Abercromby, agent in England of the governor and Council of Virginia. Abercromby was a lawyer, and served as judge advocate to General St. Clair in 1746. He was agent for North Carolina from 1748 to 1758 and also a private agent of Governor Glen of South Carolina.

As I have already mentioned to your Lordships my having lately sent duplicates or Triplicates of the letters lost, your Lordships will see by my letter of the 1st of December that I am very far from being urgent in having the Lands on the Ohio settled. I have been pressed thereto myself, but am so far from pressing it, that I have incurred the displeasure of the Officers who are claimants under the late Gov<sup>r</sup>'s proclamation, and have been charged with breach of his engagement by that Proclamation; for having obstructed their having surveys & patents for those lands, and for having wrote to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hamilton to desire he would desist from making any such grants till His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s pleasure therein should be known. This I did because I found some of our Officers designed to apply to the proprietary's Office in Pennsylvania for grants of the said lands, as they apprehended the grants would be made good, in whichever belong the Lands granted should be found to lie. The Lands the Officers (who were on the spot and had time to examine) had fixed their eyes on were many of them in Pennsylvania, and many on the western side the Ohio; which made me apply for a copy of the agreements or Treaties made with the Indians by the late General Forbes & General Stanwix, but which I have never got sight of. I am extremely well pleased that your Lordships sentiments on this head concur with and confirm mine, as I hope it will make the claimants more easy under my Refusal to make them the grants they required.

I hope My Lords, I have now cleared myself to your Lordships satisfaction, from the least symptom of inclination to disobey my Royal Master's Instructions. If I at all know my own heart, there is not the least wish of that sort working in it. Perhaps I have let circumstances weigh too much with me; if that is the case, I will be hereafter more cautious.

If your Lordships have ever favoured me with any letter on the subject of the Act relating to the Clergy, I have never received it, nor any instructions orders of Council, or other papers, excepting those delivered by the Rev<sup>d</sup> Mr Camm on the 27th June, in the extraordinary manner, which I notified to your Lordships in my letter of the 30th of that month.

I am with the greatest respect and esteem

My Lords,

Your Lordships most obedient, obliged and devoted servant.

FRAN: FAUQUIER.

LIEUT. GOVR. FAUQUIER TO THE LORDS OF TRADE.

My Lords.

I yesterday recd. the disagreeable news of the Garrison of Loudoun Fort in the Cherokee Country being treacherously and barbarously murdered, or taken, in their march down to Fort Prince George, at Keower in the lower settlements, agreeable to a Capitulation made by Captain Demere Commandant in the Fort, with the Head Warriors of the Indians; a copy of which I herewith inclose to your Lordships, who in all probability will have rec'd an account thereof before this will reach your Lordships.

After the retreat of Colonel Montgomery from the lower Cherokee Country, who had 2000 Men under his Command, the majority of which were Regulars; it was not thought adviseable to let Col: Byrd with 1000 Men mostly New levies, march into the Enemy's Country with our Convoy of provisions which we had purchased for the relief of the Garrison; when there was no diversion in the lower Towns, and the united force of the whole Nation was at Liberty, to oppose our throwing in the succours intended. It was very fortunate and providential that we were so late; for it would have been absolutely impossible impossible for Mr Byrd to have been at the Fort by the time Capt<sup>n</sup> Dunere signed the Capitulation, and if he had been advanced far into the Enemy's Country, in all probability our whole Convoy had been lost and the provisions we designed for our Friends had fallen to the lot of our Enemies. Tho' I must at the same time own, that the many unforeseen delays in arming and providing for our Men, gave me great uneasiness when they happened. This must have happened, for as far as I can learn, no attempt was made to give Mr Byrd who was on his march the least intelligence of this step of the Commandant who has lost his life at the head of his Garrison on his march, tho' escorted by Indians. I suppose it was utterly impracticable to keep open a communication in those parts.

If this War grows serious, it will be impossible for the Carolina's to defend themselves without assistance from Mr Ankerijt, I dare say this Colony will do all in their power; their interest is at stake; but I am of opinion, the security and safety of part of His Majesty's Colonys, cannot be procured by Provincial Troops only.

I wrote to Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> on the 1st inst: (in answer to your favour of the 13th June) by the Spotswood, Seton, for Bristol, and am with the greatest respect, My Lords

Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> most obedient

FRAN: FAUQUIER.

LIEUT. GOVR. FAUQUIER TO THE BOARD OF TRADE.

My Lords,

Under cover with this I sent to Your Lordships, Duplicates of my late letters, and a Triplicate of my letter of the 30th June, the original and Dupl<sup>ic</sup> of which, I have heard are both lost; one in the Resolution, Hogg, the other in the Russell, Craufurd, taken by the French.

There is a doubt arisen here, whether in the letter I had the honor to receive from Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> of the 13th June, Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> meant to include the Lands on Green Bryar, New River, or Kanhawa River, as lands not to be Patented. These Rivers have been tolerably seated for some time, but the settlers have abandoned their plantations on account of the late disturbances, but are now returning, and applications are making for New Patents. The lands I particularly wrote about, are two or three hundred miles to the Northwards of these lands; but as Your Lordship words are general, I have understood them in the most general sense, as including all lands on waters running into the Ohio and have refused to grant patents for these lands. If I have been mistaken in Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> sentiments I hope you will soon favour me with an explanation of them.

I was sometime since honoured with a letter from Mr Secretary Pitt, signifying His Maj<sup>ty's</sup> pleasure that I should inform his Council of any clandestine Trade carried on in this Colony, to the benefit of His Majesty's Enemies, and the detriment of his subjects, to which I have given a full answer. 1st that such trade has been chiefly carried on by means of Flags of Truce, of which I have not been prevailed on to grant one, tho' great temptations have been thrown in my way. 2<sup>dly</sup> That there is an open Trade carried on to Monte Christo, w<sup>ch</sup> I conceive to be wholly a French Trade, and 3<sup>dly</sup> that the Acts prohibiting the exportation of grain to neutral ports is evaded, by ships clearing out for Scotland or Gibraltar, and then pretending to be blown into the Madeires or some of the Western Isles by stress of weather; the Gov<sup>r</sup> lays his hands on the Cargo and obliges the Captains to dispose of it, at a great price.

The Assembly in a short session began in October have passed an Act to keep up 1000 Men this winter to be ready to assist the Carolinas against the Cherokees in the spring, in case the Negotiations for peace now on foot do not come to a happy issue. But I fear we shall not be able to bring them to reason without the assistance of some Regulars from

1 A port on the north coast of Santo Domingo.

Mr Amherst. I could not prorogue this Assembly on account of the expiration of the Tobacco Law; and as their sitting at the time of the General Court is attended with many and great inconveniencies, instead of proroguing them, I have ordered them to adjourn themselves, that their meeting in spring may be a continuation of the same Session.

The Acts, accounts, and all public papers I have now out of the respective Offices ready to be transmitted to Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> by the first ship which sails for London.

We have had the misfortune to lose Mr Commissary Dawson<sup>1</sup>, a Gentleman of great worth, probity and many other virtues; by whose death there is a vacancy in the Council. According to my Instructions I send Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> the names of three Gentlemen, all Men of property and much respected in this Country, and every way qualified for the honour of succeeding the late Mr Dawson as Councilor. Their merit is so great that I cannot give either the preference, but as I am particularly circumstanced at present, I leave it to your Lord<sup>ships</sup> consideration, whether conveniency ought not to take place. By my instructions I am ordered not to act with less than five of the Council, unless in cases of great emergency when I may act with three. By the death of Mr Dawson, and the absence of Colonel Ludwell<sup>2</sup>, there are about three of the Council within call in cases which require dispatch; viz<sup>t</sup> Mr President Blair, and the two Mr Nelsons<sup>3</sup>. I have found by experience, that the Gentlemen at a distance, who have great Rivers to cross, cannot be expected to attend Councils except at stated times, as Assemblies and General Courts, as the Gentlemen who live near can do; it is for this reason that I have picked out a Gentleman, who lives within 3 miles of me, and I hope Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> will always consider this conveniency in your recommendations to His Majesty, that I may constantly have five Gentlemen near at hand to consult with in cases which requires dispatch. I think the service of the Govern<sup>t</sup> demand it.

I am with the greatest respect, My Lords,
Your Lordships most obedient

sent. It was thought improper to send part of the Journals of the present session as it is possible some alterations may be made; when the general Assembly meets on the 5th of March according to their present adjournment.

I am informed by the Judge of the Admiralty Court here, that he has received directions from that Board to transmit an account of the proceedings on all captures of Spanish Vessels brought under his Jurisdiction; on a complaint from the Ambassador from the Court of Spain now in London. If I may judge of other Colonies by this, the complaint is not groundless for I granted a letter of Marque to Mr Sprole a Merchant of Norfolk, for a Privateer who sent in here as prizes two Spanish Coasting Vessels, one of which Mr Sprole did not think proper to libel in the Court, but discharged the Captain without making him any satisfaction; the other he libell'd the vessel was cleared, but by means of an appeal hanging over the Captains head, he has refused to make him any satisfaction also, who fell sick and died in the Country. His conduct has appeared to me in so scandalous a light, that I should have put his bond in suit (given for the performance of all things required by his instructions) if I had thought a suit could have been maintained without a complaint regularly lodged.

I wrote to your Lord<sup>ships</sup> a few days since by the Three Sisters, Capt<sup>a</sup> Gordon bound to Glasgow, a duplicate of which letter, and of this I shall send by a Bristol ship which is to sail in a week.

Sir

I have the honour to inform you that one of the four transports with the Massachusetts Provincial troops bound from Louisburgh to Boston by order of Major General Amherst, put in here by stress of weather and for want of provisions, with 120 men of those troops on board after having been two months at sea, unable to reach their port. I have given orders for their being subsisted here and victualed for the sea, when the Captain shall think it safe to proceed on his voyage. The Captain says he spoke with one of the others after being parted 30 days in the latitude of about 28. but was again separated by a hard gale before the next morning, and believes they may have got into some port in the West India islands, having not met them here as they agreed.

The notification of the loss we have sustained in the death of His late Majesty is not yet arrived, therefore I have taken no steps towards the proclaiming His present Majesty, from whose known virtues we have the greatest reason to expect a continuation of that happiness we have long enjoyed under this royal family.

But by the inclemency of the feafon, & the great Rivers my Meflengers had to crofs in their way up, and the Gentlemen to come here, only four who lives pretty near, attended: however, I proceeded to Proclaim His Maj<sup>'ty</sup> here on the 12th, attended by the Scholars and Mafters of the College, the Corporation of this City, as many Gentlemen of the Colony and of the Houfe of Burgeffes as I could Collect, and the Gentlemen of the Council prefent. The Proceffion was clofed by the Militia of the City under arms, and the Proclamations of His Maj<sup>'ty</sup>'s right to the Crown of thefe Realms, and for continuing the Officers in their places, till His Maj<sup>'ty</sup>'s further pleafure is made known, were read, amidft the joyful acclamations of the people; at the Capitol, the Market Place, and the College, each proclamation followed by a difcharge of fmall arms. All Gentlemen prefent figned the proclamation. I have fince that folemnity, ordered copies of the two Procl<sup>ts</sup> to be printed, and fent to the Sheriffs of the refpective Counties, ordering them to be read at the Court houfes before the Bench of Juftices and the Gentlemen of the Counties and at the head of the Militia, which I have ordered to be muftered for that purpofe. I have alfo ordered that the perfons prefent fhould be invited to fign the proclamation, and that they fhould be returned to me fo figned. And I have alfo ordered his Maj<sup>'ty</sup>'s order for the alteration of the prayers for the Royal Family to be printed and fent to the Minifter of every parifh in the Colony.

LT. GOVR. FAUQUIER TO BOARD OF TRADE.

My Lords,

The legislature of this Colony request the favour of Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> that you would be pleased to take the proper steps that their inclosed addrefs to His Maj<sup>ty</sup> may be humbly presented to him, as a testimony of their duty and attachment to His sacred person & government.

When the general Affembly had gone through the business of the Country, for which they stood adjourned, I dissolved them, as was expedient under our present circumstances. The Acts and journals of that Session I shall transmit to your Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board as soon as I can obtain them from the proper Officers which are always dilatory, for want as they acknowledge of Clerks properly qualified.

On the meeting of the next Affembly, there will be occasion for a new Act to appoint a Treasurer. As I am thoroughly convinced that no alteration can be made in this long established custom, of appointing the speaker of the house of Burgeffes, Treasurer for the money raised by the Colony for His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s and the Colony's use, without a manifest prejudice to His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s service, I shall be very anxious to know Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> present sentiments on this head. For as the present Gentleman, who now possesses the post of Treasurer, is the darling of the Country, as he well deserves to be for his great integrity, assiduity and ability in business; and as I have always found him the most useful Man to me, in conducting his Majesty's business, recommended to me, through the house of Burgeffes, being always ready to promote every thing I have communicated to him; I shall think it adviseable, and indeed my duty to pass a new act to make him Treasurer in the next Session of Affembly, which is to meet on the third of November next, unless I shall receive your Lord<sup>ships</sup> directions to the contrary, to which I shall always pay due obedience.

In the last session there was a great struggle in the Lower house about removing the seat of Government nearer the centre of the Colony, whether for any other reason than to ingratiate themselves with their Constituents for the approaching elections, as it was known a dissolution was to take place; I know not, but the reason alleged all appeared to me very trifling. The Bill was indeed lost on their not agreeing on the place though there was a large majority for removing it from this place. However, trifling as the reasons were, as it seems to me a matter of the utmost indifference to the carrying on His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s affairs where the seat of Govern<sup>t</sup> is placed. I shall in no shape obstruct such a Bill, whenever a like whim prevails, or private interest can make a majority for this measure, unless Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> should see this matter in a different light from that in which it appears to me; and in that case, I hope Your Lord<sup>ships</sup> will favour me with your sentiments & instructions. The present members of His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Council, I apprehend would stop such a Bill in their House; and this can always be effected without noise or bustle; due regard being had to the place of residence of gentlemen appointed to be of His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Council.

I have put the Regiment of 1000 Men in the pay of this Colony under the Command of Major General Aniherst, tho' they are actually in the Colony; this I did that he might be sure of their acting in conjunction with Col. Grant, who commands in South Carolina agst the Cherokee Indians, lest any clashing of orders might obstruct the good of the whole, and I have recommended it in the strongest manner to all the parties engaged, to keep up a constant and regular correspondence, that we may all know what each other is doing and all cooperate to the general good. The Indians stand in need of some European goods, tho' not of that variety, as much as we do; and if we forbear supplying them, as the French cannot now supply them, I am of opinion, they may be brought to reason without much bloodshed, which will make against us, on which ever side the advantage may be. If on their side, the consequence is obvious, and if it should be on ours, I am affraid that Revenge, the darling, almost the only passion of Indians, will never let them rest till they have satiated themselves with taking blood for blood; which they can always have an opportunity of doing on the back settlements of the Colonies whenever the the lust of vengeance prompts them. This will be a check to our Colonies extending further westward. We must make it their convenience to live at peace with us, for we have nothing else to trust to.

I have lately received a letter from Gov<sup>r</sup> Dobbs, which informed me that his Colony has at last agreed to the raising 500 Men, which are also to be put under the command of Major General Amherst. I am in hopes they will be ordered to join our Corps, and then possibly we may attack the Upper Cherokee Towns with some success at the time Colonel Grant's Corps attacks the lower.

I am with the greatest respect

most obedient and obliged humble servant.

LIEUT. GOVR. FAUQUIER TO BOARD OF TRADE.

I have deferred writing to Your Lord<sup>sh</sup>s till I could get the journals and Acts of the last General Assembly out of the respective Offices; which I always find a very difficult task; inactivity, indolence and an aversion to business prevailing universally thro' this Colony. However I have at last completed this affair, and shall send the box with all the public papers by Capt<sup>n</sup> Norton in his Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s ship Assistance, having lost some sent heretofore by single ships. But I would not lose the opportunity of writing to your Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board by Capt<sup>n</sup> Morris who proposes to sail three weeks before the Fleet.

In obedience to your Lord<sup>sh</sup>s letter of the 17th Febr<sup>y</sup> which was received by me on the 2nd June, I immediately consulted His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Council in relation to the claims of the Indians on the Lands on Green Bryar and New River or Woods River, which fall into the Ohio; the consideration of this was postponed till the General Court in October, when all the Members of the Council usually attend, when all agreements with the Indians and all their claims will be enquired into; and in the mean time I was desired to apply to Gov<sup>r</sup> Hamilton of Pensylvania, for copies of all treaties and agreements made with the Indians inhabiting the Country in the neighborhood of Fort Pitt, by Generals Forbes and Stanwix, while they commanded there, which I have accordingly done; that your Lord<sup>sh</sup>s may have all the information and insight into this affair which we may be capable of giving you. And in the mean time no new patents will be granted for those lands, till I receive your Lord<sup>sh</sup>s directions thereon.

<sup>2</sup> The 2nd paragraph of this letter has been printed in the Preface to the Journals of the House of Burgesses for the Assembly of 1761-1765.

I have given orders to His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Attorney General in relation to the prosecution of Mr Sprowle the owner of the Privateer, which took and brought in the two Spanish vessels; an account of which I wrote to your Lord<sup>ps</sup>. As it is a matter of great consequence and importance to the Crown, he has desired time to consider the Instructions, the nature of the Bond, and the proceedings and papers relating to the vessel which Mr Sprowle did think proper to libel in the Court of Admiralty, of which the Attorney Gen<sup>l</sup> is also Judge, and has called into his assistance the Judge Advocate, and other Gentlemen able practitioners in that Court that he may be assisted with their opinions in a matter of such moment; but he has promised me to make his Report before the sailing of the Fleet at the end of September.

Sometime since Gov<sup>r</sup> Sharpe of Maryland applied to me to know if there was a Commission in this Colony to try Pirates, on the suspicion of there being a Pirate then in the Bay. Upon my making enquiry of the Council, they informed me, that they well remember there was formerly such a Commission directed to the Commander in Chief and the Members of the Council for the time being, to which were added several other Gentlemen of note in the Colony, and that they remembered to have tried a Man for Murder upon that Commission; but upon searching, no such Commission is to be found and it is supposed to be one of the papers consumed when the Capitol was burned; and if it were now in being, would be of no authority under his present Maj<sup>ty</sup>, being granted in a former Reign. As such a Commission may become necessary at the end of the war, I am to intreat the favour of your Lord<sup>ps</sup>, that such a Commission may be renewed, if it should be thought expedient by His Maj<sup>ty</sup> and his most Hon<sup>ble</sup> privy Council.

Major Gen<sup>l</sup> Sir Jeffery Amherst communicated a letter to me from your Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board requiring him to send in three or four copies of the Acts of this Colony. I have accordingly endeavoured to procure them, but I find it impracticable. As they are not a saleable commodity, the printer takes off no more copies than what are immediately wanted, viz: one for every one of the Council & principal officers, and for every Court of Judicature in the Colony, for which he is paid by a Resolve of general assembly; they are of course out of print; I shall in the Box of papers by the Fleet send you my own set which I believe will be found to be very complete. If such sets of the Laws are wanted in England, upon directions from your Lord<sup>ps</sup> for that purpose, I will recommend it to the assembly to order the reprinting a sufficient number, that they may be in readiness on any future occasion.

I have this day received from Sir Jeffery Amherst by the Northern Post from New York Your Lord<sup>ps</sup> letter of the 28th Apr: with the Queries, to which I shall prepare myself from the proper Officers to give your Lord<sup>ps</sup> satisfactory answers, with all the dispatch which the nature of the thing will allow.

I am with the greatest respect

My Lords

Your Lord<sup>ps</sup> most obedient, obliged and devoted servant.

My Lords,

I take the opportunity of the Departure of His Maj<sup>ty</sup>'s Ship Assistance, commanded by W<sup>m</sup> Norton Esq<sup>r</sup> to transmit to your Lord<sup>ps</sup>, all the acts of the last session of Assembly, the Journals of the Council and of the House of Burgesses, the Receiver Generals accounts with those of the Naval Officers, and the duplicates of those before sent.

It may be necessary for me to explain the motive for the last Clause of Chapter 1st intituled: "An Act for the Recruiting and further continuing the Regiments in the service of this Colony, and for other purposes therein mentioned." In the year 1755 there was an Act for laying an additional duty of ten per cent on the importation of Negroes to be paid by the Buyer; in the year 1758 this Act was continued in force for a longer time, than the Act of 1755 provided for; when they determined to take off this additional duty, they by mistake repealed the Act of 1755 which laid the duty but was expired, instead of the Act of 1758 which continued it, so that this Clause became necessary, and was thought not an improper Rider to a money Bill.

Chapter 26th intituled "An Act for paying the Burgeffes wages in money for this present session of Assembly" in lieu of the Tobacco allowed them by an Act, which had received his Maj<sup>'ty's</sup> assent, is not altogether consistent with my Instructions on that head; but as no person is concerned in that Act but themselves, and nobody's property affected by it but their own, it being a self denying act, and as it has been the constant practice for many years. I have given my assent to it as usual, and hope I shall not incur His Maj<sup>'ty's</sup> displeasure for having done so.

Proofs of all the necessary forms relating to notices given in the respective parishes, where the lands lie, which are affected by the private acts, have been regularly produced in the Council and are recorded in the Journal thereof, of which I have given a certificate on the back of each particular act agreeable to my instructions thereon.

I have the honor to transmit to your Lord<sup>ships</sup> the opinion of His Maj<sup>'ty's</sup> Attorney General on the Case of the Captain of the privateer belonging to Mr Sproule and the Spanish vessel brought in by her, by which your Lord<sup>ships</sup> will observe he is of opinion that a suit can be maintained on the Bond, and that he has ordered out proper writs for the prosecution thereof agreeable to your Lord<sup>ships</sup> directions to me in your letter of the 17th Febr<sup>y</sup> last.

My Lords,

I think it my duty to take the opportunity of a packet which Sir Jeffrey Amherst proposes to send to England in a few days, to acquaint your Lord<sup>ships</sup> of my being in this City. I cannot say absolutely that a want of health made me take the benefit allowed me by His Majesty's Royal Instr<sup>ts</sup> of leaving my Colony for a short time to recover it, tho' I have not been perfectly well for near fifteen months past; but as I have thought it for the advantage of His Majesty's Colonies in general, as well of Virginia in particular that I should have a conference with Sir Jeffrey Amherst on the subject of the Cherokee affairs before he left this continent, I have made use of the liberty granted me; In which I hope, I have not done wrong as the time I shall be out of the Colony will be under a Month, being determined to return before the first day of the General Court on the 10. Oct<sup>r</sup>.

The Men we raised last spring to attack the upper Cherokee Towns in conjunction with Troops of North Carolina; while Col. Grant attack'd the lower Towns with the Troops of Great Britain and of South Carolina, have not been yet joined by a single Man from N<sup>o</sup> Carolina. From this disappointment, and from some difficulties Col. Byrd complains of in the being supply'd with provisions from the Contractors, has prevented him from penetrating into their Country, agreeable to the plan proposed, & orders given by the General.

But by the chastisement given to the Cherokees by Col. Grant, and by our Troops hovering over the upper Towns, I am in hopes a peace with those Indians is near being concluded

London March 25th 1759

Honourable Gentlemen

By His Honour the Leut Governor, you will be made acquainted, with Mr Leheup's resignation, and on this occasion, let the Zeal that I have hitherto occasionally shewn, in your Service, new recommend me, to the continuance thereof, as Successor to Mr Leheup and whatever Terms, the Leut Governor & you, shall prescribe to me, in your Service I shall acquiesce in.

I must do you the Justice, to let you know, the agreeable reception, that your address to his Majesty, and the whole of your public Proceedings, concerning the present controversy<sup>1</sup>, has hitherto met with, and such must ever be the reception, where public or private business is conducted with a due consistency, and with Candor, Temper, & Moderation;

Taking example from the disposition that you have shewn, for accommodating matters, I should have most sincerely & heartily, attempted, to have compromised these differences, on this side of the water, had there been the least opportunity left open for this purpose, but after having given the case in all its circumstances a most attentive deliberation, I can see no resource but in his Majesty's Judgment thereupon, and that, we shall ever have. You will, I hope, forgive, this my general address to you on the present occasion—an accident to my right hand, disables me from writing in a more particular manner; I beg leave therefore to conclude with returning you my thanks, for your acknowledgment of my past Services, & believe me to be on all occasions with great regard
